THE HEART OF THE NAVY.
Her One Desire Was to See Her Brother Once More.

Uncle Sam's navy has a heart. John Keers is a seaman aboard the U. S. S. Kansas, at sea en route from Samoa to the Canal Zone.

A sister, who had raised John from a baby, lies in a hospital at Los Angeles, facing an operation from which she may not recover.

Her one desire is to see again, before she goes under the surgeon's knife, the brother she had guarded from babyhood.

Friends sent a radiogram to the Kansas asking that John be granted a furlough.

Under regulations, with the Kansas at sea, there is but one thing for the captain of the Kansas to do—to refuse the furlough.

Then a message outlining the situation is sent to Washington.

Secretary Daniels read it carefully. It tells how the sister, a war nurse, sustained a serious injury while in the service at Camp Kearney; how her whole fight for life might be decided by whether she is strengthened and cheered by the presence of her brother.

The Kansas, it develops, is only a day's sail from the Canal Zone.

Daniels immediately wireless her commanding officer to grant the furlough to Keers. The order also stipulated that at the furlough's expiration, instead of having to report back aboard the Kansas at the far-away Canal Zone station, Keers be permitted to report at the naval station here at San Diego.

If the American navy can accomplish it, the life of John Keers' sister is saved.—San Diego (Cal.) Sun.

THE TITANIC.
On Sunday night, April 14th, 1913, the great steamer Titanic, the largest and finest ship that had ever crossed the ocean, crashed into an iceberg, which ripped her side from stem to stern, and within a couple of hours the magnificent floating palace went to the bottom, bearing with her over sixteen hundred people.

As the steamer sank the band stood on the deck and played the familiar air "Nearer My God, to Thee," the immortal hymn written by Sarah Flower Adams.

The story was told all over the world and started thousands singing the hymn who had not before heard it.

From this tragic event, the following lines were written.

The most beautiful object constructed by man
Is the lovely queen of the deep,
Embodiment of strength, and grace combined,
As she awaits a cargo complete.
A thing of beauty, awaiting the hour,
Her moorings to let go;
Her cabins filled with human life,
No feeling of fear or woe.

Alas, that man should be so weak
As on himself to rely!
The Father stands ready to give
His help,
When His children to Him apply.

The great Titanic in her "Mogul" strength,
Did on herself depend,
The whole world wept o'er her sad, sad fate,
At her awful, and tragic end.

Columbus braved, long years ago,
The ocean deep and wild,
In a non-worthy craft, unfit for sea,
But with faith of a little child.

He knew in the start what must be done
To make his voyage secure;
Reliance on God was his only hope,
On nothing else he felt sure.

May those of our friends without hope in the world,
From the foregoing lines get a lesson,
Where it's clearly shown that trust in the Lord
Will surely end in a blessing.

Those who would through our eternity dwell
In happiness, peace and love,
Must flee from wrath that will surely o'erake
All, failing in trust from above.

The sad, sad fate of this giant craft,
Brings warning to the world,
That trust in God is the only sure way
To escape such horrors untold.

This beautiful ship, her Nation's pride,
Truly a queen of the deep,
'Neath Atlantic's wave found a watery grave,
Causing thousands to mourn and to weep.

The glory of life is to love; not to be loved; to give, not to get; to serve not to be served.

THE BATTERY GRAVEYARD is filled with batteries that died before their time. Their owners either neglected them, or prescribed the wrong medicine.

Don't take that responsibility on yourself when there are Prest-O-Lite Service Stations everywhere you drive, equipped for and experienced in battery life-extension.

That's the Prest-O-Lite Service Station's job, no matter what make of battery you now have. If a little distilled water is all your battery needs, distilled water is what you'll get.

We won't try to sell you a new battery until your present battery is actually dead and ready for the soft music. When you do need a new battery, you'll be glad to know that Prest-O-Lite is back to pre-war prices and that an allowance will be made on your old battery. Get that examination now.

THE "OLD RELIABLE" THEODOR'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

White Haired Alabama Lady Says She Has Seen Medicines Come and Go But the "Old Reliable" Theodor's Black-Draught Came and Stayed.

Dutton, Ala.—In recommending Theodor's Black-Draught to her friends and neighbors here, Mrs. T. F. Parks, a well-known Jackson County lady, said: "I am getting up in years; my head is pretty white. I have seen medicines and remedies come and go but the old reliable came and stayed. I am willing of Black-Draught, a liver medicine we have used for years—one that can be depended upon and one that will do the work."

"Black-Draught will relieve indigestion and constipation if taken right, and I know I tried it. It is the best thing I have ever found for the full, uncomfortable feeling after meals. Sour stomach and sick headache can be relieved by taking Black-Draught. It aids digestion, also assists the liver in throwing off impurities. I am glad to recommend Black-Draught, and do, to my friends and neighbors."

Theodor's Black-Draught is a standard household remedy with a record of over seventy years of successful use. Every one occasionally needs something to help cleanse the system of impurities. Try Black-Draught. Insist upon Theodor's, the genuine.

She States It Mildly.

While suffering with a severe attack of the grip and threatened with pneumonia, Mrs. Annie H. Cooley of Middlefield, Conn., began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was very much benefited by its use. The pains in the chest soon disappeared, the cough became loose, expectoration easy and in a short time she was as well as ever. Mrs. Cooley says she cannot speak too highly in praise of this remedy.

CAUSE AND EFFECT.

"Home: 'Why do they tread grapes with their feet to make wine?'"
Brew: "To put the kick in it."

Many a man who acts smart is made to smart for it.

When You Feel Rheumatic.
For the aches and pains of rheumatism Chamberlain's Liniment is excellent. Massage the parts thoroughly twice a day with this liniment and you will be surprised at the relief which it affords.

THE MODERN WAY.

"Will you marry me, dearest?" he asked.
"Oh, George," she remonstrated, "I'm afraid you only want me for my vote."
Hard words seldom make an impression on soft people.

An Ideal Remedy For Constipation.

It would be hard to find a better remedy for constipation than Chamberlain's Tablets. For the best effect they should be taken immediately after supper. They are easy to take and mild and gentle in effect.

A SONG OF EASTER.

White lily, abloom in the sweet, warm light
Of the Easter dawn, today,
With thy sweet, warm breath, like a draft exhaled
From a seraph's mouth, ah, say,
Art thou only a flower, though thou build'st a bridge
O'er the awful cleft of the grave,
That Reason may cross upon, surely, and Grief,
Seeing this, may look up and be brave?

Christ's lilies, bloom in far, overseas lands,
O'er the graves of young heroes, today,
How your message of life's immortality thrills
As you spring from the grave's icy clay;
Oh, lilies of Easter, shine out and shine on,
"Life from death" for your message and sign;
Till the red of the poppies of Flanders field fades,
Quenched by radiant light, all divine!

—Helen Chase.

TO A PEACH.

It is surely enough to be pretty,
Worth watching with rapture all day.
What need have you then, to be witty,
Or even have something to say?
If your beauty ensnares the beholder,
What more is expected of you?
'Till his gallantry ever grow colder,
So long as you're fair to his view?

Why bother and fret about learning?
What need do you have to be wise
When you fill a poor man's soul with yearning
With only a glance from your eyes?
The homely girl cannot be lazy.
She must query and study and read.
But your pulchritude sets the men crazy—
Isn't that all the charm that you need?
