Children Cry for Fletcher's CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA
Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

SIX TO ONE.
A man who was wanted by the police had been photographed in six different positions and the pictures sent to the chief of police of a provincial town where it was thought likely the fugitive was in hiding. After the lapse of a few days the following reply reached headquarters:
"Sir, I duly received the portraits of the six miscreants whose capture is desired. I have arrested five of them and the sixth is under observation and will be secured shortly."
—Tit-Bits.

COOL.
Howell—That murderer was a cool one.
Powell—What do you mean?
Howell—When the judge sentenced him to be electrocuted on a certain day, he said: "I'm a pretty busy man, but I'll try to be there, judge."

A man simply has to talk sometimes; that is why so many married men talk in their sleep.

Life Was a Misery
Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes:
"From the time I entered into womanhood I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. . . . Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, . . . I decided to

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain."
"It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. . . . I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."
If you suffer pain caused from womanly trouble, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to build up your run-down system, take the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Cardui. It helped her. We believe it will help you.

SAY IT WITH FLOWERS.

Say it with flowers, just a trim little spray;
With flowers your tributes of affection say;
Say it with flowers, they are never amiss;
Flowers brighten the way on the journey to bliss.
Say it with flowers at baby's advent,
No gift so fitting can ever be sent;
Flowers loosen the tension, and hearts they relieve,
Cheer the faint-hearted and loved one who grieve.
Say it with flowers to the girl you hold dear;
Say it with flowers all times of the year;
Say it with flowers to the lad of your choice;
They will carry your message and make him rejoice.
Say it with flowers to the matron of grace,
Then watch the glow of life in her face;
Say it with flowers to the charming old beau,
When he decides he's careful and slow.
Say it with flowers—Gardenias will please—
The right thing to wear at dinners and teas;
Say it with flowers when trials oppose;
Say it with flowers; your choice be the Rose.
Say it with flowers to mother and dad,
The thoughtful remembrance will make their hearts glad;
Say it with flowers where death makes a call;
Send there some flowers—be it hovel or hall.
Do say it with flowers, so charming, so pure;
A touch of heaven that shall ever endure;
Yes, say it with flowers, like tokens of love,
A gift from the Creator for His throne above.

WHAT REAL THRIFT WILL ACCOMPLISH

Successful Men Begin By Saving Their Money As a Matter of Fixed Habit.

Abraham Lincoln was a notable exemplar of the value of thrift of time. We can picture him trading forty miles to borrow a grammar. We can see him prone before the pine tree at night after a hard day's work logging, reading and re-reading the contents of the book, the only book he owned, or learning to write and figure with a piece of charcoal on the back of a wooden shovel, as he had no paper or ink.
Another example of what a boy can do who does not waste time is that of a Milwaukee man, Neils Anton Christensen, recently appointed by the United States government, through Secretary of the Navy Daniels, on the staff of the new United States Naval Board, which includes the greatest inventive minds in the nation.
Born in Denmark, Neils Christensen's school days ended at 14 years. After that he worked in a machine shop days and attended a technical school in the evenings. From his savings he defrayed the expense of a course at the Copenhagen Technical Institute, from which he was graduated at 21. Previous to that he attained national prominence as an engineer having designed, when 19 years old, the Danish lighthouse at Hantsholms, one of the largest in the world.
During the three years he spent on an English steamer engaged in Mediterranean trade he learned enough English to secure a position with an English manufacturing concern. Since coming to the United States he has invented many compressed airbrake starters for railroads, aeroplanes and fire engines that have brought him world-wide fame.
Thomas Edison began to save before he began to invent. The successful magazine editor, Edward Bok, started saving on a salary of 60 cents a week. Grover Cleveland's wages for his first year of work totaled $50. Garfield could not have become president had he not saved early in life. Horace Greasley and Cooper founded their careers on saving.
Ex-Governor Ferris of Michigan, now a college president, a life-long advocate of thrift, tells of his own thrifty training: "In my youth if I had a cent, I made it, and made it not to suit myself alone but it had to suit my father as well. His examination of my work and his insistence that I should put the best there was in me even into my toys put into my back a spine and sufficient lime to last a lifetime."
Thrift was the keynote of success in the life of the late James J. Hill. He was one of the country's most successful exemplars of thrift, one of the greatest exemplars of what this virtue combined with energy and high purpose, can do. He preached always that the man who cannot save money will be a failure; that though he may have education, talent and ability, without thrifty habits he cannot succeed.

The man that lays an egg a day is a gold mine for his owner. Take a lesson from the bee! Lay up for your future by increasing regularly in War Savings Stamps.
The conversion of tomorrow's success is founded upon today's thrift. Any postman can lay the cornerstone for you with War Savings Stamps.
Some one is saving what you spend foolishly. Who is depositing your dollars? Invest them in W. S. S. and save them for yourself.

STAMP CONVERSION IS NOW AUTHORIZED

Treasury Department Offers Through Banks and Post Offices Savings Certificates in Large Denominations.

Richmond, Va.—The War Loan Organization of the Fifth Federal Reserve District has been advised that hereafter War Savings Stamps may be converted into Treasury Savings Certificates of $100 and $1,000 denominations according to a new plan of the United States Treasury Department to afford greater convenience to holders and purchasers of War Savings and Thrift Stamps.
The development of the savings idea is one that has been urged for some time in order to attract larger investments. The holder of a sufficient number of Thrift Stamps may now exchange them for a $5 War Savings Stamp and in turn the holder of twenty of the $5 War Savings Stamps may convert them into a $100 Savings Certificate, or the holder of two hundred of the $5 stamps may in turn turn them in for a $1,000 Saving Certificate.
Conversion may be made at all first and second class postoffices and at all incorporated banks and trust companies that have qualified as agents of the second class. The Treasury Savings Certificate will be issued in registered form and will bear the name of the owner. They will yield four per cent compounded quarterly as do the War Savings Stamps. The limit of the individual investment for the 1919 series of stamps still remains at $1,000.
The new Treasury Savings Certificates should prove particularly attractive for the investment of the funds of fraternal societies, labor unions and other civic, social and religious organizations because the interest is added to the principal automatically each quarter, the entire amount being payable at maturity.

HOW FAMILY INCOME MAY BE DISTRIBUTED

Every Home Should Have Own Personal Household Budget If It Is to Be Successful.
Every household is a corporation with certain definite obligations and a more or less certain income, and it should, therefore, have a definite budget.
No general budget can be so framed as to fit the needs of every family. Families differ, even when identical in size, number, sex and general situation, but no family can thrive and progress without sound and sane financing; without arrangement of a reasonable financial margin; without regular saving and investments, such as are offered by Thrift and War Savings Stamps; and only intelligent adherence to an intelligent budget can be trusted, under ordinary circumstances, to bring about the desired results.
Methods of appropriation, however, differ; a method which proves feasible in a given family would be worse than useless in another; but certain cardinal principles may be safely laid down.
The amount of possible savings should be set apart definitely, and rigidly adhered to. Other allowances may be variable or they may be held within hard and fast limits. One plan after another may be tried if liked, until the best one suited is found.
All things considered, the most satisfactory budget usually is that which allows a certain share of the income for each budget head listed holds rigidly within the Rems of appropriation, and wisely applies any balance or surplus to the savings or recreation account.

Mallory Hats

About the first question our salesmen will ask you when you try on one of our new

Mallory Hats

is "How does it feel?" In other stores they ask "How does it look?" The difference is that we will first select a hat that will become you, and we know that a "Mallory" Hat will look right, so what we want to know is whether the hat feels right on the head. Be sure to have a look at our window this week and come in and prove what we say.
