SAMARCAN MANOR.

AN INSTITUTION MAINTAINED BY THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA FOR DELINQUENT AND NEGLECTED GIRLS.

These lines are written with a view of giving the people of town a bit of information concerning Samarcan Manor, an institution maintained by the State of North Carolina for the purpose of caring for delinquent and neglected girls for one reason or another or the savages of the moral decline of our times. Samarcan Manor is located in the south-western part of Wayne county, the home of the famous Theta zeta ophielias. Located in a beautiful picturesque part of the State, it has a large campus, and a fine number of fine buildings. The grounds give the appearance of a college campus, and but for the singular uniforms which the girls wear, one would think he were in the midst of a church school for young ladies. The main road touches the village at Samarcan just about two miles from the town of Weldon.

It was my privilege to visit, and in a general way inspect, the several buildings of this institution. First of all, there is the Administration building, which is the general headquarters where the superintendent may be found and where the girls receive their mail. Next is the dining room, which is a beautiful room, and where the girls receive their meals. There are also several dormitories, and a large kitchen, where the girls are employed. The girls are dressed in simple, plain, and comfortable uniforms, and are given a thorough education. The institution is well equipped with all the modern conveniences, and the girls are given the best of care and attention.

ENTERED INTO REST.
The strife is o'er, the battle done,
The victory of life is won,
The song of triumph has begun.

On Monday morning Oct. 9th, 1922, Anna Gaver Moore, wife of L. J. Moore entered into rest. She is survived by her husband, five small children, a large family connection and a host of friends here and in Northampton county. An aged mother, two brothers, an aunt and many friends in Frederic and Middletown, Maryland, her former home.

Every service of medical skill and loving hands were rendered, and a brave fight was made to save the life of this devoted wife and mother, but to no avail. The Great Destroyer, Death, had marked her for his own. God moves in a mysterious way, and His dealings with His children of earth past finding out.

THE DOG'S NOSE.
There is a legend that The Ark sprang a leak. To stop the leak Noah stuck the dog's nose into the hole. Ever since that the dog has had a cold nose.

"A WOMAN'S CLUB"

MRS. AL FAIRBROTHER.
A woman's club is for the woman who
Outgrows the chrysalis of narrow walls
That constitutes her home, and longs to do
Some other things worth while when duty calls.
The woman who looks out and sees the need
Of heads and hearts and hands to guide the wheel
Of Progress in the race where grafters feed
Ambition's hungry maw—one who can feel
And recognize a danger from afar;
Who has a goal and always heads that way;
Sustained by thought that not the bigger car
On highway of Achievement wins the day;
The woman who can speed or use the brakes
In matter municipal wherein lies the welfare of her child, or from her takes
Her rights and privileges to make dies
And also makes demands on those who serve
Her city by her vote, and by her paid
To govern well and wisely, lest they swerve
When difficulties in their paths are laid.

A woman's club is for the woman who
In home and church and in society
Gives of her best, and yet for her who's true
To instincts all, which spell satiety—
A human need for closer human touch
With lives and thoughts all different from her own—
Something to give, in turn she gains so much,
So much that she before has never known.
No gossip here, no idle, aimless hours,
No talk of creed or caste where understood
That weeds and prickly thorns crowd out the flowers
And where the meeting ground is womanhood
A woman's club is for the woman who
Would keep abreast with all that's good and best
In modern thought and would her youth renew
In study of the Masters—stand in the test,
As in her school girl days, of matching wits
Where, in the game with those who would be wise,
The flapper stage with ripened scholar sits
And enters competition for the prize.
A woman's club is college, forum, field,
For study or for work, with time to play,
Where unsuspected talents are revealed
And backward, budding genius shown the way,
A woman's club all this can be and more—
A clearing house for best in woman-kind—
To fuller life is the Open Door
For those with open heart and open mind.

COLLECT OF CLUB WOMEN OF AMERICA.
Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed,
Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.
May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity and without prejudice.
May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.
Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.
Let us take time for all things; make us grow calm, serene and gentle.
Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are as one.
And may we strive to touch and to know the great common woman's heart of us all; and O Lord God, let us not forget to be kind.

RARE OPPORTUNITY.
The Civics Department is introducing in its regular program a group of lectures that will include the following subjects: Sociology, Economics, Citizenship, Parliamentary Law and Machinery of our Government.
In consideration of the tremendous need and opportunity for this type of information, each member of the Woman's Club is respectfully requested to attend each lecture or certainly as many as possible.
Prof. W. B. Edwards, A. B., Wake Forest, M. A., Columbia University, Superintendent Weldon Public Schools, has kindly consented to deliver this series of lectures. This is really an unusual opportunity for the women to become acquainted with Parliamentary Law and the Machinery of our Government, and it is hoped that each club woman will avail herself of this privilege. Information is

The following is taken from the Northampton Reporter: "The largest delivery of cotton to the Exchange was made this week by J. E. Ransom. Mr. Ransom one of the largest and most progressive farmers of the county delivered to Jackson warehouse for the association one hundred bales of cotton. Let the good work go on. Everybody put for better grade and every price for cotton."

AFTERNOON CLUB.

Mrs. L. W. Murphrey delightfully entertained the Thursday Afternoon Club, Oct. 5.
The subject for the afternoon was Early Southern Literature. Members responded to roll call with current events. Two most interesting papers were read: A survey of Colonial Literature by Mrs. C. F. Gore, and George Washington by Mrs. Pierce Johnson.
The hostess, assisted by Mrs. G. C. Sanders, Mrs. Willie G. Cohen and Miss Mary Long Green, served a delicious salad course. The guests were then invited into the dining room which was beautifully decorated in autumn leaves and flowers. Here they were served coffee by Mrs. Sanders.

THE RIGHT WAY TO KILL GERMS.
Here is a powerful and recognized disinfectant which kills the germs.
Is your cellar sanitary? Germs will multiply by the million overnight, in a damp, musty cellar. Make a solution of Red Seal Lye and sprinkle into all the dark corners, and all mustiness will immediately disappear, leaving your cellar fresh and sweet smelling.
If your kitchen sink does not drain quickly, here is an immediate remedy. Sift a little Red Seal Lye into the pipes. The lye will combine with the grease and dirt, forming a solution which will be carried off quickly by the water, leaving the pipes free and clean. Housewives may save money by making their own soap. All that is needed is one can of Red Seal Lye and a quantity of waste grease or fat, such as would ordinarily be thrown away. The one can will make twenty cakes of pure soap at less than one cent per cake. See how quickly and easily Red Seal Lye will clean the wash-tub, tub or clothes bowl.
Red Seal Lye is put up in handy round cans. It contains no filler or adulteration. It is absolutely pure and safe. Send for the Red Seal Booklet which explains many uses of the famous Red Seal Lye. Write today. Ask your dealer for the old reliable Red Seal Lye. Take notice.

CALOMEL SALIVATES EVEN WHEN CAREFUL
Treacherous Drug Cannot Be Trusted and Next Dose May Start Trouble
Calomel is dangerous. It may salivate you and make you suffer fearfully from soreness of gums, tenderness of jaws and teeth, swollen tongue and excessive saliva dribbling from the mouth. Don't trust calomel. It is mercury; quick-silver.
If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.
If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and cannot salivate.
