THE PETTED DOLL.

Women Lumberjacks Take Place of Men.

Replacement of male with female workers has gone so far in Great Britain that a Woman's Forestry Corps has been formed to do the work of logging and saw mills which is done in this country by husky lumberjacks. About 400 women have learned the business in a school in the Forest of Dean and they now fell trees and saw them into pit props, trench poles, barbed wire poles, railroad ties and other shapes. They are the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen of the old country, but are far more modestly paid than the members of that organization on the Pacific Coast. The fellers are guaranteed 1 pound a week and at piece work earn from 23 to 28 shillings, while the saw mill hands and scalars earn from 30 to 40 shillings a week.

When women invade such occupations as those of the lumberman, machinists and shipbuilder, there seems to be no limit to what women can do. The petted doll of past generations has passed away and in her place has come the woman who can do anything a man can, and does it. Man should not object provided that in the transformation woman does not lose her distinctly feminine qualities and does not shun the duty of motherhood, which becomes doubly important when the flower of young manhood is being cut down.—Portland Oregonian.

Health About Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. had us get Cardui. . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic

She writes further: "I am in splendid health. . . can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

GIRL'S LEMON JUICE IS A SKIN WHITENER

How to make a creamy beauty lotion for a few cents.

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of brachard white makes a whole quart of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold cream. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier. Just try it! Get three ounces of brachard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands.

PURE as Southern Sunshine

LIKE the soft, bearing sunlight of Dixie-land, Luianne brings cheer to meal-time breakfast, dinner and supper. Folks who try it once have a genuine affection for it ever after. Luianne comes to you in clean, sanitary, air-tight tins. The flavor stays in—impurities stay out. Buy a can of Luianne. Use the whole can. If you don't honestly believe it is better than any other coffee you ever tasted, tell the grocer to refund your money. But, try it.

'DIED OF WOUNDS.'

BY KATHERINE LEE BATES.

The chaplain wrote us of him—how he lay
A winsome boy in that long ward of pain,
Greeting the nurse with smiles day after day,
"Twas only once she heard the lad complain,
Once only that he tried to smile in vain.
"If the surgeons could have saved my leg, I might Have fought again. We have so few men here."
But when the arm, was taken, too, the right,
His talk was all of home, the farm, the dear
Old apple trees whose blossoms east their cheer
Upon him from five thousand miles away
"Our orchard must be lovely now," he said,
"I wonder if it misses me this May."
An hour before he died, with rapid tread
A famed French general came to that screened bed;
And there were tears upon the war-bronzed face
As terse, crisp accents told of deeds well done,—
A message sped through sheets of fire in race
With death, a wounded comrade dragged from one
Grim shell hole to another, fallen son
Of France, who thus her debt of love confessed.
The general, stooping, kissed each pallid cheek
And pinned the croix de guerre upon his breast.
The blue eyes lightened, and the one hand weak
And groping, sought the cross. He strove to speak;
The nurse bent close, slowly the white lips made
The words: "Tell dad, He knew that when I went
I was afraid that I should be afraid."
So slept, the last gold sands of boyhood spent,
Our soldier, unashamed and well content.

IT'LL ALL COME RIGHT.

No use in grievin'
When the storm's in sight;
Keep on believin'
It'll soon be light!
Black sky's weavin'
Of a rainbow bright!
Keep on believin'
It'll all come right!
Trouble's deceivin';
When the crop shows blight,
Sweet soil's heavin'
With a harvest white.
Then, oh, for the weavin'
Of a rainbow bright,
An' keep on believin'
It'll all come right.
—Frank L. Stanton.

THE FINAL REASON.

Officer (wearily)—Now Smith you've already had leave because your wife was ill, because your little girl had measles, and because you had to attend the christening of your youngest son. What—what is it this time?
Private Smith (briskly)—P—please, sir—I'm going to get married.—London Opinion.

A Beautiful Woman.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Some men can argue about religion and keep cool.

Sincere Gratitude.

Mrs. William Bell, Loganport, Ind., writes: "I deem it my duty to express my gratitude for the good Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy did me when I had a severe attack of diarrhoea three years ago. It was the only medicine that relieved me."

Satan probably had some good excuse for not learning to skate.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

WOMEN OF 1813.

Views As to Her Intellect and Her Sphere of Duty.

There lies on the desk a book published and sold by Moses Thomas, Philadelphia, bearing the date of 1813, which makes it 105 years old. There are many strange things in that book, which contains "Selections from Foreign Reviews and Magazines," all of which is claimed to be "the best thought of the ablest men of the age." There is an essay attacking a French authoress who was claiming an equality of intellect of the two sexes. The reviewer remarks: "Upon the whole, we do not think that a little learning is always dangerous thing in a lady, so long as it has reference to her condition of life and the spheres of her duties."

That is as far as the world had got at that time in the education of women. About seventy years afterward, when a woman senior wrangler at Oxford, which is the highest honor in mathematics, there began a change of opinion concerning the quality of women's intellect.

It was maintained in the entire period by these "ablest men of the age," that her physical structure made it impossible for her to comprehend the great questions, such as that of war. Since then a woman has written the greatest war hymn of the world.

CONVERSATION LAGGING.

She—Did I hear anything fall.
He—Why, no.
She—Oh, excuse me, I thought you dropped a remark.

Catarrhal Deafness Can't be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine.

MADE IN THE U. S. A.

A wounded American soldier was telling a civilian an exciting story of a battle.
"Yes," said he, "a boche shell hit me right in the neck."
"And you are alive now!" gasped the listener.
"Yes. You see, stranger, this shell was made in Germany, but my collarstud was made in the United States, and I guess the squib sort of subdivided. It was some stud."

Bronchial Trouble.

Mrs. A. E. Sidenburger, Rockfield, Ind., states: "For an attack of bronchial trouble which usually assails me in the spring I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the only thing that gives me relief. After using it for a few days, a sign of bronchial trouble disappears."

PAYS TO HUSTLE.

"All things come to him who waits."
"Seems to me, though, you'd save time by going after them."

LIFT YOUR CORNS OFF WITH FINGERS

Tells how to loosen a tender corn or callus so it lifts out without pain.

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called Freezons, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn or callus the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn or callus, root and all, lifts off with the fingers. Freezons dries the moment it is applied, and simply shrivels the corn or callus without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. A small bottle of Freezons will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but will positively rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or hardened callus. If your druggist hasn't any Freezons he can get it at any wholesale drug house for you.
