The New English Cardinal.
A fourth English-speaking cardinal was yesterday added to the Sacred College.
Edward Henry Howard, the new cardinal, was born in 1829, and is the youngest in number of the Sacred College. Cardinal Bishop's being one year his senior. He is the only son of Captain Edward Howard, and by his marriage with Miss Henegge, of Hampton, and in early youth entered the Second Life Guards. A year or two before the outbreak of the Crimean war he suddenly threw up his commission and left London for Rome. He was then young handsome, the master of a competent fortune, connected with the highest circles of English society, and much admired and liked by all who knew him.
The mystery attending his abjuration of the world, its temptations and its honors, has never been cleared up. But his career as a priest in Rome has been one of great credit to himself and to his Church. He has been conspicuous for years in works of charity and mercy, and has taken a particularly active part in superintending the hospitals, civil and military, of the Eternal City. He was some time ago created an archbishop in partibus, is a canon of St. Peter's, and bishop-coadjutor of Frascati. His simplicity and manliness of character, his intimate knowledge of Rome and his courtesy, have long made him a favorite with the better class of English and American travelers in Italy, without distinction of sect.

Pinchback on Packard.
He made his advent in Louisiana as a bounty broker and claim agent for colored soldiers, and his conduct in this connection has been both suspected and criticized. In the Constitutional Convention of 1868 he is recorded as voting against the civil rights clause. Before the first reconstructed Legislature he appeared as a lobbyist for the Nicolson Pavement Company and initiated the corrupt system of Legislative jobbery that subsequently disgraced the State. Finally, as chairman of the Republican State Committee and United States Marshal, exercising the double functions of a federal official and a political partisan, whether manipulating a ward club or a State convention, whether controlling the delegates by money or by office, he has exhibited the same selfish unscrupulousness and the same political indecency which have lost him the confidence and support of the intelligent Republicans of Louisiana, and he stands today before the people a political and incompetent marplot. With no considerable following of the respectable and intelligent classes of our citizens, he is, with or without national recognition, powerless for good and potent only for evil.
By the reckless misuse of his official position as United States Marshal he forced his leadership upon the party—a leadership never yet marked by the successful conduct of a campaign. He has never been able to keep the party together, and has managed to drive out of it almost all of its members.—New York Herald.

How a Jewess Married a Christian.
Mr. H. L. Oliver, a young lawyer of good standing at the Nashville bar, and of respectable family connections, was married to Miss Hannah Weil, daughter of Mr. S.
Weil of that city, at her father's residence, Friday evening, by Justice Creighton.
Feeling that her parents would oppose the match, as it is against the Jewish tendency to intermarry with other people, she went to her father, and put to him the following insurmountable interrogatories:
"Father, how old am I?"
"Father—Nineteen years old, my daughter."
"Daughter—When does a young lady become of lawful age?"
"Father—At eighteen."
"Daughter—Then I am free to act for myself, am I not, father?"
"Father—I see no objection to it."
"Daughter—Well, then, Mr. Oliver loves me ever so much, and I love him ever so much. I want you to consent to our marriage, for if you do not I fear we will have to run away, and I'd much rather be married at home."
The father was very much astonished at her pointed inquiries, and more so when he found her betrothed to a Christian gentleman; but, after pondering the matter awhile, he gave the sensible response:
"Well, if you are bound to marry, I would rather you would be quietly married at home." And so the young people were married and left for Huntsville that evening.

At present France takes the lead in the production of beet root sugar, and Germany comes next. It is possible that the United States may take place in the list in a few years, now that Maine has offered a bounty for the makers of beet root sugar in that State. In California the beet root sugar cultivation has rather failed, the soil seeming to affect the saccharine quality.
The Permanent Exhibition Company on the Centennial grounds at Philadelphia has decided to increase its capital stock to $600,000, and the exhibition will open with all due ceremonies about May 1.
Queen Victoria is very punctual in her engagements. In all her reign she was never known to be a second behind time.

SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY.
AN UNRIVALED ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE When Scribner issued its famous Midsummer Holiday Number in July, a friendly critic said of it: "We are not sure but that Scribner has touched high-water mark. We do not see what worlds are left to it to conquer." But the publishers do not consider that they have reached the ultima thule of excellence—they believe "there are other worlds to conquer, and they propose to conquer them."
The prospectus for the new volume gives the titles of more than fifty papers (mostly illustrated), by writers of the highest merit.
Under the head of
"Foreign Travel,"
we have "A winter on the Nile," by Gen. Mc-Clellan; "Santoringia," about Constantinople, by Charles Dudley Warner; "Out of My Window at Moscow," by Eugene Schuyler; "An American in Turkistan," etc. Three serial stories are announced:

Nicholas Minturn,
By Dr. Holland, the Editor, whose story of "Sevenoaks" gave the highest satisfaction to the readers of the Monthly.
The scene of this latest novel is laid on the banks of the Hudson. The hero is a young man who has been always "tied to a woman's apron strings," but who, by the death of his mother, is left alone in the world,—to drift on the current of life,—with a fortune, but without a purpose.
Another serial, "His Inheritance," by Miss Trafton, will begin on the completion of "That Lass o' Lewrie's," by Mrs. Hodgson Burnett.
Miss Burnett's story, begun in August, has a pathos and dramatic power which have been a surprise to the public.
There is to be a series of original and exquisitely illustrated papers of "Popular Science," by Mrs. Herrick, each paper complete in itself.
There are to be, from various pens, papers on "Home Life and Travel." Also, practical suggestions as to town and country life, village improvements, etc., by well-known specialists.
Mr. Barnard's articles on various industries of Great Britain include the history of "Some Experiments in Co-operation," "A Scottish Loom Factory" in the November number, and "Toad Lane, Rochdale," in December. Other papers are, "The British Workingman's Home," "A Nation of Shopkeepers," "Ha'penny a Week for the Child," etc.

A richly illustrated series will be given on "American Sports by Flood and Field," by various writers, and each on a different theme. The subject of "Household and Home Decoration" will have a prominent place, whilst the latest productions of American humorists will appear from month to month. The list of shorter stories, biographical and other sketches, etc., is a long one.
The editorial department will continue to employ the ablest pens both at home and abroad. There will be a series of letters on literary matters, from London, by Mr. Welford.
The pages of the magazine will be open, as heretofore, so far as limited space will permit, to the discussion of all themes affecting the social and religious life of the world, and especially to the freshest thought of the Christian thinkers and scholars of this country.
We mean to make the magazine sweeter and purer, higher and nobler, more genial and generous in all its utterances and influences, and a more welcome visitor than ever before in homes of refinement and culture.

FIFTEEN MONTHS for $4.
Scribner for December, now ready, and which contains the opening chapters of "Nicholas Minturn," will be read with eager curiosity and interest. Perhaps no more readable number of this magazine has yet been issued. The three numbers of Scribner for August, September, and October, containing the opening chapters of "That Lass o' Lewrie's," will be given to every new subscriber (who requests it), and whose subscription begins with the November number.
Subscription price, $4 a year—35 cents a number. Special terms on bound volumes.

STATE PURCHASES.
The State of NEW YORK has placed 10,000 copies of Webster's Unabridged in as many of her Public Schools.
The State of WISCONSIN about 5,000—nearly every school.
The State of NEW JERSEY 1,500—nearly every school.
The State of MICHIGAN made provision for all her schools.
The State of MASSACHUSETTS has supplied her schools—nearly all.
The State of IOWA has supplied her schools.
The State of CONNECTICUT has made provision for her schools.
Over 3,000 schools in INDIANA were supplied during the year 1872, and many more in 1873 and 1874.
In other States many copies have been purchased for supplying schools of cities, counties and towns.
What better investment can be made for schools?
More than ten times as many are sold of Webster's Dictionaries as of any other series in this country.
At least four-fifths of all the school-books
