The Camden Journal.

PUBLISHED every Thursday, at Camden, S. C., is the oldest-established paper in Kershaw county, and has an extensive circulation among the Merchants, Farmers and all classes of business men in the county. It offers to the Merchants of Wilmington a desirable medium for advertising, the country in which it circulates, being connected with that city by steamer on the Wateree river, and the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Liberal terms will be made with those desiring to advertise. Subscription price $2 50 per annum. Address FRANTHAM & HAY.

Editors and Proprietors. The Landmark.

PUBLISHED at Statesville, Iredell. Co., N. C., is the leading Newspaper in Western North Carolina.

It is the only Democratic paper published in Iredell county-one of the largest and wealthiest counties in the State-and has at tained a larger local circulation than any paper ever heretofore published in the county.

Its circulation in Alexander, Wilkes, Ashe, Atleghany, Yadkin, Davie and Iredell, is larger than that of any two papers in the State combined, and is rapidly acquiring a strong foothold in Forsythe, Surry, Rowan and western Mecklenburg.

It is the only paper in Western North Caro-lina that employs a Regular Canvassing Agent, and is thus kept constantly before the people. Under this system a rapidly increasing circulation is the result, making the Landmark the best advertising medium in Western North Carolina.

ON or before the first of December, the RE-CORD will be issued as a thirty-two col-umn paper, at a subscription price of $2 per annum; $1,25 for six moeths; 75 cents for three months, invariably in advance, No name will be entered on the subscrption books until the MONEY IS PAID, nor will any be continued after the time expires. This rule will be strictly adhered to. Those now aubscribers will receive the RECORD until their time expires.

The paper will be printed on a good Wash; ington press, which always does its work nicely and completely; so there will be no cause of complaint because of bad printing. The intention is to make it a good family and literary newspaper. Something will be found each week to instruct, please and improve all classes; nothing to injure any. Its moral tone will be guarded with very great

What polities is has will be of its present type. It will be impossible for it to be otherwise, so long as its present editor controls

It will give the latest news from every quarter and faithful market reports.

Its columns will be open to original contributions and communications, subject, of course, to the approval of the editor. Its local news will be full and as interesting as it can be made.

Subscriptions received and the present Record sent to all now suscribing extra.

The editor greatly regrets that he has been forced to run the paper as at present, although he has done the best he could, and feels sure the public and his friends will excuse him. He did all he could to procure a press, but failed to do sooner than about the first of December, when the Record will be issued in such form and style as that we one issued in such form and style as that no one who feels an interest in it shall be ashamed

Full justice shall be done all advertisers. J. N. STALLINGS, Editor and Proprietor. Respectfully,

The number for January begins the nine teenth volume of this Magazine, and while its past record will it is hoped be deemed a sufficent guarantee of future excellence, no effort will be spared to diversify its attractions, and to provide an increased supply of POPULAR READING IN THE BEST

AND MOST EMPHATIC SENSE.

The great object and constant aim of the conductors will be to farnish the public with Literary Entertainment of a Refined and Varied Chapter, as well as to present in a graphic and strikingmanner the most recent information and soundest view on subjects of General Intrest; in a word to render Lippincott's Magazine strikingly distinctive in

THOSE FEATURES THAT ARE MOST ATTRACTIVE IN MAGAZINE LITERATURE.

The contributions now on hand, or specially engaged, embrace a highly attractive list of Tales, Short Stories, Descriptive Sketches, Narratives, Papers on Science and Art, Poems, Popular Essays, Lit-erary Criticisms, Etc., Etc., BY TALENTED AND WELL KNOWN

WRITERS. A large proportion of the articles, especially those descriptive of travel, will be PROFUSELY AND BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED. The pictorial embelishments of the Magazine constitute one of its attractive features.

In addition to the General Attractions of Lippincott's Magazine, the Publishers would invite attention to the following
