OLD WELDON.

Things That Happened 33 Years Ago in Town and Vicinity.

August 15, 1889.—David Lewis, white, was arrested here Tuesday on a warrant issued by Justice E. E. Hilliard, of Scotland Neck, charging him with forgery and obtaining money on false pretense. It is alleged that he presented Furell & Speed, of Scotland Neck, a check on the bank of Oxford for $150, signed by R. S. Turner, and that they advanced him $50, the balance to be paid on August 2nd. Lewis claims that the check was given by a third person for debt. There were no funds in the bank to the credit of Turner.

Died, in Littleton, on Wednesday, the 7th instant, Mrs. Sallie Jones, wife of W. W. Jones. Mrs. Jones was about 32 years of age; the daughter of our townsman, Mr. F. J. Cheek.

Miss Nannie Long, who has been visiting relatives in Portsmouth, Va., for the past three weeks, returned home last Friday, and left Monday for a visit to Jackson.

Mr. M. L. Stover, one of the efficient train dispatchers of the Coast Line at Wilmington, was in town Monday.

Mrs. Aaron Prescott left Monday for a visit to relatives in Warren county.

Masters Norwood Hill and Edwin Gregory, of Halifax, left this week to enter the Horner School at Oxford.

Master George Green left for Warren Monday to attend school, accompanied by little Miss Bessie.

Mr. W. D. Cochran, of Oxford, is in town visiting relatives and old friends.

Mr. W. S. Wilkins, who has been enjoying a week's holiday, returned to his duties with the Southern Express Company Monday.

Mr. E. M. Borst, a former resident of this place but now telegraph operator at Blackstone, Va., was in town Monday.

SCHOOLS TO OPEN SEPT. 11.

Owing to the diphtheria that has been prevalent in our town for a few weeks, we have decided to open school on Monday, Sept. 11.

The book lists are out and can be had from Mrs. Wilkins' home in the front hall. The books will all be here—please provide your selves with books and be ready for work on the opening day.

After consultation with the health officer and another physician, we have decided that every person connected with the school from the superintendent down and from the janitor up must have a throat culture made in order to locate and segregate the carriers of diphtheria if there are any. Dr. Carter will be in his office on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 2nd, Monday afternoon, Sept. 4th and Tuesday all day, Sept. 5th, to take throat cultures of the white children, and on Wednesday, Sept. 6th all day to take throat cultures of the colored children. Don't fail to come. Parents please help us to protect your child.

W. B. EDWARDS.

BASE BALL.

Weldon lost to Aulander here, Thursday, 4 to 2, in a slow game. This is the 5th game lost by Weldon this season, having won 26 and tied 2.

Weldon beat a team from Portsmouth at Roanoke Rapids Friday 11 to 2, in 13 innings. The score was tied at two to all in the sixth inning when Parker for Portsmouth pitched the ball. The game was a pitcher's battle between Shields and Gallie. The Portsmouth defense went to pieces in the 13th and Weldon scored 9 runs. Weldon secured 13 hits to 5 for Portsmouth.

On Saturday Weldon again played Portsmouth at Roanoke Rapids and were defeated by a score of 6 and 2.

Weldon played Fremont here, Monday and were victorious by a score of 12 to 5.

WANTED—Tomatoes delivered at our cannery in South Weldon on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays until Aug. 31. We pay 35c. per bushel for ripe tomatoes. ROANOKE CANNING Co.

MUSGROVE-ROBBINS.

A Beautiful Marriage Celebrated In Raleigh.

The following is taken from the News and Observer of Sunday: The marriage of Miss Roe Ella Robbins, of this city to Mr. Robert Alexander Musgrove, of Weldon, took place yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at Edenton Street Methodist church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. K. Proctor of Central Methodist church, in the absence of the pastor, Dr. W. W. Peele. Mrs. Kate Hays Fleming played the wedding music.

The bride who was escorted and given in marriage by her father, Mr. W. H. Robbins, wore a suit of sorrenno blue, trimmed in flying squirrel with a hat of henna devatine and silver cloth. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids.

Miss Susie May Robbins, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a frock of changeable green taffeta and carried a basket of pink roses. Little Barbara Harris, cousin of the bride, was ring-bearer. She wore a dainty white ruffled frock and carried the ring in a white rose.

The groom was attended by his best man, Mr. James Johnson, of Weldon. The ushers were Messrs. Holleman Robbins, Edwin Robbins and Lynn Robbins, brothers of the bride and Jeffrey Stanback, a cousin.

Mrs. Musgrove is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robbins, of this city. She was educated at Salem College and St. Mary's School.

Mr. Musgrove is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Musgrove, of Weldon. He was educated at the North Carolina State College.

After a wedding trip to northern cities Mr. and Mrs. Musgrove will be at home in Raleigh at the home of the bride's parents, 1115 Hillsboro street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robbins entertained informally Friday evening following the rehearsal at their home on Hillsboro street.

The out-of-town guests here to attend the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Musgrove, of Weldon; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robbins, Jr., Lake Landing, N. C.; Mrs. S. E. Jeannette, of Henderson; Mrs. F. A. Woodard, of Wilson; Mr. and Mrs. Howard V. Bounds, Mrs. Grady Lassiter, Miss Mary Pierce, Mr. James Johnson, of Weldon; Mrs. Graham Woodard and Miss Frances Woodard, of Wilson; Mrs. C. W. Howard, Jr., of Kinston.

NEAR EAST RELIEF.

Halifax county raised 46 Per Cent. of Its Quota.

Halifax county raised $2,100.34 for Near East Relief this year, or 46 per cent. of its quota, according to an announcement from Raleigh by Col. Geo. H. Bellamy, State Chairman. Halifax stood fifty-seventh in the list of counties in North Carolina in amounts raised.

Rev. L. D. Hayman, of Weldon, was chairman for Halifax county, and his work was highly commended by Col. Bellamy in his annual report which has just been issued. Halifax sent in $1,363.59 in cash up to the close of the fiscal year on June 30. On that date there were $87 in unpaid pledges not yet due. Clothing to the value of $669.79 was sent in from the county.

In thanking his chairmen and workers and the people who contributed this money, Col. Bellamy called attention to the fact that it will be necessary to put on a similar campaign this fiscal year, because the Great Powers of the world are allowing the Turks to continue their massacres in Armenia and destruction of crops, homes and industries.

"There have been twenty-two separate massacres since the Armistice," declared Col. Bellamy, "which makes it impossible for these people to be self-supporting until France, England and Italy relinquish their protectorate over Turkey in their mad scramble for the Mohammedan calico trade."

"The recent British refusal to allow the Greek army to stop massacres of its people was one of the most astounding and sordid chapters in history, and until such conditions as this disappear and England becomes a Christian nation, the American people are the only thing that stand between Armenia and the entire starvation of its outstanding population."

REMARKABLE FOR HIS AGE.

George Pointer, who lives near town, brought to our office last week a perfect picture of a woman drawn by himself. George is 87 years of age, having served 31 years as a slave. The drawing shows that his eye-sight is good and his nerves steady. He is one of the old-time darkies. Takes his hat off when talking to you. He says he hasn't forgotten how to cook the best barbecue a man ever tasted. The picture can be seen at our office. May many more years be added to his life. There are few of the old darkies, like George, left.
