IN THE POTTER'S HANDS.

God Grant that the New Vessel May Be One that Seemeth Good Unto the Potter.

The mission of Jeremiah was to preach sermons to a people who had come into a terrible condition because of threatened war. God wanted them to understand that, even though they were his people, they must continually acknowledge his sovereignty over them, and that they must keep in right relationship with Him if they would prosper.

God told Jeremiah to go down to the potter's house and get an illustration for the next Sabbath's sermon. The preacher went down and watched the potter for a while as he fashioned vessels of clay on the wheel. Suddenly the potter crushed one of the vessels that was almost finished, and that seemed to Jeremiah as good as any of the others. Having destroyed the vessel that did not please him, the potter pounded the clay into a lump and began to make it into a new vessel.

God told Jeremiah to go and preach, using that as his illustration. For as the potter has power over the clay to make and change as he pleases, so is the nation in the hands of God to do with as seems best to Him.

For three years we had watched the nations of the world being crushed down again into lumps of clay for the starting of the vessels that would be more pleasing to the Potter. Then, suddenly, our own nation that seemed to us to be growing into a vessel beautiful and strong felt the hands of the Potter, and down went the walls. The plans so well laid and so nearly worked out are spoiled and almost forgotten, and now we are a lump of clay again in the hands of the Potter, and He is pressing and smoothing and moulding as we turn upon the wheel. God grant that the new vessel may be one that seemeth good unto the Potter.

It is not for us to try to mould the national life and purpose without God and his Son Jesus Christ, into whose hands the nations of the world have been given; it is for us to make sure first of all that our nation is right with God and that we have the spirit of submission and obedience to Him. Then the vessel will come out a vessel of honor, for the hands of God will be moulding the clay on the wheel.

A Beautiful Woman.

Do you know that a beautiful woman always has good digestion? If your digestion is faulty, eat lightly of meats, and take an occasional dose of Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen your digestion. Price 25c.

A DIFFERENT GUY.

A rookie was reading an article about the Kaiser which compared him with Nero. "Who was Nero, Bill?" he asked of a fellow-rookie. "Wasn't he a man that was always a kid?" "Naw," was the reply, "that was Nero, another guy altogether."

Can Now Eat and Sleep in Comfort.

If troubled with indigestion or sleeplessness you should read what Miss Agnes Turner, of Chicago, Ill., has to say: "Overwork, irregular meals and carelessness regarding the ordinary rules of health, gradually undermined it until last fall I became a wreck of my former self. I suffered from continual headache, was unable to digest my food, which seemed to lay as dead weight on my stomach. I was very constipated and my complexion became dark, yellow and muddy as I felt. Sleeplessness was added to my misery, and I would awaken tired as when I went to sleep. I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and found such relief after taking them that I kept up the treatment for nearly two months. They cleansed my stomach, invigorated my system and since that time I can eat and sleep in comfort. I am today entirely well."

LEMONS WHITEN AND BEAUTIFY THE SKIN

Make this beauty lotion cheaply for your face, neck, arms and hands.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart of the most wonderful skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of arched white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sunburns and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three cups of arched white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It is marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.

STOMACH TROUBLE

Mr. Marion Holcomb, of Nancy, Pa., writes: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach trouble. I would have pains and a heavy feeling over my ribs, a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. If I ate anything with butter, oil or grease, I would spit it up. I began to have regular sick headache. I had used pills and tablets, but after a course of these, I would be constipated. It just seemed to tear my stomach all up. I found they were no good at all for my trouble. I heard

THE DORF'S

ONE CENT A DOSE

A BROTHERLY HAND.

'Twas only a grasp in the hurry,
The bustle and business of life,
The strong, friendly grip of a brother,
As the crowd jostled on in its strife;
But the grasp left a lingering feeling
Of friendship, encouragement, cheer,
And you felt all refreshed and light-hearted,
Like the world wasn't all dark and drear;

'Twas only a hearty, warm handshake,
Grasp with its greeting so bland,
Yet somehow all day seemed the brighter,
For that grasp of a brotherly hand.
'Twas only a touch in the darkness,
When trials and dangers were rife,
A warning, a guide, a protection,
An omen of good 'mid the strife;
'Twas only a hand stretching outward,
To beckon, or caution, or cheer,
A monitor piloting upward
A counselor faithful and near;
'Twas only a touch in the darkness—
That touch had a meaning demand—
No signal so true and untailing
Like the touch of a brotherly hand.

SECOND COMMISSION.

Is that Vision of the Young Lieutenant Coming to Thousands of Young Men After the War is Over?

"DEAR FATHER," the soldier boy's letter read, "I know you and mother will be glad to learn that I have passed the final tests in the officers' school. I received my commission as lieutenant this morning. Some of the fellows who used to beat me at the university in mathematics and in chemistry failed to pass; they could not stand the grind. I'm not crowing over them, of course, but I can't help feeling set up a little over my first commission, for, if I do say it, I worked hard, and I thought of you and mother, and I was bound to pass."

The middle-aged couple who had given to the service their only son read his letter with tears of pride. "The boy is doing well," said the father, as he perused it a second time. "Lieutenant" sounds right to me. We must not forget to address his letters that way. He has earned his title." The mother murmured assent and tenderly placed the letter with the others that the boy had written since leaving home.

A year afterwards a letter from the boy came from "somewhere at the front," bearing the mark of the "Y. M. C. A.," and in the handwriting of a Red Cross nurse. This is the way it ran, in part: "I have been here three months, and they tell me you have been kept informed of my condition. This is the first time I have been able to dictate a letter." (Here followed an account of the engagement in which he had been wounded.) "While lying in this hospital I have had a remarkable experience. There are five nationalities in my ward, and the Red Cross administers its wonderful aid to us all alike, of course. A few nights ago, in a sort of waking vision, I seemed to see these nations lifting up beseeching hands for help to be lifted out of darkness into light. Then a figure came walking through the ward all in white, and it was the Christ. He stopped by my cot, and I heard Him say as plain as I ever heard you or mother speak, 'I commission you, with thousands of others like you, to preach the gospel to the world that has not heard or heeded it.'"

"All that was as clear to me as any real happening. It was a real happening. I cannot describe to you the wonderful beauty of that figure as it came down between the cots. But I, as I lay there that night, said to my Lord and Master that I would accept His commission. If I am spared, I will come back as a gospel messenger to fight the battle for souls. I have received my second commission, father, and it is greater than the first, don't you think?"

Is that vision of the young lieutenant coming to thousands of young men after the war is over? They have been living the life of adventure and excitement. It will not be easy for them to settle down to the commonplaces of civic and business life. But the world will lie open to the great adventure of the gospel messenger as never before. The nations that have felt the hand of Christ held out to them through the Red Cross and the Young Men's Christian Association, and the other agencies of mercy, will be ready as never before to accept Him. May the vision of Him and His great commission come to the young men now in the fighting ranks as it came to this one in the hos. "I" over there?

BELIEVE IN "LUCK CHARMS"

FIGHTING MEN HAVE FAITH IN ALL SORTS OF THINGS—LIVING MASCOTS ESPECIALLY POPULAR.

Many and various and queer are the "luck charms" of fighting men. Tiny rabbits and black cats made of "lucky" metal are found quite frequently.

Among the French it is held particularly lucky to have a gold coin in one's possession when going into battle.

The British carry a lucky flower, the white heather. A piece of this heather properly tucked away inside the hatband is supposed to save the wearer from a fatal wound.

When it comes to living mascots, the fighters have a collection big enough to stock a zoo. Dogs—of almost every breed under the sun—cats, monkeys, birds, raccoons, white rats, goats, deer, lion cubs, bears, armadillos and what not, about anything that wanders into camp or is sent in by friends.

SUPERIOR ATTITUDE.

"Is Glibwitz a man of large ideas?"

"In one sense."

"How is that?"

"Anyone who disagrees with his idea looks extremely small to him."

HIS ABSENT DARLING.

"I've got to raise $50 this week."

"Is it urgent?"

"I should say so. If I don't get it my wife will come home."

Catarrhal Deafness Can't be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. One cause out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine.

TRY IT! SUBSTITUTE FOR NASTY CALOMEL

Starts your liver without making you sick and can not salivate.

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling-off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs but a few cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like calomel.

CLIP THIS AND PIN ON WIFE'S DRESSER

Cincinnati man tells how to shrivel up corns or calluses so they lift off with fingers.

Ouch ! ! ! ! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freestone when applied to a tender, aching corn or hard-and-callus stops soreness at once, and soon the corn or callus dries up and lifts right off without pain. He says freestone dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding skin. A small bottle of freestone will cost very little at any drug store, but will positively remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels. If your druggist doesn't have freestone 1.1 him to order a small bottle for you.
