whose story of "Sevenoaks" gave the highest satisfaction to the readers of the Monthly. The scene of this latest novel is laid on the banks of the Hudson. The hero is a young man who has been always "tied to a woman's apron strings," but who, by the death of his mother, is left some in the world, --to drift on the current of life, - with a fortune, but without a purpose. Another serial, "His Inheritance," by Miss Tratton, will begin on the completion of "That Lass o' Lowrie's," by Mrs. Hodgson Burnett.
