Beautiful Marriage Solemnized at the M. E. Church in this Place, On November 8th.

A wedding of much interest locally and a leading social event throughout the State was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock at the Methodist Episcopal impressively performed by Rev.

L. D. Hayman. The church with its autumn setinterspersed with gleaming yellow an overflowing throng of interested friends and well wishers.

Before the arrival of the bridal party a musical program was rendered by Mrs. Charles E. Williamson, organist, accompanied by Mr. Eli Bloom, violinist, and followed by a solo, "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," by Mrs. Raleigh Travers Daniel.

The ushers were Messrs. Edwin Lee, Paul Borden and Graves Smith, of Goldsboro, and J. Wesley Parker, of Emporia, Va. The bridesmands, Misses Carolyn White, of Elizabeth City, and Virginia Bishop of Weldon, wore lovely dresses of fuschia crepe and carried arm bouquets of orchid chrysanthemums, tied with maline to match. The dames of honor, Mrs. Frank Saunders, of Pinetops, and Mrs. P. W. Gower, of Raleigh, were becomingly attired in soft shade of Copenhagen blue crepe and carried arm bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums, tied with yellow maline. The maid of honor, Miss Rebecca Simpson, of Norin wood brown brocaded chiffon georgette and carried an arm bouquet of Russell roses, tied with maline to match. The flower girl, little Rebecca Johnson, a niece of crepe, carried a basket of Russell is making splendid progress. roses. Little Martha Hawkins, niece of the bride, in a fairy-like dress of white chiffon over satin, carried the ring in a yellow chrysanthemum. The bride entered with her brother, Mr. Earl Parker, by whom she was given in mar riage. She wore a handsome suit of navy marleen, trimmed with grey squirrel and accessories to match, and carried a shower bouquet of orchids, Bride's roses and
