NEEDED COURSE IN WISDOM.

In Ancient Days it Was Well Recognized That the Young Required Proper Instruction.

Instruction of the young by the old was not out of date when "The Wisdom Books" were written, according to Dr. Josiah H. Penniman, acting provost of the University of Pennsylvania.

"The people who wrote the Bible were very human," declared Doctor Penniman, and he illustrated this with many passages from the Scriptures.

"The book of wisdom told the people what to do, and most of the people needed it," Doctor Penniman said. "There were just as many wise as foolish virgins—and probably the average has been maintained."

Among Doctor Penniman's other sayings were the following: "They offered money to Job when they knew he did not need it."

"Be sure your sin will find you out," he quoted, and then added, "You know perfectly well a lot of your sins will find you out."

"The tongue has always been one of the greatest mischief makers, as witness 'where there is no whisperer contention ceases.'"

"I need not explain 'he that winketh with the eye findeth sorrow.'"

"Sob stuff was apparently used in olden days, for Delilah said to Sampson, 'Thou hast told a riddle unto thy neighbors, but not unto me.'"

"What does he get for it?" was asked of Job as it is today of those who get into the public view."

Doctor Penniman declared Job was the most artistic of the Wisdom books, and in some respects of all the books of the Bible.

WEAK, NERVOUS, ALL RUN-DOWN

Missouri Lady Suffered Until She Tried Cardui.—Says "Result Was Surprising."—Got Along Fine, Became Normal and Healthy.

Springfield Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have heart-ache pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. D. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 6, this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed getting it for me. I saw after taking some Cardui... that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person."

"Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night, I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me... My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it."

"Thousands of women have suffered as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Since it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly ailments. For sale everywhere. R. 69

NOW AND HERE.

Others may sing of the "Sweet by and by,"
In beautiful islands bliss'd,
Where tears are wiped from the weeping eye
And the weary soul can rest.

But I will sing of another land,
Not far away, but near,
The very spot where my feet now stand,
The beautiful Now and Here.

The by and by is like fairy land,
And flies from our chasing feet;
We never enter its portals grand,
Or walk in its shaded street.

But the real land to be loved and tilled,
Where we can dig and plow,
Can sow and reap, plan and build,
Is the beautiful Here and Now.

My heart is glad for the "happy shore,"
Always so fair and shining;
But yet the present has golden ore.
That needs but love's refining.

There are some flowers on the wayside bank,
The lone pilgrim's heart to cheer,
And life is not all a weary bank
In the gliding Now and Here.

Let some sing of the "Summer land,"
And dream of the "Eden shore;"
The sun shines bright on this earthly strand
My feet are now tripping o'er.

The by and by may be very sweet,
And it gives my heart good cheer;
But the joys of the past and future meet
In the glorious Now and Here.

DISCRIMINATION.

Said an elderly maiden named Claire: "Of husbands I've not had my share,
Kate's had three cremated, I've never been dated,
She's got them to burn, is that fair?"

Suffered Intense Pain.

"A few years ago when visiting relatives in Michigan something I had eaten brought on an attack of cholera morbus," writes Mrs. Celesta McVicker, Mecon, Mo. "I suffered intense pain and had to go to bed. I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and one dose relieved the pain wonderfully. I only took two or three doses but they did the work."
