THE LAND OF THE SKY.

Mr. Edward T. Clark Writes An Interesting Letter from Waynesville.

Waynesville, July 31.

We went to the Methodist church this morning, found a church full of children just coming out of Sunday school. The church was soon filled with grown people. The Rev. Mr. Herman preached an able sermon from 12th chapter of John and 26th verse: "If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am there shall also my servant be; if any man serve me, him will my Father honour." A powerful text and a strong sermon. The church was full and such singing. It seemed as if everybody joined in with heart and soul. He announced that they expected soon to build a $50,000 church and that their assets were more than $42,000 in hand. We enjoyed the sermon and singing.

Junaluska is only about two miles from this place and is said to have the best of sermons every Sunday. This is a place of beautiful homes with about 3,000 people living here. About 12 lawyers and all professions well represented. The climate is just superb.

Tonight I went with Miss Anna Hobson to the Episcopal church. Miss Hobson is a sister to Lieutenant Hobson, whom I knew as a small boy, when I was studying law under his grandfather the late Chief Justice Pearson. Mr. New, the Rector here and formerly a Rector at Grace church in Weldon, preached from the 9th chapter 35th verse of Matthew: "And Jesus went about all the cities and villages teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease among the people." Mr. New preached better than I ever heard him. He was looking better and fatter, and his voice was stronger. After service I had the pleasure of a pleasant chat with him and his wife.

This evening we walked two miles up these long, steep hills to the cemetery and back, four miles in all, and something over two miles tonight, but I would have walked a few more miles rather than tell the ladies, being used to these walks, they did not dream of my pains. I am too tired to write more tonight.

August 2. Mrs. Singleton, of Georgia, Miss Videto, of Augusta, Ga., Mrs. J. D. Arnold, of this place, and I took an automobile ride to Lake Junaluska today and travelled over the beautiful roads surrounding the lake and terraces, on which we saw some fine houses, some grand and magnificent in structure and location, and I never knew North Carolina had such scenery as there is in this section. We enjoyed it every minute of the trip. These are such earnest people in all they undertake, and so hospitable. Such strong, healthy-looking folks. Such delightful weather. The air is like a tonic and the water so pure and good.

We had the good fortune to be invited to tea to meet Baroness Kemery, Thursday P. M.

Tomorrow we expect to go Asheville in automobile along the Pigeon river drive.

BLUE RIDGE.

Interesting Letter from This Famous Resort.

August 6, 1921.

It seems hardly possible that we who three days ago were sweltering under a blazing August sun in Weldon should now be sitting by a huge oak log fire in an immense natural rock fire place, sleeping under double blankets and wishing for more. But true it is and the change is delightful. Just a year ago we reached "Blue Ridge" and became acquainted with Robert E. Lee Hall and his beautiful surroundings. Set in the side of a mountain it nestles amid natural beauties of mountain peaks, running streams which supply the power for the entire equipment, lights, water, steam, heat when needed and a large concrete bathing pool within fifty feet of the porch and the room in which we are located. The sloping lawn in front set with huge boulders showing up above the velvet green, recedes into a well kept park of natural mountain growth of trees and flowers and intersected by the curved driveway leading up to the very steps of R. E. Lee Hall. No dust, no mosquitoes, no noise of any kind, except the voices of happy children and others who are enjoying the delights of the mountain air, the swimming pool and other recreations provided for all who come to Blue Ridge.

There are many eminent speakers here, preachers, teachers, Christian workers and whole families, from all over Virginia to the University of Texas and one especially, who while he claims to be

OLD WELDON.

Things That Happened 33 Years Ago in Town and Vicinity.

August 9, 1888.—Rev. T. J. Taylor preached at the Baptist church, morning and night.

Mr. Claude Kitchin is again at his post in the Register's office at Halifax, and has a pleasant word for every one who calls.

We very greatly regret to announce the death of Mrs. Sallie Mason, wife of Jos. R. Mason, Esq., which occurred at her husband's residence in the upper part of Northampton county on Thursday after a long illness.

Mrs. Ellen Daniel, Mrs. Melissa Long, Mrs. J. T. Gooch and Mrs. W. W. Faucett left Thursday morning for Buford, Va., to spend several weeks.

Capt. A. B. Hill, of Scotland Neck, paid his many friends in this place a short visit last week.

Mrs. S. J. Zollicoffer left last week for a visit to relatives and friends in Warrenton.

Mrs. S. W. Chadwick, of Kinston, is visiting the family of her father, Capt. T. F. Anderson, of this place.

The Aurelian Springs Democratic Club met on Saturday, in Dickens' Hall, in that place, Dr. W. W. M. Perkins, in the chair. The following were elected delegates to the Association of Clubs at Morehead City on August 15th: S. C. Moore, W. B. Finch, W. H. Hux, W. M. Perkins, Jr., J. E. Anderson, J. K. Dickens.

Mr. Cicero H. Ward, of Wilmington, formerly of this place, was in town Sunday shaking hands with his many friends.

Deputy Sheriff J. A. Johnston took a lunatic to the asylum at Raleigh Monday.

Mr. F. H. Manning, of Scotland Neck, went to Gates county Tuesday to visit his brother who is reported to be quite ill.

Mrs. Bettie Long, Miss Kate Long, and Miss Mamie DeRossett, of Wilmington, who has been visiting relatives here, left Tuesday for the up country.

GROWING GOLDEN MELONS.

We copy the following from the Sampson Democrat and suggest to our friend Jacob Dickens to procure some of the seed: "Mr. A. B. Page, our occasional correspondent in North-west Sampson, brought us a curiosity in the form of a watermelon Monday. The melon was normal in shape but about one-third of the rind had the color of a pumpkin or cantaloupe. When cut the melon was found to be very delicious and thoroughly watermelon. Mr. Page noticed melons with yellow spots upon them, and from the seed of one of the spotted melons this one has probably come with a resulting increase in the tendency to the golden color. Mr. Page saved seed from the melon in question and will probably find among its progeny even a more pronounced tendency to the golden. It may be that he will be able to grow within a few years a melon of golden color in its entirety. Sunburning then would probably be less pronounced than with the green variety."

We never catch a fish as big as the one that nibbles and then swims away.

ANNOUNCES REUNION ORDERS.

A LITTLE ADVERTISING TALK. The chances are that you, the person reading this newspaper, want some particular thing and would buy it if you knew where to find it. And the chances are that some other person in this community has that particular thing and would sell it if he could find a purchaser.

But you do not know that your neighbor has that particular thing to sell, and he does not know that you want to buy it. Unless you meet up with each other, you will never make a trade.

That is where advertising comes in. If you will place an advertisement in your local paper, telling of your needs, your neighbor will read it. If he will place an advertisement in the paper telling of what he has to sell, you will see it. Many wants and needs go unfulfilled, many bargains are lost, because they are not advertised and made known. More people would use the advertising columns of the newspapers if they would just stop and think of the good they may derive from their use.

BEST IN HIS LINE. "Is Huff a good after-dinner speaker?" "Yes, he stutters and what's more, he's very short winded."

"WOULD you mind driving a little slower, old man?" "Not getting scared, are you?" "Oh, no, nothing like that, but I'd hate to take an unfair advantage of my life insurance company."
