WHERE PAT WAS.

In a small village in Ireland the mother of a soldier met the village priest, who, seeing her downcast, asked her if she had had bad news. "Sure I have," she said, "Pat has been killed."

"Oh, I am very sorry," said the priest. "Did you receive word from the War Office?"

"No," she said. "I received word from Pat himself."

The priest looked perplexed, and said, "But how is that?"

"Sure," she said, "here is the letter, read it for yourself."

The letter said: "Dear mother—I am in the Holy Land."

ON TO HIM.

Wife—So you were detained at the office by a will case?
Hubby—Yes, dear, a consultation with the heir.
Wife—Yes, I see you brought it home with you on your shoulder. She was a blonde, I notice.

A Strong Witness

Witness, Mike—"The best medicine I have ever used in my home are the Pills. We have used the Golden Medical Discovery as a blood medicine and as a tonic, also for deep-seated coughs and weak lungs, and it was excellent."

"I always keep Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets in my home for use when needed. I have given them to my children since they were quite small. They can be given with safety to the smallest child, owing to their being free from any injurious drug. They regulate the stomach, liver and bowels in a mild but very effective way. I cannot speak too highly of Dr. Pierce's medicine."

AMEN.

A rusle of robes as the anthem
Soared gently away on the air—
The Sabbath morn's service was over;
And briskly I stepped down the stair.
When close in a half-lighted corner,
Where the tall pulpit stairway came down,
Asleep crouched a tender, wee maiden,
With hair like a shadowy crown.

Quite puzzled was I by the vision,
But gently to wake her I spoke;
When, at the first word, the small damsel
With one little gasp, straight awoke,
"What brought you here, fair little angel?"
She answered with voice like a bell,
"I run, cos I've got a sick mamma,
And want 'oo to please pray her well!"

"Who told you?" began I—she stopped me;
"Don't nobody told me at all;
And papa can't see tos he's cryin',
And 'sides, sir, I ain't so small,
I've been here before with my mamma,
We tumbled when you ringed the big bell,
And ev'ry time I've heard you prayin',
For lots o' sick folks to dit well."

Together we knelt on the stairway,
As humbly I asked the Great Power
To give back health to the mother,
And banish bereavement's dark hour.
I had finished the simple petition,
And paused a moment—and then
A sweet little voice at my elbow
Lisp'd softly and gently "Amen!"

LAUGH IT OFF.

If the weather looks like rain
Laugh it off.
When you feel you must complain,
Laugh it off.
Do not sit and nurse your fears,
Waste no time in useless tears,
Put your faith in smiles and cheers,
Laugh it off.

If men say you're looking ill,
Laugh it off.
Should they recommend a pill,
Laugh it off.
Doctors, druggists and disease
Want to do just as they please,
Often you can save the fees,
Laugh it off.

If life seems to go dead wrong,
Laugh it off.
Drown your sorrow in a song,
Laugh it off.
Do your work with smiling face,
Look ahead and keep the pace,
Be a winner in the race,
Laugh it off.

MOVIE LOVE.

I like the movie courtship,
The beau is always stout.
When the old man upsets his plan
He just fades out.

The young man's girl is steadfast,
Can shoot folks at a pinch.
She's very sweet and when they meet
They always clinch.

THE PHILOSOPHER.

"Help, help!" screamed the terrified young man who had just fallen over the edge of the wharf. "I can't swim!"

"Wot of it?" asked the stevedore mildly, taking his pipe out of his mouth, and glancing carelessly over the edge. "I can't neither, but I ain't yellin' my head off about it."

HELP YOURSELF.

What are you looking for?"
"Nothing."
"Well, there's plenty of that around."

STRATEGY.

"That millionaire who was sued for breach of promise is no fool."
"How is that?"
"He hired a lady lawyer to defend him who was better looking than the fair plaintiff."

CO-OPERATION.

Madge—Who helped you make such a fool out of that poor young man?
Marjorie—"He did."

WHY SHE BELIEVED IN HIM.

KILLS TWO BIRDS WITH ONE STONE — ENGAGEMENT RING FOR CHRISTMAS PRESENT.

Before opening the slight Christmas token I have brought you, Miss Clara," said Mr. MacNerve, as he took from his inside pocket a small package and handed it to the young lady in question, "I think it best to acquaint you, in my imperfect way, with the state of my feelings. To come to the point in as brief and practical a manner as possible, sparing you all the unnecessary details, I may as well tell you at once that I love you. From the moment that I first met you, I was fully aware this was inevitable. The more I set my mind against it, the more I struggled to control it, the more I struggled to control myself—to be strong—the more hopeless I became involved. You will naturally ask at once why I should struggle against a passion which is admitted by all to be the source of the greatest happiness known to humanity. But I could not regard the matter in a selfish light. It was done, Miss Clara, because I have doubted all along whether a man in my circumstances had it in his power to make a girl like yourself, who has been reared in such luxury, entirely happy in the new and changed conditions that matrimony leads to. Was it right in me, I said to myself, to jeopardize your happiness by asking you to share the lot of one, who, while his present salary is a fairly comfortable one, is not at the same time prepared to say positively that he will succeed? I have now put the case before you. I know you to be a sensible girl, and one whose intuitions I am sure will lead you aright. After this brief explanation I beg of you therefore to look at my gift, and, if your heart tells you to do so, accept from the man who loves you above all others."

Hastily breaking the seal the young girl he addressed gazed for a brief interval at the beautiful object that lay in her hand. Then advancing swiftly to where he stood she threw her arms around the neck of the man who had so worthily won her, exclaiming with a glad cry:

"Dearest, how can I doubt you! Any man who is cute enough to kill two birds with one stone by giving a girl an engagement ring for her Christmas present cannot help but succeed!"

"My son," said an old lady, "how must Jonah have felt when the whale swallowed him?"
"Down in the mouth," was the young hopeful's reply.

"Didn't Rest Well"

Prominent Georgia Lady Suffered from Faint Spells and Sleeplessness—Relieved by Ziran.

PEOPLE who get to feeling weak every now and then, and who do not seem to get the proper refreshment from rest, sleep and recreation, need a tonic to help their blood, restlessness and build-up their system.

For this you will find Ziran from Tonic very valuable, as the testimony of thousands already has proved. Mrs. J. W. Dyssact, lady of a prominent Georgia family residing near Cartersville, says:

"I didn't feel like myself."

"I didn't feel like myself. I would be just as well when I got up in the morning as when I went to bed. I would not eat, and have kind of faint spells—(I was hardly able to do my housework.)"

"I loved Ziran, and for maybe a tonic would help me. I thought it would at least strengthen me."

"My husband had just died and I feel better. I am glad to recommend it as a good tonic."

Try Ziran. Our history book guarantees pleasure to you. At your druggist's.

It'll soon be in Museums

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury, quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your life like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead!

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel, just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a little bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take.

Calomel! It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up too, and can not salivate. Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you out right up and you feel great. It is in the children because it is so pleasant and doesn't gripe.
