THE OLD FARM GATE.

In my boyhood days
With my youthful ways,
I early met my fate
A lovely girl
With soft brown curls
Down by the old farm gate.
My heart so free
Would never be
In fear of being late,
To meet the girl
With the soft brown curls
Down by the old farm gate.

I met her there
With face so fair
I craved her for my mate,
That beautiful girl
With soft brown curls
Down by the old farm gate.
One summer eve
I dared not leave
My love had grown so great,
For that sweetest girl
With soft brown curls,
Down by the old farm gate.

With courage bold
Like love I said
No longer could I wait,
But sought the girl
With soft brown curls
Down by the old farm gate.
I asked in glee
If she'd early be
My own sweet loving mate,
That darling girl
With the soft brown curls
Down by the old farm gate.

Alas! if we
Could only see,
Sad story to relate,
We buried the girl
With soft brown curls
Down by the old farm gate.

In sorrow I roam
To the Spot alone
Where my sweetheart lies in state
My darling girl
With the soft brown curls
Down by the old farm gate.

OUR RELATIONS WITH RUSSIA.

The number of famine deaths in Russia to date is estimated at more than 250,000 by Semashko, the soviet commissioner of health. Food, rushed by the American relief expeditions, has saved the lives probably of millions.

The Russians who have been saved from death's clutches by American food are bound to have a kindly feeling toward us that will be perpetuated through their descendants. And in the long run that feeling will be more important for international brotherhood than the official relations between the Russian and American governments.

CEYLON'S MANY ANIMALS

The island of Ceylon, which sent peacocks, monkeys and baby elephants to King Solomon, for that monarch's zoo, is remarkable for a varied and interesting fauna. One of the oddest of its animals is a huge lizard, called the cabrogoya, which attains a length of four and one-half feet. The cabrogoya is a very handsome reptile, beautifully marked, and its skin when tanned affords a tough leather of excellent wearing quality and waterproof. It is used for making women's shoes and, with the idea of introducing it in this country for that purpose, specimen hides have recently been sent to our Department of Commerce by the American consul at Colombo—Philadelphia Ledger.

Evils of Constipation.

Perhaps the most serious of the diseases caused by constipation is appendicitis. If you would avoid this dangerous disease, keep your bowels regular. For this purpose Chamberlain's Tablets are excellent, easy to take and mild and gentle in effect.

HOW THEY "HEARD" MUSIC

Deaf and dumb people dance to jazz music in Boston, at their annual ball.
They could not hear the music, but it started vibrations in air, walls and floor. These vibrations, entering the dancers' bodies through the soles of their shoes and their skin nerves, carried the jazz rhythm and time to their brains, like shocks of electricity.

Brains telegraphed the vibrations on to the emotions.
The body is a wireless apparatus, receiving the vibrations of sight, hearing, smelling, tasting, feeling.
What is a vibration? If you could answer that, you could explain the mystery of life. Life is motion. Motion is vibration.
Temporarily, you impart life to a stone when you throw it—life, but not consciousness.

LOOKING GLASSES IN CHINA

The people of Manchuria are extravagantly fond of mirrors. Largely they are used for ornamental purposes, being so adorned with flowers, birds and even landscapes painted on them as to be practically unrecognizable as looking glasses. The cigarette cases and purses carried by young men of the well-to-do class usually contain small mirrors, of which their owners make constant use as do young women in our own country of glasses in vanity boxes.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

STRONGER OF THE TWO

"What is your attitude toward women who smoke?"
"One of successful competition," said Mr. Grunpson.
"Yes?"
"When it comes to fumigating the atmosphere a cigarette is practically helpless before a well-seasoned pipe that has been used regularly for several years"—Birmingham Age-Herald.

GIANT CRAWFISH

A monster crawfish measuring over five feet in length and weighing 80 pounds was captured recently off the Florida coast.
