

PRINCE ALBERT

YOU can't help cutting loose joyous remarks every time you flush your smokespot with Prince Albert—it hits you so fair and square. It's a scuttling full of jimmy pipe and cigarette makin' sunshine and as satisfying as it is delightful every hour of the twenty-four!

It's never too late to hop into the Prince Albert pleasure-pasture! For, P. A. is trigger-ready to give you more tobacco fun than you ever had in your smokecareer. That's because it has the quality.

Quick as you know Prince Albert you'll write it down that P. A. did not bite your tongue or parch your throat. And, it never will! For, our exclusive patented process cuts out bite and parch. Try it for what nils your tongue!

Tippy red bags, tidy red tins, handsome pound and half pound tin humidors—and that clever, practical pound crystal glass humidior with sponge moisture top that keeps the tobacco in such perfect condition.

WELDON 33 YEARS AGO.

From The Roanoke News, Mar. 25-April 1-8-15, 1886.

Mr. J. M. Mallon, of this county, and Mr. T. W. Mason, of Northampton county, have been appointed by the Governor upon the committee to visit the University, examine its condition and make a report at the commencement next June.

MARRIAGE—It gives us pleasure to announce the marriage of David Bell, Esq., of Enfield, to Miss Eliza A. McLin, also of that place, which took place at the Church of the Advent, Enfield, on Wednesday, the 17th instant, the Rev. A. S. Smith, D. D., officiating.

THE LITERARY SOCIETY—On Tuesday night the Weldon Literary Society gave an intellectual entertainment to the people of Weldon was enjoyed by the large audience. About 8 o'clock Judge W. A. Daniel, the president of the society, introduced the Rev. W. B. Morton, who had been selected for the declamation. He chose "Asleep at the Switch." Mr. Morton was fully equal to the occasion and his rendering of the piece was as well done as it could be and was much enjoyed by the attentive audience. The subject for debate was "Which has more influence on man, money or woman?" Mr. J. J. Lockhart opened the debate in favor of "money" and sustained his side of the question with ability. He was followed by Mr. W. T. Shaw, who spoke eloquently and ably in favor of the all powerful and all pervading influence of "woman." Dr. J. E. Shields was the next speaker and he upheld the power and influence of money in a speech full of humor and pathos, at one time having the audience silent in thought and then again breaking out into rippling laughter which sometimes grew to a roar at his sallies of wit. Mr. P. N. Stainback, was the last speaker, and he spoke in favor of "woman." Mr. Stainback is fluent, easy and graceful and gave some hard hits to the opposition. A vote of the society by a small majority decided the question in favor of money, and the audience voted on the side of woman.

REMEMBER THIS IS

We have been anxiously looking forward to the time when we could tell you all about all the new Nemo inventions.

Until now this has been an impossibility, because we were co-operating with the Government to help decrease the demand for corsets.

Our stock of Nemo Corsets and Brassieres have been specially replenished so that we can readily fit you to just the Nemo Corset and Brassiere you should wear.

New Nemo of Reducing Corset No. 361.

This corset combines extreme economy of price with great durability, beautiful lines and positive flesh reducing. It is, however, only one of the remarkable values we have to offer this week.

Self-Reducing Corset, $3.50, $5.00
Little Nemo Magic Hip $3.00, 3.50
Jusful Bassieres $1.00, $1.50, $2.00

AN extraordinary session of Congress of the United States has been called to meet on May the 19th, to receive such communications as may be made by the Chief Executive.

REPUBLICAN Leader Mondell's statement that the constructive legislation enacted by the recent Democratic Congress had been discussed is an admission of the truth of the oft repeated charge that the G. O. P. is the party of promises, but not of fulfillment.

A year ago, vocal patriots were declaring that the War Department had "ceased to function." When the armistice was signed, the American troops on the western front were second in number to the French, only, as was the extent of the front they held.

If our memory isn't far afield, none of the conspicuous opponents of the League of Nations was in Europe at any time during the war or has been there since. On the other hand, some of the leading advocates of the league have been over where they got a first-hand picture of war's horrors, notably former Attorney Wickensham and former Postmaster General Hitchcock.

REPUBLICAN high-tariff advocates are going to find it difficult to get the country to accept prosperity as an issue. The country's prosperity is reflected in the enormous foreign trade, with the balance heavily on the side of exports, and the fact that the Treasury Department's call of March showed the country banks to have made the most notable increase on record.

MEMORIAL EXERCISES.

Captain W. T. Shaw's Picture Presented to the Graded School.

Confederate Memorial exercises were held in the auditorium of the graded school on Friday, May 9th, at 8 o'clock P. M. An interesting program had been prepared and was much enjoyed by a large and sympathetic audience.

Hon. Tasker L. Polk, of Warrenton, made the address of the evening and as usual delighted his hearers. While paying high tribute to the glorious part North Carolina has played in the events of the nation in the past he dwelt especially on the course of one of Weldon's own who fell on the 18th of July last at Chateau Thierry. Capt. William T. Shaw whose portrait, a handsome picture done in sepia, at the close of the address was presented to the school by Mrs. Ida T. Wilkins, president of the Junius Daniel Chapter U. D. C. of Weldon. This picture was given by the Chapter and the Lotus Club composed of the young men of Weldon of which Captain Shaw was a member. The president in presenting the picture spoke of herself as a living link connecting the bright May morning of more than half century ago, when the news came that Stonewall Jackson was dead, with the 26th of July, 1918, when the news came that one of her own sons had fallen in far away France. She emphasized the fact that Capt. Shaw's name with Lee and Jackson should be held in honor by the future pupils of the school with the hope that by looking on this portrait others might be led to higher attainments and nobler purposes and so emulate the example of this noble young man. Little Lillian Pierce Williams unveiled the portrait which had been draped by a beautiful silken U. S. Flag. Prof. W. B. Edwards, superintendent of the school, was master of ceremonies, introduced the speaker and accepted the picture for the school in place of Hon. W. E. Daniel who was unavoidably absent. This Mr. Edwards did with ease and grace.

The rostrum of the school was beautifully decorated by a committee of ladies of the Chapter with ferns, flowers and Confederate flags, while the flags of the Allies with "Old Glory" high over all made a most inviting picture. The orchestra composed of ladies of the faculty of the High School and young gentlemen of the town added much by their patriotic songs and airs.

The services were opened with prayer by Rev. F. M. Shumberger and closed with the benediction by Rev. J. G. Black, and so ended a most beautiful and impressive occasion.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it incurable, and resorted to local treatments, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer our guaranteed dollars for any case it fails to cure.
