EXPECT TO COLLECT
SUM OF $53,000,000

SOUTHERN METHODISTS OUTLINE
PLANS FOR HANDLING GREAT CENTENARY FUND.

Organization Will Collect Largest Amount Ever Handled By Any Religious Denomination Anywhere.

The Centenary Commission of the Methodist Episcopal Church South has announced its plan for collecting the $53,000,000 which was pledged for the missionary work of the church in the recent eight-day drive. The plan was prepared and will be directed by Colonel John E. Edgerton, of Tennessee, the general centenary treasurer and the director of the department of finance for the Centenary Commission.

Colonel Edgerton is a well-known business man. He is president and manager of the Lebanon Woolen Mills, president of the Tennessee State Manufacturers Association, and during the war he was a member of the executive committee of the war industry board appointed by President Wilson.

"Our slogan is no shrinkage, but an increase," said Colonel Edgerton recently. "Just as the Southern Methodist church has surpassed all records in securing pledges for benevolent purposes and has raised the largest sum ever given to any church at one time in the history of the world, so do we expect to set a new record in the collection of these pledges."

An Extensive Organization.

The organization through which these pledges will be collected has four centers of responsibility. The first is a general finance commission with headquarters at Nashville, headed by Colonel Edgerton. This commission has prepared the standard plan and will direct the entire movement, handing down to the various bodies throughout the church detailed plans for their guidance.

There will also be a conference cabinet in each annual conference of the church, about forty in number. These conference cabinets will be composed of the Conference Missionary Secretary, Conference Campaign Director, the Lay Leader, and the Conference Centenary Treasurer. Each of these officials have certain specific duties, and will direct the work of collecting all the pledges in each annual conference.

In each of the four hundred districts of the church there is a similar cabinet composed of the Presiding Elders, the Lay leaders, Campaign Directors and the Chairman of the minute men, the Sunday school superintendent and the president of the Woman's Misionary Society. This cabinet will do all the actual work of collecting the individual pledges.

A TIP FROM UNCLE SAM

College Educations are Made Possible By Government Plan

Director of War Loan Organization of This District is Anxious to Explain Method to All Who Are Interested and He Invites Requests for Information.

Perhaps in no other thing is Uncle Sam more interested than in the future of America in the citizens of tomorrow—the children of today—and he consequently realizes the tremendous importance of inculcating in the minds of the children the principles of thrift and enkindling in their hearts a desire to improve their condition in life. With these things in view the government is suggesting ways whereby a higher education may be had by many boys and girls who otherwise would never receive the benefits of a college course.

"In the 2,000,000 homes in Maryland, the District of Columbia, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina," said Albert S. Johnstone, director of the War Loan Organization, Richmond, Va., "there are perhaps 1,000,000 boys and girls, 12 to 15 years old, who are looking forward to entering college—some day. Their parents realize, if the boys and girls do not, that this 'some day' will come very, very soon."

It is not merely a question of money. Enkindled ambition steady adhered to by both the child and his parents is necessary. Otherwise the money will probably not be accumulated in time, nor appreciation of the value of a college education so developed in the minds of the boy and girl that they will stick to their purpose to get it regardless of the obstacles in their path."

"There is a method provided by the United States Government by which this money can be accumulated gradually and be ready when it is needed. Meanwhile it will be absolutely safe, will draw a splendid rate of interest and be exempt from all state, county, and city taxes, both as to principal and interest, except estate or inheritance taxes. Moreover, the process of getting this money ahead is so simple so direct, that all the members of the family may share in it, though no one can get it except the one to whom it belongs."

Mr. Johnstone says he would like to tell every interested parent, boy, or girl more about it. He asks simply that you fill out the coupon below, clip it out, and mail it to him at the address given on it. He promises a prompt reply.

Dear Sir:

I have read of the method provided by the United States Government by which the accumulation of money in advance to secure a college education is being encouraged. I would like to know more about it. Please write me fully.

About the first question our salesmen will ask you when you try on one of our new

Is "How does it feel?" In other stores they ask "How does it look?" The difference is that we will first select a hat that will become you, and we know that a "Mallory" Hat will fit right, so what we want to know is whether the hat feels right on the head.
