LADIES AND GENT'S OUTFITTER,

Me-o-my, how you'll take to a pipe—and P. A.!

Before you're a day older you want to let the idea slip under your hat that this is the open season to start something with a joy's jimmy pipe—and some Prince Albert!

Because, a pipe packed with Prince Albert satisfies a man as he was never satisfied before—and keeps him satisfied! And, you can prove it! Why—P. A.'s flavor and fragrance and coolness and its freedom from bite and parch (cut out by our exclusive patented process) are a revelation to the man who never could get acquainted with a pipe! P. A. has made a pipe a thing of joy to four men where one was smoked before!

Ever roll up a cigarette with Prince Albert? Man, man—but you've got a party coming your way! Talk about a cigarette smoke; we tell you it's a peach!

Prince Albert is sold in tippy red bags, tidy red tins, handsome pound and half pound tin holders and in the pound crystal glass holder, with sponge moisture top.

FLOATING RECEPTION.

Dr. and Mrs. D. B. Zollicoffer entertained their friends last Tuesday night in honor of Mr. Troy Myatt and Miss Mary Ellen Travis. There was a large gathering of friends present who thoroughly enjoyed the hospitality of Dr. and Mrs. Zollicoffer.

KITCHEN SHOWER.

On last Saturday morning Miss Elizabeth Vaughan delightfully entertained her many friends at her beautiful home on Elm street, in honor of Miss Mary Ellen Travis. There were forty-two guests present and all expressed themselves as spending a most delightful morning.

Mrs. J. W. Pierce presided at the punch bowl and Misses Ida Sledge and Florence Allen assisted the hostess in serving delicious ice cream and cake.

Mrs. W. K. Gray won the highest score prize, a beautiful box of writing paper.

Miss Mary Ellen Travis, honoree, was presented with a silver horse shoe. At the conclusion of the festivities, Master Worthington Armstrong pushed in a tea cart loaded down with kitchen utensils.

Miss Margaret Johnston Sledge presided at the Victrola which furnished delightful music throughout the morning.

Sale of Land for Taxes.

I will sell to the highest bidder for cash at the court house door in the town of Halifax, on Monday, Nov. 7th, 1921, the following described lands in Butterworth Township, for taxes and costs for the year 1920: J. O. Heptinstall, 200 acres, home $95.00 Alice Cook, 43 acres, Guilford Cook place 8.51 Mrs. H. M. Heptinstall, 431 acres Sanders place 97.97 W. E. NICHOLSON, Tax Collector Butterworth Township.

DEATH OF MR. COOK.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. W. L. Cook, which occurred at his residence about three miles from town, on Tuesday last, in the 65th year of his age. He leaves a wife and seven children to mourn their loss. The funeral took place Wednesday morning and the burial was at Smith's church.

FULL TO THE TOP.

Mr. L. T. Garner brought to town last Monday a stalk of cotton taken from one of his fields, that contained 85 large bolls, 80 of which were wide open and ready to be picked. When you get ahead of Lonnie Garner farming, you can put it down, that you have accomplished something. If all the cotton in the county was like this stalk, the farmers would have little room to complain.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

At a postponed meeting last Sunday the Baraca Class of the M. E. Church elected the following officers for the next six months:

President—J. S. Hardison. Vice-President—L. C. Draper. Secretary—F. H. Clark. Treasurer—N. M. Shearin. Orphanage Treasurer—E. G. Garlick. Press Reporter—J. W. Sledge. Librarian—C. J. Owen. Teacher—O. W. Pierce. Assistant Teacher—W. L. Knight.

B. Y. P. U. SOCIAL.

The B. Y. P. U., has never had a more enjoyable social than that which was given last Tuesday evening in the beautiful and hospitable home of Mrs. Alice Hudson, who certainly spared neither time nor effort in making her home attractive and comfortable for the entertainment of the Union.

The automobile contest consisting of the various auto stunts, was full of fun and interest. The Ford Group scored the highest number of points and was presented a miniature automobile as a prize. The Dodge Group won the booby.

A most refreshing course of ices was served, after which the guests reluctantly departed, but carrying with them the hope that another social is not far off.

IN HONOR OF MISS TRAVIS.

Miss Virginia Bishop entertained delightfully at Rook in her home last Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Mary Ellen Travis. Rose colored lights and lovely decorations of evergreens and flowers made the halls and parlor appear quite festive indeed. An hour of cards was much enjoyed by the many guests during which time Miss Mary Norman Harris furnished soft music on the Victrola.

The highest scores were made Mrs. Harry Smith and Mrs. Fred Pool to whom were awarded beautiful boxes of stationery. During the course of the afternoon, a Bride's Book was presented to honoree by the hostess.

Miss Bishop, assisted by Miss Ida Sledge served a most attractive salad course followed by coffee and nuts.

The guests, on departing, decided that Miss Virginia has few equals as a most charming hostess.

REVIVAL BEGINS

At the Weldon Methodist Church Monday Evening, Oct. 10th.

The services which have been in progress at the Baptist Church this week will continue through next Sunday, closing with the evening service, according to announcement made by the pastor, Rev. J. G. Blalock. Rev. Marshall Craig is doing the preaching and Mr. Furman Bets leading the song services.

According to statement made by Rev. L. D. Hayman, pastor of the Weldon Methodist Church, the revival services will continue in union form in his church, beginning with Monday evening, October 10th, and running through the following Sunday. Rev. C. K. Proctor, of Raleigh, will be the preacher for the meeting and Mr. H. Lee Smith, of Richmond, will lead the song services. These two religious leaders come with highest recommendations. Mr. Proctor is popular in the city of Raleigh as a preacher and evangelistic worker. Mr. Smith is a leading business man of Richmond, but who finds time now and then to help in revival work. He is a leader in music, especially in congregational singing. Everything is ready for the continued feast for next week at the Methodist Church. Every one is invited to attend; and a cordial invitation to church workers to join in this campaign.

DEATH OF MRS. BURTON.

Died at her home in Raleigh on the 30th ult., Mrs. Mary Carroll Burton, widow of the late Hon. R. O. Burton, a distinguished leader of the Raleigh bar, and had lived in Raleigh about thirty years. She was a daughter of Mr. Thomas Carroll, of Ashland, Va. She is survived by four children. Mrs. Burton was a lady of rare grace and culture, and was a prominent member of the M. E. Church.

The remains were brought to Poplar Grove, the old family burying ground, near Rosemary, and interred last Saturday. The burial services were conducted by Rev. L. B. Jones and Rev. L. N. Taylor, of Roanoke Rapids. The following members of the family accompanied the remains: Mrs. George Little, Miss Annie Dally Burton, Miss Mary C. Burton, Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hayward, of Concord; Mr. Henry W. Burton, of Charlotte; Mr. J. R. Carroll, Thomas Carroll, Middleburg; Mr. James H. Burton, Miss Francis Olivia Burton, Mr. James H. Burton, Jr., Littleton.

The following acted as pall bearers: W. T. Shaw, O. W. Pierce, R. S. Travis, A. S. Allen, S. M. Gary, Geo. C. Green, Dr. D. B. Zollicoffer, W. E. Daniel, J. W. Sledge.

MOTHERS' DINNER.

On Wednesday, September 28th, a very pleasant occasion was enjoyed by Messrs. David H. Pepper and E. B. Pair, at the old home place of the widow Pair.

A very delicious dinner was served, consisting of Brunswick stew and old-time cooked barbecue and a variety of sweets.

The dinner was given in honor of four mothers, viz: Mrs. Mary V. Pair, of Faucets, Mrs. Mary E. Hawkins, of Rosemary, Mrs. Margaret J. Smith, of Aurelian Springs and Mrs. Laura V. Pepper, of Faucets.

The oldest mother in attendance being 76 and the next 74, but all seemed in fine spirits and expressed themselves as feeling unusually well. There was a number of children, grand children and great-grand children present.

Rev. D. M. Loy and family, of Littleton, were present and added much to the occasion. Mr. Loy seemed to be feeling fine and said it was one of the most pleasant days he had spent in Eastern Carolina. He paid a compliment to the two colored men, viz: Johnnie Britt and Grant Simmons, who prepared the dinner, declaring it was the best cue he ever tasted.

Mr. Loy conducted a few moments of prayer service in the afternoon, after which they all dispersed, declaring they had spent a most pleasant day.
