CAROLINA.

Shelby cries out aloud for more horse room. Col. Thomas Webb has a paralytic stroke. There were 4,000 fish brought to Newbern in one boat the other day. Prof. Hartley reads in Raleigh to-morrow for the benefit of the Orphans. A man in Shelby has 15,000 gallons of wine for sale, of his own manufacture. Mr. Samuel R. Fowle, father of Judge Fowle, died in Washington last Saturday. A brand new bird's eye view of Charlotte is being taken now by some map builders. And now it is to Vance county and Wayne, Lenoir and Duplin are expected to contribute. The ice on New River in Ashe county was so thick that the mountaineers ran horse races on it. The Shelby Sunny Side speaks of "the mantle of snow spread on the earth like a warm blanket." Gov. Vance has commissioned Edward F. Cary, No. 54 Wall street, New York, a commissioner of affidavits. Three Raleighites hunted in Granville county and brought home 123 birds, 125 rabbits, 2 opossums and 1 turkey gobbler. W. R. Lindsey has been nominated as Senator from Rockingham to fill the vacancy caused by Dr. Winchester's death. Three families of German immigrants arrived at Ridgeway, on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, last Saturday and settled. Rev. C. W. Everest, clergyman and author, died last Thursday at Waterbury, Ct. He married a daughter of the late Peter Mallett, of Fayetteville. The Concord Register says: On Tuesday morning, 9th, the gin building of Mrs. Martha Black, on the old South Carolina road, and its surroundings, together with about fifteen bales of seed cotton, were consumed. The State Auditor on Monday issued a warrant in favor of the University at Chapel Hill for $3,750, the semi-annual interest on the Congressional donation from the land grant for the support of an agricultural college in this State. Gov. Vance has appointed Dr. T. D. Hogg, Major Seaton Gales, Messrs. J. M. Betts, Chas. D. Hearty, Jas. J. Litchford, H. S. Tucker and John R. Williams, all Raleighites, Directors for the Asylum for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind. The Charlotte Observer says: Notwithstanding the heaviest snow storms and severest cold for about twenty years the store house of Sossamon & Co., (late Democratic headquarters of the Tilden and Vance club) and the Masonic Temple, both of which were burned down a few days before the election, are being rapidly re-built.

A. SMITH—Rare Bargains. JOHN H. ALLEN—Watchmaker and Jeweler. OLD CLARENDON—The Best Bar in the City. C. D. MYERS & Co.—Proof! Proof! JAS. HEATON, C. S. C.—Court Calendar. The burglars laid low last night. America has more princes than any other country. Steamship Raleigh is due here from Baltimore to-morrow. The Grand Duke looks very much like any other gentleman. No conflict is so severe as his who labors to subdue himself. Every man our collector called on yesterday had just paid a draft. Adalaine Nelson plays in Norfolk next Monday and Tuesday. Out of every thousand persons born, only ninety-five weddings take place. Steamship Benefactor, Jones, from this port arrived at New York on Monday. Steamship Gulf Stream, Tibbon, cleared from New York on Monday for this port. Words of a dying man: "Write me down as one who loved his fellow men." Steamship Regulator, Deane, from this port, arrived at New York on Saturday. Ger. barque Violet, Rogartz, sailed from Helvoet, last Sunday, for this port. Schr. Annie Lewis, Ablich, from this port, arrived at Demerara on the 10th ult. Sailed from Royan, near Bordeaux, on the 28th, Nor. barque Spect, Olsen, for this port. Br. Schr. Addie and Nellie, Cameron, sailed on the 6th inst. for this port, from Matanzas. When you are in Rome do as the Romans do, and when you are to go do as the Tujins do. Large gangs of colored laborers have passed here recently going Southward, chiefly for Florida. Steamship Regulator, Deane, cleared from New York on Monday for Matanzas City and Wilmington. There were four robberies, last night—of chicken coops—near the intersection of Eighth and Campbell streets. Schr. Luola Murchison, from Galveston for Boston, via this port, arrived at Vineyard Haven on the 12th inst. Mr. Spurgeon was once asked how he filled his church, and replied that he never attempted to do such a thing. He considered it his duty to fill his pulpit, and the people filled his church. It may be accepted as a maxim that, to a man of an aesthetic nature no woman ever looks lovely while in the act of flattening her nose against the window of a horse car, in order to catch a glimpse of a dog fight. Yesterday's Raleigh News says: Rev. Fathers Gross and White, of Wilmington, will be in this city to-morrow. They will go from here to Greensboro to participate in the ceremony of blessing the new Catholic Church there. The Raleigh News in speaking of last Sunday's services says: At Christ Church, Rev. Geo. Patterson preached two excellent sermons; one in the morning and the other in the afternoon. He preached Sunday evening at the Church of the Good Shepherd.

The Hop To-Night.

Arrioso Hop No. 6 to-night at Meggin Hall. Doors open until 9 o'clock when the performance will commence. Should it rain carriages will be found at the Hall.

The Older Set.

The old men, that is to say the old bachelors of various ages, say from twenty five to fifty-five, will have a Hop at the City Hall on next Wednesday evening. They are in earnest this time and we know whereof we speak when we say beforehand that it will be one of the most pleasant hops of the season.

Those Burglaries.

Our remarks yesterday relative to the burglary evil have excited much comment in all sections of the city, and we understand there is some serious talk of organizing a volunteer patrol for the purpose of endeavoring to catch some of the scoundrels. We believe that this is the most efficient method of dealing with the evil.

Superior Court.

The Superior Court was engaged to-day on the civil docket and no criminal cases were called. The criminal docket will be taken up again to-morrow when the cases on the calendar as published in this issue of our paper, will be taken up.

Caught in the Act.

Mr. W. M. Monroe, proprietor of the meat store on Fourth street, near Boney Bridge, this morning detected one Sandy Alexander Patterson, colored, in the act of stealing some sausages from his store. He laid violent hands on the thief and kept him until a policeman could be summoned when he was taken to the guard house and locked up for a hearing before the Mayor to-morrow.

He Will Do It!

At this morning's session of the City Court, Mayor Canaday responded to the remarks in yesterday's REVIEW on the burglar question and the police, announcing to the force that they must put a stop to the burglaries which have been committed so freely of late, and reasserting it as his intention to discharge every man on the force if it is not done. This not only applies to the regular policemen on guard duty, but to the entire force, including officers, health officers and detectives.

The Thermometer.

From the United States Signal Office at this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morning at 7:31 o'clock: Augusta, 54; Charleston, 57; Cincinnati, 30; Jacksonville, 62; Key West, 72; Knoxville, 42; Lynchburg, 40; Memphis, 33; Mobile, 54; Montgomery, 56; Nashville, 34; New Orleans, 53; New York, 26; Norfolk, 29; Pittsburg, 27; Savannah, 60; St. Louis, 55; Washington, 34; Wilmington, 55.

The Fire This Morning.

A little after 6 o'clock this morning the alarm of fire was sounded. It was caused by the burning of the turpentine distillery at Point Peter, opposite the upper portion of the city, owned by Messrs. Alderman & Bro. The loss is between $1,000 and $1,200, on which there was no insurance, and comprised three turpentine stills and fixtures with about 100 barrels of resin near the stills. The disaster was caused by the running over of the charge in one of the stills. The fire department was out but the Little Giant was the only engine that was carried over.

City Court.

Before the Mayor this morning: Jane Blackman, disorderly conduct, judgment suspended on payment of costs or 10 days in prison. Eva Harriss, same offence, and the same judgment. Rose Jackson, disorderly, $10 and costs or 30 days in prison. Susan Frank, disorderly, judgment suspended on payment of costs or 10 days in prison. Evelyn Gibbs, disorderly, $5 and costs or 15 days in prison. James Brown, cursing and quarreling in Hussell's store, $10 and costs or 30 days work on the streets. Daniel Chadwick, charged with the same offence, case dismissed. James Brown, breaking two panes of glass in Hussell's Store, $10 and costs or 30 days work on the streets. If the young lady you are walking with should dive wildly for the lower flounce of her dress, don't imagine she has sprained her ankle. It is only her handkerchief in that new-fangled pocket down there.

Supreme Court Decisions.

Among the decisions filed in the Supreme Court on Monday, are the following:

By Pearson, C. J.: H. Korregay, Administrator, &c, vs. John D. Spicer, from Duplin. No error in the order continuing the injunction until the hearing.

By Bynum, J.: John H. Threadgill, from Anson. Error. Venue de novo. By Faircloth, J.: Commissioners of Union county vs. Carolina Central Railway company, from Union. Affirmed.

Dedication at Greensboro.

Next Sunday is the day set apart for the dedication of the Catholic Church at Greensboro, which has just been completed. The dedicatory ceremonies are to be very elaborate, and of a very interesting character. They will be conducted by Bishop Gibbons, of the Diocese of Virginia and North Carolina, assisted, probably, by Bishop Lynch, of South Carolina, and ten or twelve Priests of this State, among them Messrs. Gross and White.

The Masquerade.

The Masquerade Bill given at the City Hall last night under the direction of Mr. James M. Brown, is reckoned as the most successful one of the series yet had here. The floor was full of masquers and spectators crowded the gallery as well as the seats on the floor. The costumes were rich and varied, betraying not only much adaptability in the selection of the characters but much taste and ingenuity in the arrangement of the costumes. The masks were removed somewhat earlier than is usual because of the warm room and from that moment out everybody knew who everybody else was. It is voted by those who were present to have been one of the most pleasant affairs ever known in the city and if Mr. Brown should conclude to repeat the experiment the last part of this month or early in February we believe that he would be fully satisfied with the result.

How to Get Fat.

For the benefit of the "light brigade" in this city we publish here the following from an exchange, which will inform them how they can "fat up": A pint of milk taken before retiring at night will cover the scrawniest bones. There are many lean and lank females who sigh for the fashionable measure of plumpness, and who would be vastly improved in health could their figures be rounded with good, solid flesh. Nothing is more coveted by thin women than a full figure, and nothing provokes the scandal of one of the "clipper builds" as the consciousness of plumpness in a rival. In cases of fever and summer complaints, milk is now given with excellent results. The idea that milk is feverish has exploded. It is a great mistake to scrimp the milk pitcher.

In this age of education and general intelligence the household is hardly complete without a Cornish & Co. Piano or Organ. Read the advertisement in another column, and then send for illustrated catalogue and price list. Jan 8.

DIED.

SATCHWELL.—Near Rocky Point, in Pender county, on the 13th of January, 1877, after a severe and protracted sickness, Mrs. ANN V. SATCHWELL, wife of Dr. S. S. Satchwell, of that place, aged 51 years. Her piety was unobtrusive, humble and consistent; and though her illness was protracted through wearisome months and oftentimes peculiarly trying because of excessive pain, it was borne without a murmur. While the same grace which enabled her to "kiss the rod" which was laid upon her person, strengthened her heart to say "Thy will be done," in causing separation from all the endearments of a happy home, a husband's love and a mother's care for her children—care especially needed, at their tender age; for the Master had said, "Leave thy fatherless for motherless children; I will preserve them alive;" her whole life was a study in the most intimate, "sorrow not as others who have no hope."
