COME AT LAST.
CHARLES G. HARTSFIELD takes pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Wilmington, that he has permanently located here and is ready to take orders for Tuning and Repairing Pianos and Organs. Mr. Hartsfield has had 24 years of experience in his profession. Parties will find it to their advantage to employ one who is a practical Piano maker. Particular attention will be given to Renovating Old Instruments thoroughly. Work will be done on the most reasonable terms. References satisfactory can be given. Tuning by the year and Pianos kept in tune throughout the whole year, so that performers will not have to wait six months, and play two-thirds of the year on a Piano more or less out of tune, and money will be saved by so doing.
 Office on Second street over James & Brown's, or orders may be left at his residence corner Mulberry and Second sts. Jan 22

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate.
 BY VIRTUE OF THE POWER OF SALE contained in a certain Indenture of Mortgage made by John T. Wilkings and Mary C. Wilkings, his wife, to Luhr Vollers, bearing date the 17th day of December, A. D., 1875, and recorded in the Register's office of New Hanover county, in Book "M. M. M." at pages 34, 35 and 36, I will, as the Attorney of the said Luhr Vollers, expose to sale by public auction, for cash, on Tuesday the 6th day of February, A. D. 1877, at 12 M., at the Court House door in the said City of Wilmington, the following lot, piece or parcel of land situated and being in the said City of Wilmington, county of New Hanover and State of North Carolina, and bounded and described as follows:
 Beginning eighty-two and one-half (82½) feet East of the Western intersection of Queen and Ninth streets, and running thence along the line of Queen street, East eighty-two and one-half (82½) feet, thence North, parallel with Ninth street, sixty-six feet, thence West, parallel with Queen street eighty-two and one-half feet, thence South, parallel with Ninth street sixty-six feet to the beginning; the same being a part of the western half of Lot No. 6, in Block No. 81, according to the official plan of the said City of Wilmington.

THE NEW YORK LEDGER
FOR THE NEW YEAR, 1877.
 The New York Ledger, now one year older, but ever new, reminds its readers that the season has arrived for the renewal of their annual subscriptions.
 Many of those who were children, when they first began to read the Ledger now have children of their own who read their favorite paper. There could hardly be a stronger testimonial to the excellence of its character than is thus given to the Ledger by the regular renewal of these subscriptions.
 Our great exertion for the coming year will be to make a volume that will compare favorably with the best of its predecessors.
 The Ledger is always alive and fresh and full of interest.
 The stories for the coming year will be by the most popular of our old writers and the best of the new writers who have occasionally contributed to our columns.
 The miscellaneous articles by eminent scholars and divines will be continued so will our accurate scientific department.
 We shall reply, as heretofore, to the innumerable questions sent to us on love and domestic affairs, and every variety of subject.
 Wherever the Ledger goes—and it goes nearly everywhere—it is generally conceded there is not a reader to whose happiness it does not minister.
 Our subscribers will have no postage to pay. We prepay the postage on every paper that we mail!
OUR TERMS FOR 1877.—POSTAGE FREE
 Single copies, $3 per annum, four copies, $10, which is $2.50 a copy; eight copies, $20, postage free. The party who sends us $20 for a club of eight copies, (all sent at one time,) will be entitled to a copy free. Postmasters and others who get up clubs, in their respective towns, can afterwards add single copies at $2.50. No subscriptions taken for a less period than one year. When a draft or money order can conveniently be sent, it will be preferred, as it will prevent the possibility of the loss of money by mail. Remember that the postage on the Ledger to all parts of the country will be paid by us, so that our subscribers will have no postage to pay.
 We employ no travelling agents. Address all communications to

The Reading Public are respectfully informed that it shall be the constant aim of the proprietor to furnish them with
A LIVE NEWSPAPER,
 containing the latest news of the day, and endeavoring to keep its readers fully informed in regard to events of interest and importance occurring in every quarter of the world,
OUR DAILY MARKET REPORTS
 Will be full and correct, and will be kept open until the latest possible moment. Merchants in the city and country may rest assured that they will be thoroughly reliable.
The News Columns
 Will contain the reports, both of news and markets, received here each day at noon, and the LOCAL DEPARTMENT
 Has been placed in careful and experienced hands. Friends in the section of country connected with this city, will greatly oblige the Editor, and will contribute additional interest to these columns by forwarding any items of news that may occur in their respective localities.
ALL CORRESPONDENCE,
 On matters of general interest will be gladly received, but our friends must bear in mind that they must write only on one side of the paper; that they must forbear unseemly verbiage; must correct their own manuscript and must avoid abusive personalities. A reliable name must be furnished with each communication, as the Editor will not be held accountable for the views or language of correspondents.
OUR SUBSCRIPTION LIST,
 Even before a type was set for the first issue, was an exceedingly flattering one, and is probably the largest bona fide list with which any newspaper in North Carolina ever before began publication, and is now rapidly on the increase, especially on the various railroad lines.

SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY.
 AN UNRIVALED ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE
 When Scribner issued its famous Midsummer Holiday Number in July, a friendly critic said of it: "We are not sure but that Scribner has touched high-water mark. We do not see what worlds are left to it to conquer." But the publishers do not consider that they have reached the ultima thule of excellence—they believe "there are other worlds to conquer, and they propose to conquer them."
 The prospectus for the new volume gives the titles of more than fifty papers (mostly illustrated), by writers of the highest merit. Under the head of
"Foreign Travel,"
 we have "A winter on the Nile," by Gen. McClellan; "Santerings About Constantinople," by Charles Dudley Warner; "Out of My Window at Moscow," by Eugene Schuyler; "An American in Turkistan," etc. Three serial stories are announced:
Nicholas Minturn,
 By Dr. Holland, the Editor, whose story of "Sevenoaks" gave the highest satisfaction to the readers of the Monthly. The scene of this latest novel is laid on the banks of the Hudson. The hero is a young man who has been always "tied to a woman's apron strings," but who, by the death of his mother, is left alone in the world,—to drift on the current of life,—with a fortune, but without a purpose.
 Another serial, "His Inheritance," by Miss Trafton, will begin on the completion of "That Law of Lowrie's," by Mrs. Hodgson Burnett. Mrs. Barrett's story, begun in August, has a pathetic and dramatic power which have been a surprise to the public.
 There is to be a series of original and exquisitely illustrated papers of "Popular Science," by Mrs. Horrick, each paper complete in itself.
 There are to be, from various pens, papers on "Home Life and Travel."
 Also, practical suggestions as to town and country life, village improvements, etc., by well known specialists.
 Mr. Barnard's articles on various industries of Great Britain include the history of "Some Experiments in Co-operation," "A Spottish Loaf Factory" in the November number, and "Toad Lane, Rochdale," in December. Other papers are, "The British Workingman's Home," "A Nation of Shopkeepers," "A Penny a Week for the Child," etc.
 A richly illustrated series will be given on "American Sports and Fights," by various writers, and each on a different theme. The subject of "Household and Home Decoration" will have a prominent place, whilst the latest productions of American artists will appear from month to month. The list of shorter stories, biographical and other sketches, etc., is a long one.
 The editorial department will continue to employ the ablest pens both at home and abroad. There will be a series of letters on literary matters, from London, by Mr. Wellford.
 The pages of the magazine will be open, as heretofore, so far as limited space will permit, to the discussion of all themes affecting the social and religious life of the world, and especially to the freshest thought of the Christian thinkers and scholars of this country.
 We mean to make the magazine sweeter and purer, higher and nobler, more genial and generous in all its utterances, and infinitely more a welcome visitor than ever before in homes of refinement and culture.
FIFTEEN MONTHS for $4.
 Scribner for December, now ready, and which contains the opening chapters of "Nicholas Minturn," will be read with eager curiosity and interest. Perhaps no more readable number of this magazine has yet been issued. The three numbers of Scribner for August, September, and October, containing the opening chapters of "That Law of Lowrie's," will be given to every new subscriber (who requests it), and whose subscription begins with the November number.
 Subscription price, $4 a year—35 cents a number. Special terms on bonds volume.

A NEW FEATURE.
 To the 3,000 Illustrations heretofore in Webster's Unabridged, we have added four pages of Colored Illustrations, engraved expressly for the work at large expense.
 Nearly every State Superintendent of Public Instruction in the Union, or corresponding officer, where such an one exists, has recommended Webster's Dictionary in the strongest terms. Among them are those of Eastern, Northern, Middle, Southern, and Western States—TWENTY-EIGHT in all.
STATE PURCHASES.
 The State of NEW YORK has placed 10,000 copies of Webster's Unabridged in as many of her Public Schools.
 The State of WISCONSIN about 5,000—nearly every school.
 The State of NEW JERSEY 1,500—nearly every school.
 The State of MICHIGAN made provision for all her schools.
 The State of MASSACHUSETTS has supplied her schools—nearly all.
 The State of IOWA has supplied her schools.
 The State of CONNECTICUT has made provision for her schools.
 Over 3,000 schools in INDIANA were supplied during the year 1872, and many more in 1873 and 1874.
 In other States many copies have been purchased for supplying schools of cities, counties and towns.
 What better investment can be made for schools?
 More than TEN times as many are sold of Webster's Dictionaries, as of any other series in this country.
 At least FOUR-FIFTHS of all the school-books published in this country own Webster as their standard, and of the remainder few acknowledge ANY standard.
