"THE PERFECT DAY."

One day my mind here came a night
To make you placed me here,
When can I in this great world do?
Whom look to, and whom fear?
And when I saw, I'd little done
In this great busy life,
I'd set about some good to do,
Make things around me thrive.

Would ask myself, if my own life
Was such as God approved,
Did no accusing thought reproach?
For ill, toward Him, I loved?
Some day, we pass beyond the vale
When records must be shown,
'Tis then we lose for good and all
Or "come into our own."

A "Perfect Day" awaits the just
But oh! who'll stand the test?
A time of trial near at hand
The pure will find sweet rest.
As gently falls the dew of night
On rose-buds, lovely, fair!
So holiness will lead aloft
Dispel thoughts of despair.

Acquaint yourself, if still unknown
With Him who rules o'er all,
He who alone can light the way
Or bring the darkest pall,
To poise itself in shadowy deep
Forever shade the way,
But when he clears all mists from view
We find "the Perfect Day."
—J. B. T.
