Lusk, Esq., Unite States District Attorney for the Wester District of North Caroina, will soon b asked for their resignations. It is statethat the reason for this is the fact that the bearing of these two officers and their subordinates toward persons charged with illicit traffic in whiskey in the West- ha been such as to bring the Republican part into great disrepute, and that for this rea son the administration has determined to throw them overboard.

The Raleigh Observer says: Samson going for the Philistine battalions with the jawbone of an average American statesman-Leonidas at the pass of Ther mopyle-Ajax defying the thunderbolt -Achilles, Casar, Napoleon and Susar B. Hi name descrives to be emblazoned beside Drake's Plantation Bitters and Lyen-Kathairon, on every roadside rock and blacksmith shop door from Cape Cod t Corpus Christi, from Winnipisscogee to Poppacatnipetal.

The Insane Asylum--The New

Directors Appointed. The raders of the News will remember that its issue of last Thursday con tained interesting rumors in regard t vacancies said to exist at present in the old or Brogden Board of Directors of the Hunyadi Janos Bitterwater. Insanc Asylum. It turns out that the rumors published in that connection are true as to all material points. That is to say, of the fifteen directors now supposed to be in charge of the asylum, only five are, in point of fact, legally directors, the terms of nine having expired by limitation and by failure of the Senate of the las. General Assembly to confirm them, and one having resigned within the past week. The five who "nold over" are: Dr. B. F. Arrington, of Wayne, Rev. G. W. Welker. of Guilford, and Dr. E. Burke Haywood and Messrs. J. M. Pool and Anderson Betts of Wake.

Under this state of facts it devolved upon His Excellency, the [Governor, to fit these ten vacancies by appointment, and yesterday he did this by the re-appointment of the gentlemen whom he named about the 5th of March as his new board of directors under the act of the last Legislature, viz : J. S. Amis vice Gen. W. D. Jones, not confirmed; Dr. J. T. Leach, vice Chas. II. Thomas, term expired ; Mai. C. Dowd, rice 1'. R. Hardin, term expired ; Col. J. G. Burr, vice G. W. Stanton term expired; Col. Geo. D. Green, vice W. R. Myers, term expired; Rev. B. Craven, vice S. G. Coffin, term expired; S. G. Ward, vice Jas. T. Pearson, not confirmed; A. M. McPheeters, vice John R. Good, not confirmed; M. L. Neilson vice Dr. J. G. Ramsay, not confirmed; and in addition to these Julius Lewis rice F. H. Cameron, resigned. The new board therefore consists of the ten gentlmen just named'as appointees to these vacancies, and the five of the old board mentioned above, viz. Messrs. B. F. Arrington. G. W. Welker, E. Burke Haywood, J. M.

A 31 ounce egg, from common stock, Pool and Anderson Betts. There are upon this new board, which will take possession at once, 13 Democrats and 2 Republicaus, and it is no secret all that the complexion of the board is ummistakably anti-Grissom.
