NEWS SUMMARY.

The Western Union Company will provide all political telegrams and the managers will be discharged. — It is generally believed that the report of the Electoral College Committee will become a law. — Russia has a good chance now to elect a Senator from Congress, has elected United States Senator from Massachusetts over Big Belly Boutwell. — Boggy and Sherman had a bout yesterday on Louisiana, in which the gallant Boggy was victorious. — Eades gets first half million for the Mississippi. — The Senate Committee has passed on Wednesday next. — James E. Bailey was elected Senator for short term, on the 73d ballot, in the House of Representatives. — The seventh of the Illinois Legislature. — Prof. Hartley will read in Raleigh on Monday night for the benefit of the orphans. — Somebody robbed Wilson county poor house last week. What godless ungodliness! They'll run afoul of a printing office next. — The Rocky Mount Mail has changed hands, W. H. Avera & Son becoming the purchasers. — Mr. Redmond Thorne, an aged and respected citizen of Nash county, died on the night of the 10th inst. — Mr. Richard H. Battle, mother and sister, after four years spent in Texas, have returned to Edgecombe to live. — The Atlantic Hotel, at Beaufort, which was so badly injured by a storm last summer, is to be repaired and put on a war footing again. — Mr. J. R. Morris, formerly editor of the Leaf and Plant in Charlotte, has turned up in Toronto, Canada, where he is telling everybody what a fine country North Carolina is for tobacco. — The Justices of the Supreme Court on Thursday held an election for a clerk and marshal of that tribunal. Maj. W. H. Bagley was re-elected and duly qualified as clerk, and David A. Wicker was re-elected Marshal. — The floor of Reams' new warehouse at Durham broke down last week, piecing several hogheads of tobacco and some of the Herald type, that paper having been published in the same building. — The Tarboro Southerner says: Mrs. Dorch, the mother of Hon. W. T. Dorch, of Goldsboro, aged ninety-three years, who has all her life resided in Nash county, about five miles from Rocky Mount, was removed to Goldsboro on Wednesday, and will spend the remainder of her days with her son. — The Rocky Mount Mail says: A terrible tragedy was enacted near Stanhope, in Nash county during the Christmas holidays. A young man by the name of Brantly, in order to shoot a Christmas gun bored an auger hole in a large tree, poured gunpowder in the hole, drove a grooved peg into it and then stuck fire to a string communicating to the powder. He ran off and awaited the explosion, but as no report came he ran to peep around the tree and if necessary refire the string, when just at that moment the fire reached the powder. The explosion came and the peg flew out, striking young Brantly in the throat, passing through and killing him instantly.

General Assembly.

SENATE, Thursday, Jan. 18. — Cunningham stated that at the request of Mr. F. M. Jones, the attorney for the State, he submitted a memorial and bondholders, which was referred to the committee on State debt. — Troy, from the special committee appointed to investigate the management of the Western Insane Asylum, submitted a report which was read and transmitted to the House with a proposition to print. — Finger: Bill to extend the jurisdiction of the Peace, referred to committee on the judiciary. — One of New Hanover, (colored); for the protection of rattle snakes, referred to the committee on propositions. — One of Bertie, (colored); Bill for protection of benevolent societies, referred to the committee on propositions.

LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements. — A. SHERIER—Rare Bargains. — JOSEPH DENCK—Tuning and Repairing Pianos. — VANCE—The Best. — BENNETT & FITCH—Prime Enjoyment for a Year. — OPERA HOUSE—Concert. — T. C. DeRosset—Insurance Company. — See new ads. on fourth page. — The storm signal is aloft again to-day. — Superior Court closes to-day the second week of the Term. — The fog last night was "almost thick enough to cut with a butter knife." — The Register of Deeds last week issued marriage licenses to one white and one colored couple. — The atmosphere last night was full of doctor's bills and to-day is pretty, clear and Spring-like. — Nor. Larque Felice, cleared to-day for Liverpool by Messrs. Williams & Murchison, takes out 980 bales of cotton. — Rev. George Patterson will be in Hillsboro to-morrow where he will probably preach at St. Matthew's Church. — The box sheet for Haverly's Minstrels is now open at Heinesberger's, where seats may be secured for the performance on Monday night. — An attempt was made last night to effect an entrance into the residence of Mr. Prigge, on the corner of Second and Dock streets.

The Grand Jury were discharged to-day.

Only a dollar seventy-five for a pair of shad. — There was but one internment, and that a child, in Oakdale Cemetery this week. — The glory of the season has departed. Chickens were selling this morning for 25 to 30 cents; turkeys for 75 cents to $1. — There have been but two internments in Oakdale this year—in twenty days—and doctor's horses are looking scraggy. — Theatre performances should be held on an open prairie, and then there would be no danger from fire and not half the wickedness behind the scenes. — The fog was so thick last night that any one leaning against the lamp post corner of Second and Chestnut streets could not see any light overhead. — Some men are like cats. You may stroke the fur the right way for years and hear nothing but purring; but accidentally tread on the tail and all memory of former kindness is obliterated. — We are glad to announce that Col. S. L. Fremont who had the misfortune to break his leg during the Christmas week, is rapidly improving and will soon be out again. — Steamship Regulator sailed this morning for New York. The Gulf Stream will follow to-morrow, and the Benefactor on Monday. Three New York steamers in three days. — See advertisement of Mr. Joseph Denck, of Columbia, S. C., who is here for the purpose of repairing and tuning pianos, organs, melodions, &c. Orders to be left at Heinesberger's or Jewett's. — We understand that a petition is now in circulation in Brooklyn petitioning the Legislature to make all that portion of the city north of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad a separate municipality. — Attention is called to the double column advertisement of the very handsome exhibit made in the annual statement of the Aetna Fire Insurance Company of Hartford, of which Mr. T. C. DeRosset is agent here. — How's London circus was levied on at Augusta under attachment of the United States. The circus and menagerie are now in charge of the Sheriff and will be sold on the 29 inst. The employees were paid off, and left for home. — See new advertisement of Mr. J. T. Vann's Tobacco Store, No. 34 Market Street. His five cent cigars are a specialty, and having tried them, we are prepared to say that they are better than many we have smoked which cost double the money. — The Same Bones. — The Steamship Gulf Stream, now in this port, was once the North Carolina, which with the Parkersburg traded to this port just prior to the war. She has gone through a good deal of rebuilding, but the old bones, as staunch as ever, are there yet. — Schedule B and C. — There are many merchants here who are yet indebted for the Schedule B and C tax, which was due and payable on the 1st instant, and these are urged to come forward at once and pay up this tax. It will prove the cheapest plan in the end as it will save costs which will eat up more of the profits of business than interest will. — Arrived Up. — Dutch brig Constance, Capt. Hollis, which went ashore on Sunday last near Bald Head and got off again on Thursday, arrived up at the city to-day, but the Captain had not come ashore at the time of our closing, and we have therefore no information as to the damages sustained beyond the loss of a portion of her cargo. — City Court. — The captured bags of shot spoken of by us yesterday are thought to have been stolen from Messrs. Binford, Crow & Co. The thieves, George Fox, alias George Thompson and Salem Bensley, both colored, were brought in by the police and were this morning taken before the Mayor who sent them to the Superior Court for trial. — Fifth Ward Meeting. — A meeting of the citizens of the Fifth Ward is called for next Monday evening, the 23d inst., to be held at Sharp's store, on Queen, between Fourth and Fifth streets, at 7 1/2 o'clock. Business of importance is to be transacted and every Democrat in the ward is earnestly invited to be present.

EDITOR REVIEW.

—In your paper July 6th, 1876, is a poem entitled "The Old Canoe," which is one of the most exquisite gems I have ever seen. I enclose it with the request that you republish it for the benefit of several I know of who would like to see it in print again. Can you or any of your readers tell me who is the author of it? — Yours respectfully, P. — As requested, we republish the poem on the third page of this issue, and would be glad to hear from any one who is able to give us the name of the author. — For the Review. — There will be a meeting of this Club on Monday 22d inst., at 7 1/2 o'clock, P. M. to take into consideration the recent action of the Executive Committee of the Central Club in regard to the City Government. All Democrats of the Ward are invited to attend, as a full meeting is desired, and all Democrats who are not too weak to stand up to the rack, and who desire to counteract what the Committee have done are also cordially invited. — Rally, Democrats and let not your voice be stifled once more unto the breach, and all is well. — Newspaperial. — Messrs. J. H. & W. L. Thorp have sold the Rocky Mount Mail to Messrs. W. H. & H. D. Avera, who will hereafter conduct it. We part with the Messrs. Thorp with regret, and wish the new proprietors much success in their venture. — The first issue of the Express, a new and lively paper, the publication of which has just been begun at Wilson, is now before us, with Messrs. Woodson, Ellis & Newman as proprietors; Woodson being the chief corner stone. It is hardly necessary for us to say to them how heartily we wish them well. — Vance and the Colored Folks. — It is a mistake to suppose that the colored folks do not read the newspapers. Nearly all of the more intelligent among them can read now and those who do not, get children to read to them and so keep well informed on the current topics of the day, especially those of a political nature. It is a fact that Governor Vance's message has been read by them very extensively and it is a further fact, and a very gratifying one, to know that they comment warmly on the contents of that paper, and feel grateful for the kindly interest which he has manifested in their prosperity and advancement. Vance has led where all may follow and to the lasting benefit of both races. — For the Orphans. — The Concert for the benefit of the Orphans is to take place at the Opera House in this city on next Tuesday evening, and two rehearsals have been appointed, one for this evening at 8 o'clock and the other for Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, when those who are to take part are requested to be present promptly at the hour indicated. The indications now are that it will prove a rare musical treat and this, coupled with the fact that the proceeds of the entertainment are for the benefit of those who appeal so strongly to the finest sympathies of our nature, should ensure one of Wilmington's largest audiences. The box sheet is now open at Heinesberger's Music Store. — Scribner For February. — The February Scribner opens with "Trout-Fishing in the Rangeley Lakes." The article is full of pictures and deals with a region new to the general public. The second part of General McClellan's "Winter on the Nile" contains a well-written description of the passage of the Cataracts, with sketches and pictures of Nubian life. A third illustrated paper is a study by E. S. Nadai, of "White of Selborne." There is also a popular science article on "The Microscope among the Flowers." The two serials are continued, each with a picture. "In Dr. Holland's 'Nicholas Minturn' the scene shifts to New York City and the 'Pop-corn man' re-appears; in 'That Lass o' Lowrie's' by Mrs. Burnett (whose the publishers say is winning hosts of friends), the plot of the story is at its climax. — Of the unillustrated papers, we note "A Morning with Sir Julius Benedict," "Traditional Music of the French Pyrenees," "Farragut in Mobile Bay," "How do I know what is the Bible?" "How Mr. Storm met his Destiny," and the first half of a new novelette in two parts by Saxe Holm, "Farmer Bassett's Romance." The poetry in the number is excellent as are also the editorials.

Probably a Hoax.

The report published in yesterday's REVIEW and in the morning papers to-day to the effect that Mr. F. M. Jones had been found murdered on the Sound, is probably all a hoax gotten up by somebody who wanted to create a sensation. Neither the family here nor the Coroner have heard anything more relative to the matter. — Sunday Services. — Worship in the various churches of the city to-morrow as follows: — ST. PAUL'S (EVANG.) LUTHERAN CHURCH, Corner of Sixth and Market streets, Rev. G. D. Bernheim pastor. Preparatory service (English) at 10 1/2 a m; English service and Communion at 11 a m; German service at 7 1/2 p m.
