LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Don't time fly. Now for oysters. Jack in the bush. Good-bye summer. Turnips are coming up. Chinquepins are ripening. September—the first fall month. When the swallows homeward fly. Get in your winter supply of coal. The school bells will soon be ringing. The days of the straw hat are numbered.

The farms are being dotted with fodder stacks. County treasurer, W. R. Harvey was in town Monday. The Weldon colored brass band visited Litleton last week. It is now in order for some one to predict a late fall and a cold winter. The delicious scuppernon grape has sent notice that he will be along soon. Miss Annastacia Forbes, of Greenville, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. S. Barr. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Knight made a recent visit to relatives at Rich Square. Mrs. Frank A. Cole and children, who have been visiting relatives in Alabama, have returned home.

Miss Carrie Johnson, of Rich Square, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. L. Knight. The Board of County Commissioners met in regular session at Halifax last Monday. Mr. Will Cassidy and family, of Roanoke, Va., visited Mayor W. W. Wiggins last week. Mr. Herbert Rowe has returned home, having been honorably discharged from the navy. Mrs. A. C. House who has been visiting friends at Saranac Lake, N. Y., has returned home. Miss Virginia Owen, who has been visiting friends in Rocky Mount, has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pierce and children, and Misses Eleanor and Sarah Edwards, of Kingston, who have been spending some time at Ocean View, have returned home.

Mrs. I. E. Green and daughter, Miss Grace Munsley, are visiting friends in Powhatan county, Va.

Miss Arlene Joyner, who has been visiting Mrs. J. S. Barr, has returned to her home in Greenville.

Mr. Chas. J. Adkins lost a valuable colt last week. He had just refused $150 for this beautiful animal.

Miss Inez Smithwick, of La Grange, who has been visiting Miss Bessie Owen, has returned home.

Monday, the 8th, the Graded school will open. Get the dust off your books, children, vacation days are over.

Rev. C. O. Pardo will preach at the Presbyterian church on the 1st and 3rd Sundays, morning and evening.

Lieutenant-Commander W. R. Smith, U. S. Navy, spent several days in town last week, the guest of Capt. W. R. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Johnston have just returned from a most delightful visit to friends and relatives at Warrenton, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnston, of Littleton, spent Wednesday of last week in town the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pierce.

Judge J. M. Mullen, of Petersburg, was in town Friday. He was en route to Rosemary to visit his son, Mr. T. W. Mullen.

Miss Allie Kelley is in Baltimore this week, buying goods for Mrs. P. A. Lewis' millinery establishment. She will be absent about ten days.

Mrs. P. A. Lewis, who has been spending some time in Baltimore, has returned home, bringing with her Mrs. Heidi, who will be her head milliner this season.

Mrs. Nannie E. Bridgers, after spending several days very pleasantly in the home of her nephew, Mr. D. C. Johnson, has returned to her home in Margaretsville.

Mr. H. C. Spiers left last Friday for Buffalo Lithia Springs, where he will remain for several days. Mr. Spiers has been in feeble health for some time and his many friends wish him a speedy return of his former good health and a safe return home.

Capt. and Mrs. Philip Moore have returned to Weldon after an absence of about a year. Captain Moore has been in France a greater part of this time, while Mrs. Moore has remained in Brooklyn, N. Y. Their many friends are glad to welcome them back.

MARRIED.—Married at the Baptist parsonage on last Thursday, by Rev. J. G. Blalock, Mr. Chas. J. Adkins to Miss Sissie Hart, of Northampton county.

THE DANCE.—The young people of the town gave a most enjoyable dance at the hall last Friday night. There was quite a large crowd present. The Rocky Mount band made good music for the occasion.

CHIMNEY STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—During the severe storm last Saturday afternoon, lightning struck one of the chimneys on the residence of Mr. W. A. Pierce. It knocked the top of the chimney off and shattered the other part down to the roof, breaking right much of the slate by the falling brick.

DIED NEAR TILLEY.—Died at the residence of Capt. C. J. Rhem, near Tilley, on Sunday last, Miss Mary Lane Bryan, aged about 63 years. She was a sister of Mrs. Rhem and an aunt of Mrs. J. S. Turner and Mrs. C. W. Gregory, of this place. The remains were taken to Ayden for burial.

TAX COLLECTORS APPOINTED.—The Board of Commissioners at Halifax last Monday appointed the following tax collectors: Brinkleyville—G. L. Knight. Butterwood—W. E. Nicholson. Conocoanara—J. E. Shields. Enfield—J. C. Branch. Faucets—J. B. Dickens. Halifax—D. J. Millikin. Littleton—G. W. King. Palmyra—W. G. Hedgepeth. Roseneath—R. L. Bradley. Roanoke Rapids—B. E. Bell. Scotland Neck—J. E. Shields. Weldon—J. E. Branch.

WASTE HOUSE BURNED.—On last Saturday morning about 3 o'clock the fire alarm was turned on. The people were some little time locating the fire. It was finally located at Shaw's Cotton Mill, South Weldon. The waste house caught fire from some unknown cause, and burned to the ground before the fire company got there. We learn there were about 30 bales of waste in the building. Loss, including the building, about $3,000. No insurance.

MILLINERY OPENING.—Mrs. P. A. Lewis will have her fall millinery opening on Thursday and Friday—this week—4th and 5th. Be sure and go and see the many pretty and stylish hats.

A SERIES OF MEETINGS.—Rev. E. M. Shamburger will begin a series of meetings at the M. E. church on September 21st. He will be assisted by Rev. Mr. Paylor, of the Virginia Conference, who is now stationed at Chase City, Va., and preached a most interesting sermon in the M. E. church, in Weldon, while here on a visit. The public is most cordially invited to attend these services which we trust will be beneficial to the whole community.

RED CROSS HOME NURSING CLASS.—In keeping with the new peace program of the American Red Cross, and realizing the urgent need for better information regarding health conditions and preservation, and in preparation to deal with another epidemic of influenza, if such should occur this winter, a class in home nursing will be organized in Weldon with Mrs. C. P. Bounds, instructor. We hope to have at least twenty members in this class. All who wish to join will please register with Mrs. Bounds or Mrs. E. L. Hayward.

HUSBAND SAVES WIFE
From Suffering by Getting Her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"For many months I was not able to do my work owing to a weakness which caused backache and headache. A friend called my attention to one of your newspapers and I immediately bought three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me. After taking two bottles I felt fine and my trouble ceased by that week. I am now feeling as usual. All women suffering from any of the troubles mentioned in the Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should get a bottle at once."—Mrs. W. L. Knight, Pittsburg, Pa.
