MAKING GOOD.

"I WILL TRY TO BE GOOD MYSELF, AND DO ALL I CAN TO MAKE OTHERS HAPPY."

What a blessing it would be to all with whom we are associated if we would study well and put into practice the words of Robert Louis Stevenson, "There is an idea abroad among moral people that they should make their neighbors good. One person I have to make good—myself. But my idea to my neighbor is as much more nearly expressed by saying that I have to make him happy if I may."

We all realize that the people who are trying to make their neighbors good, dictating what they should or should not do, finding fault with them if they do not heed the advice given, or have opinions of their own as to what they desire to do, are the people that in time have but few friends. Their efforts to make the other fellow good in their way, is not beneficial to either. But had the effort been used to make "the other fellow happy," the result would have been far-reaching.

It is hard at times for us to realize that we have a big task if we do all in our power to make the "one person good." It is easy to excuse our own mistakes and shortcomings and see only faults in others. Life is short and there seems to be so much sorrow and unhappiness that it seems it would be advisable for us to resolve each day to try to do something to make at least one person happy by doing some kind deed or speaking some kind words. The results in the course of the year would amount to more than we can realize, for happiness, like sorrow, is contagious.

Some one has said, "The happiness of the tender heart is increased by what it can take away from the wretchedness of others." A good resolution then would be, "I will try to be good myself, and do all I can to make others happy. Then, indeed, would this world be a better place in which to live, for if one tried to be good and tried to help relieve the heartaches of others, there would be but little fault-finding and more words of commendation and love.

CALOMEL

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist.

Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead!

Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs but a few cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults.

Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine, no biliousness, sick headache, and stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't grip or cause inconvenience at the next day, like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and prostrated. Don't lose a day's work! Take Dodson's Liver Tone instead and feel fine, full of vigor and ambition.

SET HIM THINKING.

REMINISCENCES OF THE SHARP-VOICED WOMAN WOKE YOUNG MAN TO POSSIBILITIES OF SITUATION.

"Charles," said a sharp-voiced woman to her husband in the smoking compartment, "do you know that you and I once had a romance on a train?"

"Never heard of it," replied Charles, in a subdued tone.

"I thought you hadn't, but don't you remember it was a pair of slippers I presented to you the Christmas before we were married that led to our union? You remember how nicely they fitted, don't you? Well, Charles, one day when we were going to a picnic, you had your feet upon a seat, and when you weren't looking I took your measure. But for that pair of slippers I don't believe we'd ever been married."

A young, unmarried man, sitting near by with a girl, immediately removed his feet from the seat.

THE LORD'S PRAYER.

The following beautiful composition was captured during the civil war at Charleston, S. C., by an Indiana soldier. The dingy, time-worn paper on which it was written (evidently with a goose-quill pen) bore the date of July 4, 1823. At considerable expense it has been obtained for publication, and it is quite a literary curiosity:

Thou to the mercy seat our souls dost gather
To do our duty unto Thee..... Our Father
To whom all praise, all honor should be given
For Thou art the Great God..... Who Art in Heaven;
Thou, by Thy Wisdom, rulest the world's whole frame,
Forever, therefore..... Hallowed Be Thy Name,
Let never more delays divide us from
Thy glorious grace, but let..... Thy Kingdom Come.
Let Thy command opposed be by none
But Thy pleasure and..... Thy Will Be Done
And let our promptness to obey be even
The very same..... On Earth as It is in Heaven,
Then, for our souls, O Lord, we also pray,
Thou wouldst be pleased to..... Give Us This Day
The food of life wherewith our souls are fed,
Sufficient raiment and..... Our Daily Bread,
With every needful thing do Thou provide us
And of Thy mercy pit..... And Forgive Us
All our misdeeds for Him, whom Thou didst please
To make an offering for..... Our Trespases,
And for as much, O Lord, as we believe
That Thou wilt pardon us..... As we forgive those
Let that Love teach wherewith Thou dost acquaint us
To pardon all..... Who trespass against us
And oftimes Thou findest we have forgot
This love to Thee, yet keep..... And Lead Us Not
Through soul and body's want to desperation
Nor let earth's gain drive us..... Into Temptation,
Let not the soul of any true believer
Fall in the time of trial..... But Deliver
Yes, save them from the malice of the devil,
And both in life and death keep..... Us From Evil.
This we pray, Lord, for that of Thee from whom
This may be had..... For Thine Is the Kingdom,
This world is of Thy word; its wondrous story
To Thee belongs..... The Power and the Glory
And all Thy wondrous works have ended never,
But will remain forever and..... Forever.
Thus we poor creatures would confess again,
And thus we say eternally..... Amen.

Run-down—Blood Impoverished
Richmond, Va.—"When I was a girl I became all run-down, my blood was impoverished, I had a bad complexion, I also suffered from indigestion and constipation. I was extremely nervous and as miserable as one could be when Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was recommended to me. I took about four bottles and some of the Pleasant Pellets with it. After taking these medicines I was in better health and felt better than I had for several years." MISS C. N. OLIVER, 308 N. 27th St. All druggists sell Medical Discovery, liquid or tablets.

"California Syrup of Figs" is Child's Best Laxative

Beware! Say "California" or you may not get the genuine "California Syrup of Figs" which doctors recommend for babies and children of all ages. Nothing else cleans the little bowels and regulates the child's stomach and liver so gently, so thoroughly. Directions on each bottle. But you must say "California." Don't be talked into an imitation fig syrup which hasn't the delicious, fruity taste or the perfect "laxative physic" action.

THE SERMON OF LOVE.

BY FRANK L. STANTON.

The preacher took the very text—the dear, devoted brother!
"Twas just that simple one and sweet—"Love one another!"
He must have known my heart made moan in all this line so dreary;
He seemed to preach at me and then—he seemed to preach at Mary!

She turned her eyes—blue as God's skies—when that dear text came ringing;
And, to my grieving soul's surprise, she joined not in the singing;
I thought I heard her lips repeat the text of that dear brother,
And that her heart was saying sweet: "Love.....love one another!"

A blessed sermon 'twas to me; the benediction over,
I walked with her in ecstasy, across the fields of clover;
And then I told her all the love my true heart could not smother,
And now, through life, forever we're loving one another!

DIDN'T RECOGNIZE HIM.

Gordon married a widow with eight children, who, in course of time, presented him with ten children. One evening he found in the street where he lived a little boy, weeping bitterly.

"What's the matter, little man?" inquired Gordon, caressing him.

"I've lost my way," sobbed the youngster.

"Then come with me. I'll give you something to eat and take care of you."

Accordingly, our kind-hearted friend took the little fellow home, and said to his wife:

"See, dear, I have brought you a friend. I found him all alone in the street. One more or less won't make much difference; we will treat him as if he were our own."

"Why, you stupid! Don't you know him? It's our Percy!"

CHILDREN CRY FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

HARD HIT.

"What's wrong, old man? You look blue."
"Had a scrap with my wife this morning."
"Oh, don't let a little thing like that worry you. A thunderstorm clears the atmosphere, you know."
"Yes, but that doesn't help a man who's been struck by lightning."

RIDICULOUS.
