

STOMACH TROUBLE?

Weakness? Distress? Askland, Ky.—Many years ago my mother used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for her stomach. She had taken treatment from physicians and had never obtained good results.

SPECIAL SESSION.

Governor Cameron Morrison on Monday formally called the General Assembly of North Carolina to convene in special session at eleven o'clock December 6.

IF THAT'S ANY COMFORT.

If I had been young and pretty the jury wouldn't have done this," wailed Mrs. Dora Waterman, of Chicago, 41 years old, when she was sentenced to prison for seven years for killing her husband.

SOME WAR FIGURES

David F. Houston, former secretary of the treasury, is authority for the statement that since the foundation of our government we have spent in round numbers sixty-seven billion dollars, and of this fifty-eight billions went for wars.

OUR EX-SOLDIERS.

The Bible tells us that God loves the man who though to his loss has sworn, will not break his pledged word. Men respect such a man when they find him.

SPEAKING OF CHILDREN.

Last week a mother in Tacoma, Wash., gave birth to her sixteenth child. Her husband works in a shipyard.

MARSHALL FOR PRESIDENT.

Former United States Senator J. Hamilton Lewis, of Illinois, who attended the Democratic national committee meeting at Washington last week, said the fight between the McAdoo and Cox contingents for chairmanship was as profitless as a "mutiny in an army preparing for war over the selection of a drill sergeant for dress parade."

OLD WELDON.

Things That Happened 33 Years Ago in Town and Vicinity. Oct. 25, 1888.—We were glad to see Brother Foote, of the Warrenton Gazette, in our office last week.

Miss Kate Taylor Prescott, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Lynchburg and Washington, returned home Saturday last.

Mr. A. H. Davis, Jr., who is now a resident of Washington City is home on a vacation.

A number of the teachers of Halifax county met at Enfield on Saturday, October 13, and organized a Teacher's Council. The following officers were elected: President—W. A. Daniel. Vice-President—W. S. Wilkinson. Treasurer—Miss Nannie Applewhite. Secretary—Miss Mattie Whitaker.

VOTES AND ALIMONY.

There are penalties as well as privileges attached to the ballot. A man in Minnesota is suing his wife for support and alimony. It is the first time the issue has been raised in that State. The judge is thinking it over.

In English and American law, alimony is taken to mean payment by the husband to the wife on the assumption that the husband is the earner.

But it does happen that a woman, tired of a man for any one of a wide variety of reasons, is willing to pay him to take himself off. The price of the blessed relief may come highly but she feels that to be rid of the worthless fellow is worth the price.

It is not clear to the lay mind why a woman, because she votes, has equal rights and is a citizen, is bound to assume the obligations of a bread winner for her husband. The lay mind has not been accustomed to the woman being all these things.

The decision of the Minnesota judge may shed light on the problem.

THE QUEST FOR GOLD.

Canadian Indians recently brought word from the far north of a river of gold, with the inevitable result that a rush of prospectors has started northward.

Not all of those who joined the California gold rush in '49 struck it rich, and many of those who went to Alaska on the same quest suffered privation and want only to come back empty handed and broken hearted. Not a few died without seeing the glimmer of gold.

Men have been hunting gold since the dawn of history, yet only a few thousand tons of the precious metal are on the earth's surface today. Not one in a hundred of the seekers ever find the gold board.

The truth is that real gold mines are not in far off places, but right here at home, where are opportunities by far than those to be encountered in passing streams in strange lands for money making. Only, too many of us cast aside as worthless the real fortunes at hand, or to be made at home, to follow the lure that turns out to be but a mirage.

THE NEW WHEAT.

Seager Wheeler, Canada's wheat wizard, gets $30 a bushel for Early Triumph, his new variety of seed wheat. It ripens ten days earlier than any other wheat and yields eight to ten more bushels to the acre.

This helps all farmers, by increasing their possible profits. It also moves the wheat belt 100 miles farther north and puts millions of new acres under cultivation.

Wheeler, on his Saskatchewan farm, has a wheat production record of 82 bushels per acre. In international exhibitions he has won the world's championship five times.

Men like Wheeler and Luther Burbank will be the outstanding figures of our time when a really civilized posterity rewrites history and puts wars, kaisers and Fatty Arbuckles where they belong—on a back seat.

The dinner pail will be the really important thing when the United States becomes as thickly settled as China or some parts of Europe.

OUR EX-SOLDIERS.

The Bible tells us that God loves the man who though to his loss has sworn, will not break his pledged word. Men respect such a man when they find him.

All men do not speak the truth, but all men respect the man who does speak the truth, and while it is not uncommon for men to tolerate a man who does not speak the truth, such a man never enjoys the real confidence even of his friends.

The promises that the people of the country made to the soldiers of the World War are still fresh in the minds of the soldiers and of the people who made the promises.

One of the most important of these promises was to the effect that the soldier should have preference over the man who was not a soldier.

There are people who sincerely try to live up to this promise and there are thousands who have forgotten all about it.

Nobody sees or understands this thing more clearly than the ex-soldier himself, and while as a rule he does not ask any special consideration on account of service rendered, he cannot help taking note of the difference between promise and performance.

People who were so earnest in their promises of undying gratitude to the soldiers could make no better investment than to try to live up to their promises.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

How strange is human nature. Some men will not only buy liquor from a blind tiger but they will brag about it afterward.

There is plenty of work. The trouble is that too many men are demanding eight dollars a day to fill four-dollar jobs.

Mr. R. J. Lewis, Jr., who for the past three months has been living in Savannah, Ga., returned to his home in Halifax Monday.

On Thursday night, the 18th instant, the Rev. M. A. Adams was ordained a minister in the Baptist church by Revs. R. Vandevanter, of Henderson, and W. B. Morton, of Weldon.

John White, colored, fireman on engine 128, W. & W. R. R., fell dead on the engine Wednesday between Whitakers and Enfield. As he fell Capt. Lawther, the engineer, caught him in his arms.

November 8, 1888.—A letter came to the postoffice the other day addressed to "Dear Cousin Martha Johnson."

Miss Sallie Price and Miss Annie Thomas, who have been visiting Rev. B. B. Culbreth's family, has returned to their home in Toinot.

Celie Hawkins, an old colored woman was found dead in the wood, near Mr. Pittards, in this county, on Monday last week. She was supposed to have been dead four or five days when found.

On Thursday morning last Jenkie Clements, colored, attempted to jump on the train after it had moved from the shed for the fair grounds. His foot caught in a frog and threw him down, his arm falling on the rail in front of a wheel, which passed over it and crushed it so that the arm had to be taken off a little below the elbow and the operation was performed by Drs. A. R. and D. B. Zollicoffer and A. B. Pierce.

The mail train from Portsmouth ran over and instantly killed a well known white man named Alph Harding, of Northampton county, last Thursday. The train was about five miles this side of Seaboard, running at a rapid rate of speed, when the man was seen to step upon the track and crouch down with his head down toward the engine, before the train could be stopped the engine had rushed upon him and ground him into a thousand fragments. When the train was stopped scarcely a member of his body could be found. He was well known in Weldon.

WEAK BLOOD IS A REAL BARRIER

Growing Children Often Need Gude's Pepto-Mangan.

Some children grow too quickly—it saps their strength. They lapse into careless, desultory habits, or develop a shrinking attitude. Their faces look pinched.

The blood becomes overtaxed by too rapid growth; and poisons from the system take the place of strength-giving red corpuscles in the blood. Red corpuscles are those little red particles that swim in the blood and give it its color. Gradually that child loses interest in its play.

Poor blood needs the building that the iron in Gude's Pepto-Mangan gives to weakened blood. Gude's Pepto-Mangan enriches the blood by increasing the number of red corpuscles, and restores the blood by driving out the poisons. When the revived blood gets to work, the appetite becomes what a growing child's should be. Your druggist has Gude's Pepto-Mangan in liquid or tablet form. The name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" is on every package. —Adv.

He said the conflict between the McAdoo and Cox forces over the organization would make former Vice President Thomas R. Marshall the nominee for President in 1924.

There are a whole lot of people alas! who think we never have good government unless they are elected to office.

DEATH OF MRS. E. CRIT DICKENS.

In the 48th year of her age, Mrs. E. Crit Dickens passed away at her home near Darlington School, Halifax county, on October 27, 1921.

She was the eldest daughter of the late Junius H. Barham, a brave Confederate soldier, and his wife, Laura R. Barham, nee Collier. She is survived by her grief-stricken husband, Mr. E. Crit Dickens, two sisters, Mrs. T. E. Radcliff, of Raleigh, Mrs. W. D. Dickens, Halifax, and two brothers, Jos. W. Barham, Portsmouth, Va., and John A. Barham, of Lynchburg.

A number of other relatives and friends in Virginia and North Carolina mourn the death of this good woman, who was laid to rest in Cedarwood cemetery, in Weldon, surrounded by a large number of sorrowing friends and near relatives. The floral offerings were many and beautiful, attesting the love and esteem of those who knew her best for, truly, "to know her was to love her."

For thirty years the writer has known this beautiful Christian character, and this tribute is gladly and lovingly given: That she was one of the few observed in all those years who lived the golden rule every day. Quiet and unassuming no needy person ever sought her aid in vain—her greatest concern being the comfort and pleasure of others.

A thoroughly consecrated Christian, she was always in her place at church, when her health permitted, and although a great sufferer no word of complaint escaped her lips. She "fought the good fight and kept the faith" and has gone home to be with God.

We who are left have a goodly heritage in the sweet memories of her Godly life, and may we, too, be led to Him.

"Thou hast gone to the grave but we will not deplore thee. Though darkness and shadows envelope thy tomb, The Saviour has passed through the portals before thee And the lamp of his love is thy guide through the gloom."

A FRIEND.

Gambing is wrong, of course, but the successful men of today were those who were willing to take a chance.

CALOMEL SALIVATES EVEN WHEN CAREFUL.

Treachorous Drug can not be Trusted and Next Dose May Start Trouble.

Calomel is dangerous. It may salivate you and make you suffer fearfully from soreness of gums, tenderness of jaws and teeth, swollen tongue, and excessive saliva dribbling from the mouth. Don't trust calomel. It is mercury; quick-silver.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tonic you will wake up feeling great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.
