NEWS SUMMARY.
In the Senate yesterday a bill was introduced forbidding the use of stoves in passenger cars. Everything quiet in New Orleans and there is no change in the situation. The French steamer America, which went ashore at Long Branch, is 12 feet deep in sand, but nevertheless they are trying to save her. The ship Sinla, which was stranded about five miles south of Barnegat, is gone to pieces. The Powers are getting impatient and it is said that an attempt will be presented to the Porte Monday. Russia is still actively engaged in warlike preparations. Heros was at the bar of the House yesterday and they are not through with him yet. The Revolutionists in New Orleans had another ineffectual ballot yesterday for a bogus Senator. The committee on counting the electoral vote began their session yesterday, but nothing definite has yet transpired. The Grand Duke Alexis has arrived at Norfolk. The Porte is closing some of its ports and forbidding the exportation of grain. Lucille Western, the actress, died. Slavin & Cain, dry goods dealers, Louisville, have gone into liquidation, liabilities $160,000. A fire at Backport, N. Y., caused by the explosion of a kerosene lamp, burned the old Methodist church, with other buildings; $40,000. The thermometer at Watertown, N. Y., at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, indicated two degrees below zero, a change of fifty degrees in ten days. A Gloucester (Mass.) dispatch, dated January 11th, reports that the schooners of the fishing fleet from that port were missing, and doubtless lost, and the crews probably perished. The New York papers continue to devote three columns of each issue to the May affair. Johnsbury, Vt., had a big fire on the 11th. The laboring men had a huge caucus on the 10th in New York, when Jackson was denounced as a monarchist and the opinion was voted unanimously that Tilden had been legally elected. Sargent Brothers & Co., of Boston, failed, with liabilities $167,000 and assets $242,000; David A. Patch, a lawyer, has also failed and for $125,000. It is estimated that the French surplus for 1876 will be 6,000,000 francs.

SENATE.
THURSDAY, JAN. 11.
Mr. Troy, from the joint committee on judicial institutions to investigate the management of the penitentiary, submitted a report with accompanying documents. On motion of Mr. Robinson the report accompanied by documents were sent to the House with a proposition to print. Bill to incorporate the Rutherford & Hartwood Railroad. (Proposes that the company shall have a capital stock of more than $500,000, and shall run from the town of Rutherford to a point on the South Carolina line in the direction of Hartwood.) The committee to which was referred proposed an amendment providing that the State shall have the power to change the gauge of this road when it shall see fit. The bill passed its second and third readings, and was ordered to be engrossed and set to the House. Bill for the improvement and reclamation of certain swamp lands in Onslow county. (Proposes to give to the New River Canal company one half of the lands for draining all.) Mr. Finger, the chairman of the committee on Education, to which this bill was referred, argued in behalf of the passage of the bill, holding that this seemed the only feasible plan for bringing these lands into market and making them valuable to the State. Upon motion of Mr. Cabo, the bill was postponed and made special order for Friday next, at 12 o'clock. Resolution in reference to the lease of the North Carolina railroad. (Raises a committee to ascertain if the Richmond & Danville railroad have given sufficient security for the payment of the interest on the bonds.) Adopted.

Lots of "peck mullets" come to market now, only five cents a bunch or three for ten cents.
Good beef is scarce and high in this market now and they are asking 16¢ cents for choice cuts.

Schr. Hattie Turner, from this port for Portland, Me., arrived at Vineyard Haven on the 10th inst.
If in conversation you think a person wrong rather hint at a difference of opinion than offer a contradiction.
It is easier for a bow-legged mule to go through a knot hole than for a man to wiggle into office through a returning board.
Some politicians seem to think that the constitution of the United States is an old fiddle on which any tune can be played.
Everett, the spiritualistic swindler, gulled the Charlotte on Thursday night. The Observer damns him with some very faint praise.
It is in bloom now—the little crocus, which wants to hocus-pocus us into believing that Spring is almost here, while in fact Winter has but just begun.
Happiness comes and goes like the flowers of spring, and a boy no sooner finds where the preserve jar is hidden than his mother totes it away to another corner.
Medical men say that when a man is full of whiskey he can't freeze, and appearances last week indicated that a number of our citizens expected an awful cold snap.
If you hate your enemies you will contract such a vicious habit of mind as by degrees will break out upon those who are your friends, or those who are indifferent to you.
The beginning of a new year is a critical period in every young man's life. If he swears off on cigars and lager the great danger is that he will go to the other extreme of keeping a diary.
Some of the groggeries in town retail their stuff at five cents a drink and those who take it talk of getting up a corner and bulging it down to three cents—the ante-bellum price for rot-gut.
The cook house on the Norwegian barque Svanild, lying at the foot of Ann street, took fire yesterday afternoon. There was a big scare for a little while but no damage was done and nobody was hurt.
In the Supreme Court on Thursday, the Commissioners of Union county vs. Carolina Central Railway Company was argued. Merrimon, Fuller & Ashe for plaintiffs. Col. Robert Strange for defendant.
The water in the river is getting lower although there is still plenty of it left for present needs and requirements and there is a prospect of a still further rise from the melted snow and ice in the interior.
Let those who are appointed to judge of the characters of others bear in mind their own imperfections, and rather strive by sympathy to soften the pangs arising from a conviction of guilt, than by misrepresentation to increase it.
Into a saucepan put a large lump of butter and a small onion finely chopped, and when the onion is fried to an amber color throw in slices of cold boiled potatoes, which must be thoroughly stirred until they are turning brown. At this moment put in a spoonful of finely chopped parsley, and as soon as it is cooked drain through a colander, so that the potatoes retain the moisture of the butter and many particles of the parsley. Thus you may have Lyonnaise potatoes.

Ordered to Pay.
We understand that His Honor, Judge McKoy, a few days since, at Chambers, issued an order to the C. C. R. W. requiring the payment of deferred wages due employes previous and since the passing of the road into the hands of the Receivers. It is said that this will be done by the road now without embarrassment to its present operations.
Abroad in the Land.
The hog is abroad in the land and is already preparing the flower gardens in this city for a spring crop of roots and bulbs for his benefit. He depredated to a considerable extent last night and will probably prepare for a continuance to-night. Let those who have gardens look out for him and increase his marketable weight by the addition of a few ounces of lead. An ordinance of the city is against hogs running at large.
Export Table.
We have been favored with a glimpse of the proof sheet of the Annual Export Table prepared by Col. John L. Cantwell, Secretary of the Produce Exchange, which is now ready for delivery to subscribers. It has been a vast undertaking and one which involved any amount of careful labor and precise compilations. We doubt if as correct a one has ever before been presented to the mercantile public of Wilmington. It is not sold by the sheet but furnished only to subscribers, who will receive a liberal supply of copies.
A Sad Accident.
A telegram received here yesterday afternoon conveyed the sad tidings of the accidental shooting of Robby Cronly, son of M. Cronly, Esq., of this city, near Laurinburg, where he is on a visit to some of his relatives. Dispatches received this morning state that the right collar bone of the unfortunate lad is very badly shattered and fears are entertained that the shot have penetrated his right lung. The parents, accompanied by Dr. W. J. H. Bellamy, took the train for Laurinburg this morning where they arrived about one o'clock.

The New Three Cent Stamp.

By about the middle of next May the public will have seen the last of the present three cent postage stamp, and begin to get accustomed to one that is red, or possibly a new tint. This change has been rendered necessary, as stamp-washers take off the oily cauculation without acid or alkali and use the stamp again. A series of experiments just completed convinces the postal department that green is the poorest color to be found. With the change of color there will be a change of design. The medallion head of Washington will be retained, but it will be relieved by an open scroll of white, and the scroll-work will have a different pattern.
Let Us Have It.
The article in yesterday's REVIEW relative to the extension of the street railway to the Sound, has excited more or less comment, and has developed the fact of an almost universal desire for its construction. We do not know the cost of such an undertaking but think that, if the right kind of man would undertake it, the necessary amount of additional stock could be secured. It has been suggested that the latter might be accomplished by placing the par value of the shares at a low figure, say at $20 per share and that one-fourth and one-half shares be taken and that there be a provision by which the shares may be redeemed in part or in which, in one or more years, by fare for travel over the road. The poor people in this city, one of whom we are which, would hail with satisfaction the prospect of so desirable a consummation and would probably take a large proportion of the stock. Who will lay hold of this enterprise and start it going?
Superior Court.
The following cases were called in this Court this morning:
State vs. Button Pantou. Case continued.
State vs. Ephraim Smith, on a peace warrant. Case dismissed on payment of costs by defendant.
State vs. Robert Dasher, for bastardy. Judgment nisi.
State vs. Henry Newkirk, for larceny. Jury out.
Alderman Gardner makes a splendid Mayor pro temp. in everything but good looks.
In this age of education and general intelligence the household is hardly complete without a Cornish & Co. Piano or Organ. Read the advertisement in another column, and then send for illustrated catalogue and price list.

"Indications" promise us cold weather for the close of the day. Our clothes have been uncomfortably warm of late.
Omit that, the Journal is to be revived next week by Mr. Harris, of the Cape Fear.
We learn from the morning papers that the Cornet Concert Club will give a concert at the Opera House in this city next Tuesday evening, for the benefit of the Orphan Asylum at Oxford. It will be under the direction of Prof. Von Laer.
