

Tired, Weak, Dizzy Women with Headache, Pains—here and there

Should find relief from their sufferings by taking the Woman's Temperance Tonic and Nerve, which has helped so many women—some of them right in your neighborhood.

A woman suffering from nervous prostration, excitability, or indigestion, derangement, or displacement of the special organs, will find health regained after using Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

For women who are run-down and over-worked, at the critical periods of a woman's life; from girlhood to womanhood, and later, this is especially adapted to her needs, for it strengthens and regulates. In tablet form or liquid, at drug stores. Write the specialist at Doctor Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for free confidential medical advice. Send ten cents for trial package Favorite Prescription tablets.

The System is something like a clock—needs oil occasionally. Everyone should take castor oil, or something like that, like Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which are made of vegetable pulp, also—sugar-coated, regulate, cleanse and oil the clock-work.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

This will doubtless be a fruitless year.

We had ice several mornings last week.

Peaches, pears and plums are doubtless killed.

Miss Allie Kelley is visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Superior court was in session at Jackson last week.

Ever notice what a lot of friends your enemies have?

Peaches will be few and far between next summer.

Miss Narcissa Daniel spent the week end in Raleigh.

April has certainly given us some very cold weather.

Col. A. J. Burton has returned to his home in Reidsville.

A serious tangle is often the result of a matrimonial knot.

Mrs. N. L. Stedman, of Halifax, was a visitor in town this week.

Don't mind a little thing like slander; it will rub off when dry.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Allen spent a few days in Raleigh last week.

Women are born to love and be loved and they fight it out on that line.

Adam had a childish experience with little green apples after reaching manhood.

A man is seldom as black as he is painted or a woman as white as she is powdered.

Mr. Leslie Daniel who has been living in Hopewell, Va., has returned to Weldon.

Miss Lucretia Wilson, of Raleigh, spent the week end with her sister, Miss Rosalie Wilson.

Sleep eight hours of the twenty-four; eat three meals a day and walk on the sunny side of the way.

Rev. Hardy Hughes, of Boston, Mass., spent Sunday night in town. He was en route to Tillery to visit relatives.

Mrs. F. M. Shamburger who has been visiting relatives in Oxford and Gainesville, Ga., has returned home.

Mr. G. W. Parsons and Miss Agnes Jackson, of Salisbury, Md., are visiting Mr. H. G. and Miss Katie Parsons.

The colored people of Weldon have organized a brass band. The instruments have already been received and now for music.

Mrs. M. E. Mitchell and Miss Lizzie Mitchell, of Franklin, Va., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mitchell, in South Weldon.

Don't grumble if your paper is not always flush up to the high standard of your ideal. Charitably remember that no editor is capable of getting up quite as good a paper as you could yourself.

Mr. S. B. Holloway, who has been head of the Exemption Board for the past several months, has left us and returned to his home in Enfield. Polite, clever and affable to all, we would indeed be glad to claim him as a permanent citizen.

NOTICE OF TOWN ELECTION.

Notice is hereby given that an election for mayor and seven commissioners for the town of Weldon, will be held at the town hall on Tuesday, the 6th day of May, 1919, between the hours of 8 o'clock a. m. and sunset. That the registrars appointed by the Board of Commissioners on the 4th day of March, 1919, is E. H. Hayward, and J. C. Cornwall and H. B. Harrell, Jr., are Judges of Election.

E. L. HAYWARD, Town Clerk.

MARRIED.—Married at the residence of Mr. Colie Clark, in this place, on Sunday evening last, Mr. Roupert O. Sellers, of Washington, to Miss Corinne Crush, Rev. F. M. Shamburger, officiating. Only a few friends were present to witness the ceremony. They left on train No. 83 for Florida, where they will make their future home. Miss Crush is a sister of Mrs. Clark and is pleasantly remembered by many of our readers. Congratulations and best wishes.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.—The following is a list of letters remaining "uncalled for" in the Weldon postoffice:

J. N. Green.
Ida Sexton.
Miss Wesley Williams.
Persons calling for above letters will please say "advised," giving date of advertising.

MR. JOHNSTON DEAD.—The remains of Mr. Eugene Johnston were brought here from Richmond, Va., Tuesday night and taken to the home of his sister, Mrs. Nora Perkins where at 2 P. M. Wednesday the funeral services were held.

The burial was at the Littleton cemetery, where many friends were present to pay the last tribute of respect to one whose friendship had been tested and found true on many occasions.

Until his health began to decline a few years ago Mr. Johnston was one of Littleton's most loyal and patriotic business men. Had he lived a few months longer he would have been fifty years old. His health began to decline soon after the completion of that excellent business block that will stand as a memorial to his enterprise.

He leaves two brothers, Whit and Jack, four sisters, Mesdames Nora Perkins, Henry Nicholson, M. Nelson and M. W. Ransom. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful.—Littleton News Reporter.

NATIONAL WOMAN'S LIBERTY LOAN COMMITTEE.—The following is the National Woman's Liberty Loan Committee for Halifax county:

Kingwood—Misses Julia Williams, Nannie Laughter, Janet Cousins, Mrs. C. A. Williams; Miss Willie Williams, chairman.

Thelma—Miss Lena Hamill, chairman.

Weldon—Mrs. F. A. Cole, Miss Eunice Clark, Mrs. C. F. Gore, Mrs. Alice Hudson, Mrs. J. S. Turner, Mrs. C. W. Gregory, Mrs. C. C. Parker, Mrs. J. W. Pierce, Mrs. W. A. Pierce, Mrs. E. L. Williams, Mrs. W. H. Capell, Mrs. L. T. Garner, Mrs. E. G. Garlick, Mrs. W. E. Daniel, Mrs. R. H. Merchant, Miss Louise Darden, Mrs. A. L. Cochran, Mrs. R. P. Todd, Mrs. W. L. Knight, Mrs. J. S. Barr.

Colored—Mrs. J. A. Tinsley, Mrs. J. A. Alston, Mrs. C. P. Anthony.

South Weldon—Mrs. H. V. Bounds, Mrs. J. A. Johnston, Mrs. N. J. Shepherd; Mrs. L. W. Murphrey, chairman.

TRIANGULAR DEBATE.—On last Friday night our school contested in a double-header debate with the Roanoke Rapids school. Our debaters handled themselves remarkably well; but their opponents showed that they had been on the debating arena before.

Three of our opponents had previously been in a State wide triangular debate, and been to Chapel Hill. Only one of ours had been to the State University, as a result of winning in a debating contest. With such odds against us, we did remarkably well. Our debators produced equally as good argument as their opponents, but were not quite so well posted on previously written rejoinders.

Although we lost the decision of the judges, Rev. M. Y. Self, of Scotland Neck, Prof. Henry G. Ellis, and Lieutenant E. L. Potter, of Emporia, Va., we gained a whole lot, first a knowledge of our weak points, second a determination to try again.

Another feature of the evening was the splendid music furnished by Mr. Hardison and his company of musicians. The audience greatly enjoyed this. We are very grateful to our orchestra for its part of the program so efficiently carried out.

At the close of the program refreshments consisting of candy, salted peanuts, sandwiches and pickles, were served to the debaters, judges, president and secretary of debate and members of the orchestra.

MISS SHOULARS HOSTESS.—Friday evening, March 28th, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Rodwell, the Senior B. Y. P. U. had its first quarterly social.

The reception hall, parlor and dining room were tastefully decorated in peach blossoms and ferns. A contest of "Abbreviations of the States" was one of the attractions.

Advanced First Grade—Lloyd Ray Cullom, George Merchant, Rebecca Johnson.

Second Grade—Virgie Harrison, Margaret Johnston Sledge, Katie Pilley, Evelyn Anthony, Maxine Drake, Natalie Cole, Ray Allsbrook, Leo Dixon, Arthur House, Josephine Freid.

Third Grade—Margaret Capell, Elizabeth Chiuenden, Mary Harrison, Henry House, Shepherd Green, Janie Blalock, Anna Olivia Drake, Virginia Turner, Elizabeth Allen, Florence Freid, Eleanor Barr, Mary Frances Parker, Herman Farber.

Fourth Grade—David Jackson Ward, Alma Wyche, Elizabeth Bounds, Walter Lee Scott, Eugenia Hudson, Nellie Wright Vincent, Mattie Jones, G. C. Sanders.

Fifth Grade—Vivian Sanders, Bernice Dixon.

Sixth Grade—Frances Scott.

Seventh Grade—Elsie Mae Crew. High School—Lucile Wallace, Margaret Hudson, Charles Vincent, Ethel Crew, Lucile Merchant, Louise Hayward, Virginia House, Bessie Jones, Mabel Holdford, Louise Farber, Sadie Sylvester, Margaret Garlick, Bettie Merchant, Katherine Wallace.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Rodwell, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Gore, Mrs. J. G. Blalock, Mrs. Sidney Allen, Mrs. Ruth Hunter, and Misses Garner, Pearl Harris, Narcissa Daniel, Oris Shoulars, Rosa Rodwell, Marvel Mitchell, Maude Harris, Messrs. W. B. Edwards, S. E. Shirley, B. G. Rodwell, Eugene Daniel and Mr. Strothers.

GOOD ROADS.—A good country road is always to be desired and is a source of comfort and convenience to every traveler. Good roads attract population, as well as good schools and churches. Good roads improve the value of the property, so that it is said a farm lying five miles from market, connected by a bad road, is of less value than an equally good farm lying ten miles away from market connected by a good road. A larger load can be drawn by one horse over a good road than by two over a bad one. Good roads encourage the greater exchange of products and commodities between one section and another.

OBITUARY.

Berry Wesley Cullom, son of Joel and Nancy Cullom, was born January 28, 1844, and departed this life the evening of March 28, 1919, at the age of 75 years and two months. He was an old soldier, serving through the Civil war and while there received some severe wounds from which he recovered and lived to the ripe old age mentioned above. He possessed faith in Christ in early life and lived a faithful Christian until his death. The sudden going of Uncle Berry, as most everybody called him, has cast a gloom over the entire community not that we have any fears of his eternal welfare or that we doubt God's will in doing right for if we are to judge a tree by the fruit it bears we are confident that he is not dead but only transferred from a life of service, pain and sorrow to a life of eternal joy with the angels around the throne of God. He always looked on the bright side of life and tried to see some good in everybody. He loved life but at the same time he was not afraid of death.

It was the writer's pleasure to visit his home only a few weeks before his death and I have never visited a home where there was any more love and sunshine in my life. He always seemed to be happy and loved to hear good old-time songs, his favorite song being "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder I'll Be There." And such a loving and devoted wife. But dear wife, you have nothing to grieve for that you have left undone for I believe you have done all that was in your power for him while on earth so don't grieve just humbly bow and say the Lord gave and the Lord taketh away blessed be the name of the Lord. The beautiful flowers that covered the grave bore a silent tribute to the esteem felt for him by his friends and neighbors and the tears shed were tears of love for one whose many kindnesses were sacred in our minds. We are very sad to know that on earth we will see him no more but over on the other side we hope to meet with other loved ones where parting will be no more. Uncle Berry leaves a widow, several brothers, and many other near relatives. The funeral services were conducted at the home by his pastor, Rev. Mr. Towe, and the remains were laid to rest in the family burial grounds to await the resurrection morn.

May the Lord sustain the broken-hearted widow and loved ones in this sad hour. Loved ones it is sad to think Uncle Berry will be among us no more in this world but it is comforting to think some sweet day when life is over we shall meet again. We shall greet those loved ones gone before in that happy home of love.

Trials here below we meet
Sorrow, pain and care
In that happy home so sweet
Joy and peace will share.

Bright the dawning of that morn
Night returned to day.
Parted friends no farewell know
All tears be wiped away.

A COUSIN.

CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to thank my kind friends and neighbors for their many kind acts shown me through the sickness and death of my dear husband.

Mrs. B. W. CULLOM.
