Forepaugh's circus is to be in Raleigh April 12th.
Rev. C. H. Wiley preached in Raleigh on Sunday.
More county has just contributed two colored convicts to the pen.
Hon. Kemp P. Battle was to have lectured at Lenoir yesterday.
Two new Sunday schools were organized in Wake county last Sunday.
The oldest resident of Raleigh, born and raised there, is only 74 years of age.
A young man by the name of Lindsay Day killed himself near Sandy Ridge, Stokes county, on Sunday, February 25th, by shooting himself with a gun.
Messrs. Jas. W. Wilson, of Burke, John S. Henderson, of Rowan, and J. S. Brown, of McDowell, all members of the House of Representatives, have been elected directors on the part of the private stockholders in the Western N. C. R. R.
The Monroe Enquirer says: Mr. G. P. Broom, of this place, killed a pig three months old, last Saturday, which weighed eighty-six pounds, neat. He fed it with the scraps from the table, which proves that cooked food is the best kind of food for making hogs grow and fatten rapidly.
The Raleigh Times says: A gentleman said at Barksdale's last Tuesday that Blackwell, at Durham, was willing to subscribe $50,000 to have the Milton and Southern Railroad extended to that town, and that the people in Granville county were willing to subscribe $100,000 to have the road go through their county. If once this road be started it will have plenty of bidders in the market for its extension.
The Charlotte Observer says: Maj. S. Watson Reid of this county, has presented us with an old Gazette, published in 1818 by J. E. Worcester, at Andover, Mass., which contains many facts of interest. Among other things it stated that Charlotte's population in 1800 had reached the remarkable number of 124. That of Salisbury was 600; Wilmington had 2,000; Raleigh, 1,000; Fayetteville, 1,656; while Hillsboro had 89 houses and Statesville 59 houses.
The Charlotte Observer says: It now seems somewhat likely that a compromise will be effected between the Monroe merchants and the Carolina Central Railroad. Capt. N. Q. Johnston, the Superintendent of the road, was in the city last night, and goes to Monroe this morning upon the invitation of the merchants to consult on the present very unpleasant relations between them and the railroad. This looks all the more like an overture of peace from the fact that it was claimed by the railroad that this course should have been taken before the peace was broken.
The New York Sun says: Rev. Henry Robinson Dickson, pastor of the First Reformed Church in Jerademon street, Brooklyn, died on Thursday night of pneumonia. He was born in North Carolina, and served as a minister in Yorkville, S. C., and Richmond, Va., until he was called to Brooklyn in 1875. He had three sons by his first wife, the eldest of them being 16 years old. Four years ago he married Miss Fanny Witherspoon of North Carolina, a grandniece of John Witherspoon, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. An infant son of this lady was buried a month ago. Mr. Dickson was 44 years old.

few months ago; have sunk four new pits over the vein, and will tunnel from one to another—they have raised a large pile of ore, which they say is worth fifty cents per bushel. They are erecting near by large machinery for grinding the ore, to go by steam. Will have fifteen stamps of 500 pounds each in operation soon. Messrs. McNeely, Haues & Miller, from Salisbury, are carrying on the work and have fine prospects ahead of them.

There has recently been a rise of nearly 12 feet in the river, but the marks at Fayetteville show that it is now falling off rapidly.

A great many young trees have been set out on the streets of the city during the past ten days. Many of them are to replace the brittle China trees destroyed during the late severe storm.

Ashore on Lookout.

Captain Jones, of the Steam ship Benefactor, which arrived here this morning from New York, reports passing at 6 A. M., 13th of March, an unknown hermorholite brig, ashore on Cape Lookout shoals; had topsails and foresails set and was in the breakers.

Sine Die.

The Legislature adjourned sine die on Monday last at 12 M. But very little business was transacted during the morning, the only item of interest being the passage by the House of a bill to incorporate the Wilmington and New River Canal and Navigation Company, which was taken up and passed its various readings.

Death of a Wilmingtonian.

We regret to learn of the death of Mr. Alfred Buckley Burr, son of Mr. Horace Burr, of this city, which occurred at New Orleans on the 9th inst in which city he has been engaged in business for many years. Mr. Burr was 40 years of age at the time of his death, information of which was received here this morning. No further particulars are yet known here.

City Court.

The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor this morning:
Sheppard Payne, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $20 and costs or 30 days work on the streets.
Lizzie Maddock, for disorderly conduct, was fined $10 and costs or 20 days work on the streets an appeal was taken to the Superior Court in a bond of $100, justified.

The Zodiacal Light.

This is a singular phenomenon, visible about this time of the year. It is a stream of white light reaching up into the sky above sunset, after the end of twilight. It seems to accompany the sun, but is seen to best advantage, in the Spring, in March, April, &c., when it rises most nearly perpendicular to the path of the sun.

A Protest.

Messrs. A. G. Mosely, of Duplin, R. W. Singletary, of Wilson, James G. Kenan, of Duplin, N. H. Fennell, of Sampson, A. C. Sharp, of Iredell, R. J. Powell, of Chatham, W. W. King, of Stokes, J. M. Hook, of Caldwell, and L. R. Waddell, of Johnston, all members of the Legislature, publish in the Raleigh Observer a protest against the action of the Legislature in passing the bill appointing Republican magistrates. The protest is noble and manly in tone and in argument unanswerable.

The Presbyterian.

The North Carolina Presbyterian, published in this city, which has heretofore been issued by a company, has passed by purchase into the hands of Mr. John McLaurin, who has been the Business Manager of the paper ever since it was removed to this city. Rev. J. R. Wilson, D. D., Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in this city, who has gratuitously filled the chair editorial, and with marked signal ability, since the death of Mr. Deveau, announces his withdrawal in to-day's issue of the paper. Mr. McLaurin has our very best wishes for his success.

The Sunday Magazine.

The publication of this excellent monthly, which was begun only last January, has already attained to a very large circulation. Each issue contains attractive, useful and interesting reading for everybody, while the number before us, for April, is exceptionally good. The magazine is profusely illustrated throughout the subject matter bearing out the title of the book, and each number has a handsome colored frontispiece of some Scriptural or homelike design. We can heartily commend it to our readers. Published by Frank Leslie, 537 Pearl street, at $2 50 a year and edited by Rev. Chas. F. Deems, D. D., Pastor of the Church of the Strangers, New York.

St. Patrick's Day.

The Hibernian Benevolent Association of this city are perfecting their arrangements for the proper celebration of St. Patrick's Day, which falls due next Saturday, the 17th inst. It will be observed here by a parade during the forenoon with Mass at St. Thomas' Church, and an address afterwards at the Opera House by Hon. Edward Cantwell, and the public are cordially invited to be present and hear the address. The line of march will be formed on Third street, in front of Temperance Hall, promptly at 9 o'clock, under direction of Mr. Timothy Donlan, Marshal of the Day, with his aides, Messrs. John McEntee and W. M. Collins, and will follow the line of march laid down in our advertising columns to-day. At the close of Judge Cantwell's address the members of the Association will repair to the Hall where officers will be elected for the ensuing year. It is in projection to have a feast commemorative of the day, but this has been postponed until after Lent.

Legislature Record.

We return thanks to Captain Shotwell, Representative in the Legislature, from Mecklenburg county, for a copy of the Legislative Record, compiled by himself and Captain Natt Atkinson, of Dupont. It is a valuable little book, and will be found handy for reference. It gives the acts of the session just passed, together with sketches of the lives and public acts of the members of both Houses. It can be had either at Heinsberger's in this city, or of Captain Shotwell in Charlotte.

A New Industry.

Among the advertisements in one of the papers of New York is one which calls upon "any one desiring to sell superfluous wedding presents to address 'Cash Customer,'" at a given number on a well-known street. If the advertiser means business, as most advertisers do, a way has been opened for turning to valuable account the duplicate butterknives and pickle-forks which will find their way into the most ingeniously guarded array of wedding presents. "Cash Customer" ought to drive a thriving business.

Last Night's Concert.

The concert given last night by the Front St. M. E. Church, was a grand success every particular. The house was crowded by an attentive audience, and the singing perfectly charming, no one that was there having a love for music could have gone away feeling disappointed. In time, correctness of tone and sweetness of expression, there was shown a thorough training by those who have had this matter in hand, and an aptness on the part of the school, such as is seldom evinced by so large a chorus of voices. We have not space nor time to take up the programme and go through the different Solos, Duets, Trios, Quartets and Choruses as well, an express our appreciation of the manner in which all rendered their parts, but it is enough for us to say that so fully they entertained the large audience that a strong desire is expressed that the concert be repeated at an early day. The tableaux styled "The Christian Graces" was one of the most beautiful and impressive scenes we have ever witnessed. We understand that the school has been, under the instruction of Mr. H. M. Bowden and the organist, Mrs. Poisson. They may feel justly proud of the result of their labors.

Since writing the above we learn from Mr. Parker, the Superintendent of the School, that owing to the desire of numerous friends who were at the Concert last night, they have concluded to repeat the same on Friday night. There will be changes in the programme and the exercises not so lengthy. Mr. Parker informs us that they have numerous pieces which they have had in practice, and that the entertainment will be fully up to the one last night. They will certainly repeat "The Christian Graces."

Fifth Ward Club.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Fifth Ward Club took place last night at the Bucket Company's Hall.
A resolution was adopted, declaring S. H. Fishblade, Esq., of the Fourth Ward, the gentleman whom the citizens of the Fifth Ward nominate as their candidate for Alderman, according to the understanding and arrangement made by the representatives of the several wards of the city, in meeting assembled, that the Fifth Ward should have the right to nominate one of the Aldermen of the Fourth Ward.
Messrs. W. H. Goodman and J. H. Klander were declared the nominees of the Fifth Ward for Aldermen.
The following resolutions were adopted:
RESOLUTIONS OF INDIGNATION.

Resolved, 1st, That we have seen with surprise and indignation the act of the Legislature putting us again under the rule of negro magistrates, the principal evil of Radical rule, from which we had a right to suppose we would be relieved, and which was promised us during the campaign. We hereby denounce the authors and abettors of this wanton insult to ourselves and families, and promise never to aid one of them politically, nor recognize him socially again.
Resolved, 2d, That we will never again support any candidate for office whose every public act has not been to elevate the white people of North Carolina, and to obliterate Radical dominion in either municipal, county, State or national elections.

Resolved, 3d, That inasmuch as we have been under negro rule for the last ten or twelve years, and by the exertions of every white man in North Carolina, through a long and heated campaign, adopted for ourselves a constitution which gives to our so-called Democratic Legislature the power to relieve us of the burdens of Radical rule; and our Legislature above referred to having willfully ignored the wishes of the majority of the white people by appointing negro magistrates for the city of Wilmington, notwithstanding the number of protests which went up to the Legislature against any such appointments, compels us, therefore, to adopt these resolutions of indignation.
Resolved, 4th, That the thanks of the white people of the Fifth Ward be tendered to the gentlemen of this city who sent various telegrams and other protestations to the Legislature, against the wanton insult which the Legislature were about to, and did, enforce upon us by appointing the negro Magistrate.

Resolved, 5th, That the thanks of this meeting be tendered those members of the Legislature and other gentlemen in Raleigh who used their influence to prevent the appointment of the negro Magistrates by the Legislature.
Resolved, 6th, That a copy of these resolutions be handed to the Morning Star and the REVIEW, with a request that they be published as the true sentiment of the white voters of the Fifth Ward.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE REVIEW.

I am glad to see that the voters of the Fifth Ward have had the manliness to denounce, in a becoming manner, the gross outrage perpetrated upon us by the late Legislature in the appointment of negro magistrates, and to denounce the faithless perpetrators as they deserve. There can be no possible excuse for it. Had not the promise been assured us that we would be freed from negro domination, and that that was the purpose and end of the amendments, there would have been no part or interest taken in the last election in this section. We have been fully deceived. We agree with the authors of the protest in the Legislature, that "if Democrats do what Republicans have been abused and condemned for doing, they cannot escape just censure." Those who place themselves in opposition to their party should be classed henceforth with their opponents; let them be known as Radicals; strip off the lion skin and show them in their true colors. We differ from the authors of the protest, however, in that we do not believe in the purity of their motives. We think it a wanton and gratuitous affront to every decent white citizen, male or female. We denounce it not only as such but as a deliberate falsification of all their promises prior to the election and only an elaboration of the key note sounded by Gov. Vance in his first message to the Legislature. All because we have no representation of the white element there and are so snowed under by the negro votes that we are powerless. We should keep a list of all who assisted in this insult, and on no account whatever vote for one of them again for any office.
Alas! poor Wilmington; the prey of wards and traitors.

There is no person living but what suffers more or less with Lung Disease, Coughs, Colds or Consumption, yet some would die rather than pay 75 cents for a bottle of medicine that would cure them. Dr. A. Boschee's German Syrup has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wondrous cures astonish every one that tries it. If you doubt what we say in print, cut this out and take it to your Druggist, and get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it, or a regular size for 75 cents.
