PUBLICITY AND CRITICISM.

"Congress shall make no law * * * abridging the freedom of speech or of the press," so reads a clause in our Constitution.

This is a wise provision. The citi-sens of a denormry should at all times know of and he able to criticise the management of their affairs. Investigation and criticiate in the pre-ent war have been of great benefit in basening our preparation by pola-ing out errors that have been made There is no doubt whatever that the great sufgrands in the conduct of the war are almost unlimited publicity and the right of criticism.

We are told that constructive crit-ician is always welcome, but who is to decide what is constructive? Why not critician without the adjacetive? Most citizens believe that Universal STATE OF THE ADDRESS TO ADDRESS T Puzzle: Find The Felon Military Training as a corrective of bur unpreparedness would have been constructive, and yet it was not adoptconstructive, and yst it was not adopt-ed. Who can tell, if it had been ne-cepted when first proposed, what the result would have been on this war! If we had had more publicity upon the production of accoplence, shipping and ordinance, the suggestions of think-ling men would unquestionably have stimulated the rapidity with which these articles were being produced. these articles were being produced, and the delays that have occurred might have been avoided.
