RED CROSS WORKING FOR HEALTHIER U. S.

Thousands Aided by Instruction in Care of the Sick, Food Selection and First Aid.

How the American Red Cross guides thousands of persons to health is shown in a summary of the society's activities in the health field based upon the annual report for the last fiscal year. Through its Nursing Service, the Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick courses, nutrition classes, First Aid classes, Life-Saving classes and Health Centers and in numerous other ways designed to acquaint masses of citizens with proper methods of living, the Red Cross carried its message of health into all parts of the country.

The work of the Red Cross during the war in its traditional field of nursing, furnishing the military and naval establishments of the nation with 19,877 nurses, is well known. And there are today 37,187 nurses registered with the American Red Cross and subject to call in emergency. During the fiscal year, 1,551 Red Cross nurses were accepted for assignment to Government service, 388 by the Army and Navy and 1,165 by the United States Public Health Service.

In addition to the nurses enrolled by the Red Cross for Government service, the Red Cross itself employed a total of 1,340 public health nurses in the United States and Europe. By far the greatest number was employed in the United States, 1,257, while 81 were in foreign service.

Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick classes, giving thorough instruction in the proper care of the sick in instances where the illness is not so serious as to require professional nursing care, during the fiscal year numbered 5,179. A statistical picture of the Red Cross operations in this field follows:

New classes formed during year 5,179

Classes completed during year 6,299

New students enrolled 101,068

Students completing courses 2,341

In addition to the above, a total of 22,000 children were given instruction in the proper selection and preparation of foods.

Through its 260 Health Centers, the Red Cross reached 90,232 persons. In these Centers, 4,018 health lectures were given and 780 health exhibits held.

In the United States last year, 75,482 persons were killed and 5,500,000 injured in industrial accidents. To prevent this enormous waste the Red Cross held 5,100 first aid classes with a total of 104,000 students enrolled.

WHERE THE WAYS END.

BY FRANK L. STANTON.

What is the sorrow? A little space—
The cry of fallen in the race;
The dying cry which the world heeds not—
Ill remembered, or soon forgot;
Joy or sorrow will end in rest—
Dust, and a rose on a dreamless breast.

What is the sighing? It is not long;
One in the end are the sigh and song,
One in pain, and one in doubt—
The cry of the vanquished—the victor's shout.
Victor and vanquished must creep for rest
When the dust is blown o'er the dreamless breast.

And what is the transient gloom and glow?
Is the beautiful love that we cling to so,
The rose-red lip, and the sparkling eye?
A gracious greeting—a sad goodbye!
With pallid faces and lips grief-prest,
The lovers creep to the rose for rest.

So we smile at the dark—on the pathway rough;
There shall be sunshine and rest enough,
After the stormy ways are past,
Rest shall be the sweater at last—at last!
Dust on a rose on a dreamless breast.

IN THE EYES OF THE LAW.

Policeman's Stand Against Im-modest Attire Would Seem to Be Somewhat Far-Fetched.

Two girls were crossing a Coney Island street. One had on a heavy, old-fashioned brilliantine bathing suit, with long skirt, high neck and elbow sleeves. The other was in street clothes. A policeman stopped them.

"You!" he called to the bathing beauty, "you can't pass here dressed like that. Go back and put on some decent clothes!"

The girl looked down at herself, then up at the policeman and smiled.

"Why, look at Mme!" she exclaimed, "what about her getting by?" The officer glanced at the other girl. She wore a filmy net waist, glaringly transparent; generally decollete, and a skirt ending a few inches above her knees.

"But she is dressed," said the guardian of the law. "Now you go and put some clothes on or you can't pass here, see?"

Catarrhal Deafness Can't be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

"Well, I'll admit that it gets results."

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for colds, croup and whooping cough for almost half a century and has constantly grown in favor and popularity as its good qualities became better known. It is the standard and main reliance for these diseases in thousands of homes. The fact that it can always be depended upon and is safe and pleasant to take greatly in its favor when it is wanted for children.

AN IDEAL UNION.

Mrs. Fuller Washington: "Am yo' daughter happy married, Mrs. Cooper?"

Mrs. Cooper: "She sho' is Bless de good Law! she's done got a man what's skeered to death of her."

To Gain a Good Reputation

"The best way to gain a good reputation is to endeavor to be what you appear." That is precisely the manner in which Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has gained its reputation as a cure for colds, croup and whooping cough. Every bottle that has ever been put out by the manufacturer has been fully up to the standard of excellence claimed for it. People have found that it can be depended upon for the relief and cure of these ailments and that it is pleasant and safe and it saved my life."

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since . . . I sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

"For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, in the treatment of many womanly ailments."

"If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too."

$10,000,000 AID FOR VETERANS

Red Cross Provides Friendly
Services of Many Kinds to Army of Disabled.

BULK OF WORK BY CHAPTERS

2,397 of These Are Helping Ex-
Service Men Obtain Benefits U. S. Provides.

One field of Red Cross service alone, that of assisting disabled veterans of the World War, entails expenditures $4,000,000 greater than the aggregate receipts of the Annual Roll Call of 1920, the American Red Cross announces in a statement urging a widespread increase in membership at the Annual Roll Call, November 11 to 24. At the present time, National Headquarters and the nation-wide chain of Chapters of the Red Cross is spending approximately $10,000,000 annually for the relief of disabled ex-service men and their families, while the aggregate receipts from last year's Roll Call were approximately $6,000,000.

It is in the 2,289 of the 3,800 Red Cross Chapters which still are helping solve the veterans' problem of adjusting himself to a normal civilian status that the greater part of the cost of this service is borne. Of the total sum spent for veterans' relief last year, National Headquarters expended a total of more than $2,600,000, while the remaining disbursement of approximately $7,000,000 represents the contribution of Chapters in this country-wide effort to assist the Government in providing the aid sorely needed by these men and their families.

An Ever Expanding Problem

That the problem of the disabled service man is ever-expanding and probably will not reach the peak before 1925, is the assertion of well-informed Government officials and that 2,397 Red Cross Chapters regard it as their most important work is evidence that the expansion is nowise confined to a particular section but is, on the contrary, nation-wide. At the end of the fiscal year, June 30, 1921, there were 20,000 disabled service men in the 1,602 United States Public Health Service, Contract and Government Hospitals and Soldiers Homes, and that number is increasing at a rate of 1,000 a month.

Thousands of these men receiving medical treatment, compensation and vocational training from the Government today, started their efforts to obtain them through the Red Cross Chapter. The Chapter, acting as the disabled man's agent in claims against the Government, informs the man as to the procedure necessary to gain for him that which is provided him by Federal statute. His applications for compensation, medical treatment and training are properly filed with the aid of the Red Cross Chapter.

Many Forms of Assistance

If there is delay before the man's claim is acted upon, the Red Cross Chapter lends the man money to meet the imperative needs of himself and his dependents.

Most vital to the man's gaining full benefit from the Government care is keeping his mind free from worry about his home. Keeping the veteran's family from hardship of every kind and informing him of its welfare is another province of the Chapter. Free from fear on this score, the man's recovery and advancement usually is rapid.

And as I looked at the rushing water, I thought of another power, not of water, but of souls—an power of an endless life. What was it that made Paul able to say, "I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me"? It was not the power inherent in Paul himself, for not many years before his spiritual power was low like the water of the Dead Sea. He had sunk into the depths of selfishness and sin.

The power of Paul and the power of every soul mighty in Christ is the power of position. It is the power of the life lived above the sordid world. Christ said, "And I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto me." He was "lifted up," and He has shone down with his infinite light and warmth into the sea of sin and raised souls to their home. In that position of power beside Christ we are no longer helpless like the Dead Sea, but have infinite power so that we can say, "I can do all things."

THE DIXIE GUARDS.

O. Southern lads, we sound the call, come join our happy band,
To form a league for eager work we've joined in heart and hand;
Our motto is "For God and home;" we answer calls of need,
We try to make a better land, and do the kindly deed.

With cheerful minds and willing hearts we do our work each day,
We are too busy for the right for wrong to lead astray;
With nerve and grit that none can break, with strong hearts brave and true
We'll fight on Life's great battlefield, and win its honors, too.

—James H. White.

ANOTHER AMENDMENT.

That "All is fair in love and war" Was long ago conceded true,
And long ago some husbands swore That it must read "and marriage, too."

SO THAT'S THAT.

What does the Work?

THE cleaning power of all soaps and cleansers is lye. Soap is nothing more than grease and water and lye, sometimes perfumed.

You can make your own soap at a great saving out of Red Seal Lye. Simply mix it with grease and water according to directions.

Red Seal Lye is the very best lye you can buy. It is pure lye, granulated, and packed in cans that are easy and convenient to use. To use it by itself for cleaning floors, woodwork, dishes, clothes, simply dissolve it in water and use the water as a cleanser. Red Seal Lye, sifted into the sink, absolutely cleans out the pipes and prevents them from clogging up. It softens water—saves soap—and is a wonderful disinfectant. Always ask your storekeeper for, and be sure to get, the old reliable Red Seal Granulated Lye.
