LADIES AND GENT'S OUTFITTER,

Everything for QUALITY —nothing for show

THAT'S OUR IDEA in making CAMELS—the Quality Cigarette.

Why, just buy Camels and look at the package! It's the best packing science has devised to keep cigarettes fresh and full flavored for your taste. Heavy paper outside—secure foil wrapping inside and the revenue stamp over the end to seal the package and keep it air-tight.

And note this! There's nothing flashy about the Camel package. No extra wrappings that do not improve the smoke. Not a cent of needless expense that must come out of the quality of the tobacco.

Camels wonderful and exclusive Quality wins on merit alone.

Because, men smoke Camels who want the taste and fragrance of the finest tobaccos, expertly blended. Men smoke Camels for Camels smooth, refreshing mildness and their freedom from cigarette aftertaste.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Coastal Plain Fair—Nov. 1, 2, 3 and 4.

All aboard for the Tarboro fair, next week.

No hard cider this year. Apple crop a failure.

Love at first sight is as good as any, if it sticks.

Meet your friends at the Tarboro fair next week.

Dr. W. G. Suiter visited Richmond last week.

Many a man given himself away by looking cheap.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Waring are visiting relatives in town.

The more temper a man has, the more frequently he loses it.

Several of our citizens attended the Woodland and Emporia fairs.

And speaking of the cotton market, there is still room at the top.

Mrs. W. E. Daniel visited relatives in Scotland Neck last week.

The modern dressmaker seems to think all men are from Missouri.

Men who are really big guns do not make most noise in the world.

Common sense should teach you to take care of the common cents.

It is reported that the girls are going to begin wearing ears again soon.

Another way to judge a man is by his selection of phonograph records.

Miss Sue Parker, of Goldsboro, spent the week end with relatives in town.

There are lots of people who have no faith in doctors—until they get sick.

Fashions will have to change before women can laugh in their sleeves again.

Mrs. A. W. Dunn and children, of Scotland Neck, are visiting relatives in town.

Money goes a little farther now, but it is still unable to go as far as next pay-day.

Mr. Frank Hawks, of Newport News, Va., spent several days in town last week.

Judging by their elbows, nature didn't intend for some women to wear short sleeves.

It is all right to slap a friend on the back, but you shouldn't talk about him behind it.

Why quarrel about these short skirts, anyway? They are all right, as far as we can see.

There are lots of boys in the country who had rather be Babe Ruth than president.

There may be some objection to bobbed hair, but it doesn't catch on a man's coat buttons.

Mrs. E. T. Clark has returned home from a visit to relatives in Winston-Salem and Mebane.

The body of Andrew Lawrence, colored, arrived from France last Friday and was interred Saturday.

And you have noticed, too, that a man with a level head seldom butts into where he is not wanted.

When some women have no troubles of their own, they worry about the troubles of other people.

Mr. B. W. Harper, of Battleboro, paid us a visit last Friday. He lived with Garrett & Co., at Chockayotte, many years ago.

There are several apple trees in town in bloom, notwithstanding the cold winds and heavy frosts of late.

Mr. W. G. Squire, formerly of Northampton county, but now of Soldier's Home, was in town this week.

A correspondent wants to know how to tell a real widow from a grass one. By her clothes, of course.

Do not let your anger rise and rule your actions. Wrath may be full of reasons, but they are seldom good ones.

Some of the cotton fields are still white. Better get it out, boys, before the cold weather that is promised later on.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Covington and Clyde Payne, of Ashland, Va., spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Payne.

And yet there are many men who will admit that they don't know much more about women than before the prevailing styles came in.

Mrs. Frank Hawks and children who have been visiting relatives in town for the past several weeks have returned to their home at Newport News.

DEATH OF SAMUEL T. THORNE

Samuel T. Thorne died at his home in Littleton Saturday morning at 5 o'clock in the 95th year of his age. He was one of the most respected citizens of his section and a member of a large family connection and one of the oldest families in this State. He leaves a wife, three daughters and three sons.

Our representative will be at A. L. Stainback's store on Wednesday and Thursday, October 26th and 27th, with a full line of all wearables for the boys—ages 2 years to 20 years. Be sure and come to look our goods over. Everything for your boys.

THE BOYS STORE, Norfolk, Va.

SOLD WELL.

The Florence Hill tract of land, containing 25 acres, about two miles and a half from town, was sold at public auction Saturday, Mr. P. Ransom being the purchaser at $2,700.

MARRIED.

Married at the Methodist parsonage, in Weldon, on Tuesday of last week, by Rev. L. D. Hayman, Mr. June Collier and Miss Clara Isles, both of Aurelian Springs. We wish for them a long and happy life.

AT THE WOODLAND FAIR.

A gentleman from Weldon, standing in a crowd at the Woodland fair, listening to the Weldon band, heard a beautiful young lady remark: "Wouldn't it be fine to live in a large town and have such a splendid band." This remark should tickle the members of the band and stimulate them to reach perfection.

INFLUENZA.

Many mild cases of influenza are reported from a number of localities, is admitted by the doctors. No alarm has been occasioned, and few cases have been of serious nature. Dust from drought parched roads and streets, flying with the fall winds, has carried the germs to most of the sufferers. Rain will greatly help the situation.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Truck No. 10 of the Halifax Schools, that runs from Thelma to Calvary school and from Calvary School to Mr. C. T. Coley's store was destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon. Many of the children lost their cloaks and books but none were hurt. The truck was loaded with about 25 children and running when it caught fire. —Littleton News Reporter.

FINE SWEET POTATOES.

Mr. W. T. Parker sent to our office last week three of the largest sweet potatoes we have seen this season. The three combined weighed nine pounds. Mr. Parker not only knows how to raise cotton but is a grand success when it comes to raising fine sweet potatoes. We wonder if there is another farmer in the whole county that has any larger? If so bring them in.

AT THE M. E. CHURCH.

The church doors were opened at the M. E. Church on last Sunday morning for the reception of members. Sixteen persons joined the church, six of whom received baptism. After this solemn service, an old fashioned love feast was participated in by the large congregation present.

At night the pastor preached a very interesting sermon on "Singing against the Holy Ghost."

THE CIRCULATING DOLLAR.

Now is the time to pay off some debts and clean the slate, if possible, and then profit by recent sad experiences by using more economy and sanity in expenditures.

The endless chain of debt must be broken before business can become as good as it ought to be.

If you owe a debt, pay it, or all of it that you can. The money will get into circulation and find its way to the man who owes you, and then come back home again.

When you pay the man you are indebted to he passes the money on to the man he owes, and so on down the line.

A single dollar will pay hundreds of dollars worth of debts, if it is kept in circulation.

MRS. DIXON ENTERTAINS.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. S. J. Dixon delightfully entertained the faculty of the Weldon schools, at her home on Elm street. Progressive Rook was played there being three tables.

Mrs. Dixon met the guests at the door and presented each with a tally card indicating the table and partner. The house was beautiful with autumn decorations, chrysanthemums predominating.

Miss Elsie Dooie having the highest score, received a lovely silver pencil and Mrs. J. W. Crew received a pacifier tied with blue ribbon, as the booby. After the games were tallied, Mrs. Dixon was assisted in serving a delicious salad course by Mrs. J. S. Turner.

Those playing were Misses Fuirell, Grant, Dickens, Bounds, Eddins, Sanders, Gaitley, Dooie, Harris, Benson, Mrs. Crew and Miss Bernice Dixon.

PARENTS AND THE SCHOOLS.

Practically all the schools of the country are now open for the winter session. To too many mothers and fathers this means a let-up of responsibility rather than call to co-operation.

How many of them will visit the schools to see if they are better equipped than last year, in better sanitary condition and so on?

How many of those who resolved last year to keep in closer touch with the children and the teachers will keep that resolution this year?

How many business men who complain that the schools do not fit youth for intelligent grasp of business life will take pains to keep in such contact with them as will prove helpful in correcting their business shortcomings?

Who are the schools, anyway? Who gains or loses by the investment in them, and so should make sure that it pays?

Only through intelligent co-operation between the school and the home, between teachers and parents and tax payers, can the school perform its highest service.

Wisconsin has a new law prohibiting the placing of a foot upon a brass rail while drinking a non-intoxicating beverage. In that state you're not even allowed to imagine.

CONTRACT AWARDED.

The contract for the construction of the hard surface road between Weldon and Roanoke Rapids was awarded last Friday. We have been unable, as yet, to find out the firm receiving the contract. Some of the bids were so close, that it will take some time to make decision. Mr. A. C. House was awarded the contract for building the bridges. We learn that work will be commenced in ten days after the contract has been awarded.

D. A. R.'S MEET.

The Elizabeth Montfort Ashe Chapter D. A. R. held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. H. B. Harrell, on Thursday afternoon, October 13, 1921.

The house was attractively decorated with red, white and blue flowers, the color scheme for the occasion.

A gift was added to the collection for the Constitution House at Halifax, presented by Mrs. L. J. Lawshee, of Wilson. This gift, which was in the form of a Revolutionary pistol, proved to be quite a curiosity.

After the business of the afternoon was transacted the following guests were invited in to hear the program and enjoy the refreshments: Mesdames J. T. Gooch, Cornelius Hawkins, J. S. Turner, W. G. Suiter, A. S. Allen, O. W. Pierce, G. C. Sanders, M. L. Cornwall and Miss Mary Long Green.

The program consisted of three numbers. A piano solo by Mrs. S. A. Harrington; an interesting reading, "George Washington's Farewell Address," by Mrs. C. W. Gregory; and a voice selection by Mrs. R. S. Travis.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. G. C. Sanders and Miss Mary Long Green, served a lovely three course luncheon, which needless to say, was thoroughly enjoyed by every one.

SCHOOL NOTES.

One of the very gratifying results of the dental clinic we have had in our schools, is that one whole grade is forming the habit of washing their teeth regularly. This is the advanced section of the first grade. Just here we would like to say that the Weldon Drug Co. has kindly presented the little folks with tooth brushes, through the instrumentality of Miss Saucer, who is doing such a great work in the country.

The Baker and Daniels literary societies have reorganized for work during the present session, with the following results:

BAKER—Elizabeth Allen, President; Arthur Cochrane, Vice-President.

DANIELS—Anna Olivia Drake, President; Ovid Pierce, Vice-President.

Secretaries to be chosen later.

This year there are two teachers for each society. Misses Benson and Dickens are the leaders for the Baker. Misses Dooie and Gaitley are the leaders for the Daniels.

We are expecting some splendid work from these two societies.

The Wilson and Pershing societies of the high school are working slightly different this year. They have two teachers each for advisers but the pupils themselves are responsible for the programs.

Our Athletic Association will be reorganized this week. The boys are regularly practicing different kinds of contests. We hope to better our previous record.

THE BOOK CLUB.

The Book Club met Tuesday afternoon, October 18, with Mrs. W. T. Shaw. In the absence of the president and the vice-president, Mrs. W. L. Knight presided over the meeting.

After the singing of "America" by the Club, the roll call, and the reading of the minutes, an important business meeting was held.

The Library Committee gave an encouraging report of its work and submitted for further consideration plans for the year. The School Committee reported that a Fire Prevention Day had been observed in the graded school, according to a program submitted by the committee.

A letter from the American Legion Post Commander was read, setting forth the wishes and plans of the Legion for the Armistice Day celebration. This received the Club's enthusiastic consideration, and a committee was named to prepare a float for the occasion.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to draft resolutions on disarmament to be sent to President Harding, presented resolutions which were adopted.

The members made payments on dues, and year books, and subscriptions and various pledges of the Club for the year.

A committee was appointed to arrange and send flowers to a number of club members who are sick.

Following the reading of a very cordial letter from the Club President, the program was announced.

Nathaniel Hawthorne, whom such a critic as Lowell has seen fit to call "the greatest imaginative genius since Shakespeare," was the subject of study for the afternoon.

Mrs. Pierce Johnson gave a splendid paper on "Hawthorne, the Man and Author."

Mrs. C. S. Vinson followed this with a summary of Hawthorne's best known short stories and novels.

The interest of the members in their study, for the year was manifested by the hearty responses to roll call, which were Hawthorne's English contemporaries and their best known works, and by the large number who entered into the discussion.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Jack Jennings and Mrs. Fred Poole served a delicious salad course, with coffee and mince, which together with the unique favors and decorations remind us that Halloween is not far off.
