PROSPECTUS OF THE Maryland Medical Journal,
 BALTIMORE, MD.

ON THE FIRST DAY OF MAY NEXT, the undersigned will issue, in the city of Baltimore, the first number of the MARYLAND MEDICAL JOURNAL. It will be a monthly publication, devoted to the advancement of Medicine in all its branches.

Each issue of the Journal will contain original articles, from representative men in the profession.

Careful selections from foreign and home journals will be made with a special view to the requirements of the practitioner.

Reports of the progress of Surgery and Medicine in their special, as well as general branches, including Diseases of the Eye and Ear, Diseases of the Nervous System, Diseases peculiar to Women, and Diseases of the Throat and Chest, will be regularly given by men eminent in these several branches. These reports will be in an abstract form of the progress in each of these special departments during the year.

The proceedings of Medical Societies will be published as often and as fully as their importance justifies.

Prominence will be given to rare and interesting cases in Hospital and Private Practice. New Instruments and Appliances, New Remedies and improved methods of managing disease will be specially treated. New medical publications, as they appear, will be critically and impartially reviewed.

No labor or expense will be spared to render the MARYLAND MEDICAL JOURNAL, a welcome visitor to every physician desirous of keeping pace with the progress of Medical Science as developed both abroad and at home.

Contributions, on subjects of interest to the profession, respectfully invited.

Each number will contain not less than forty pages, printed from new type, on heavy condensed paper of the finest quality.

The subscription price will be $3 per annum, invariably in advance, delivered free of postage.

$5 A Year,

The Reading Public are respectfully informed that it shall be the constant aim of the proprietor to furnish them with

A LIVE NEWSPAPER,
 containing the latest news of the day, and endeavoring to keep its readers fully informed in regard to events of interest and importance occurring in every quarter of the world.

OUR DAILY MARKET REPORTS
 Will full and correct, and will be kept open until the latest possible moment. Merchants in the city and country may rest assured that they will be thoroughly reliable.

The News Columns
 Will contain the reports, both of news and markets, received here each day at noon, and the LOCAL DEPARTMENT Has been placed in careful and experienced hands. Friends in the section of country connected with this city, will greatly oblige the Editor, and will contribute additional interest to these columns by forwarding any items of news that may occur in their respective localities.

ALL CORRESPONDENCE,
 On matters of general interest will be gladly received, but our friends must bear in mind that they must write only on one side of the paper; that they must forbear useless verbiage, must correct their own manuscript and must avoid abusive personalities. A reliable name must be furnished with each communication, as the Editor will not be held accountable for the views or language of correspondents.

OUR SUBSCRIPTION LIST,
 Even before a type was set for the first issue, was an exceedingly flattering one, and is probably the largest bona fide list with which any newspaper in North Carolina ever before began publication, and is now rapidly on the increase, especially on the various railroad lines.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1877.

LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE,
 AN ILLUSTRATED MONTHLY OF Popular Literature, Science and Art.

Announcement for 1877.

The number for January begins the nineteenth volume of this Magazine, and while its past record will it is hoped be deemed a sufficient guarantee of future excellence, no effort will be spared to diversify its attractions and to provide an increased supply of POPULAR READING IN THE BEST AND MOST EMPHATIC SENSE.

The great object and constant aim of the conductors will be to furnish the public with Literary Entertainment of a Refined and Varied Character, as well as to present in a graphic and striking manner the most recent information and soundest view on subjects of General Interest; in a word to render Lippincott's Magazine strikingly distinctive in THOSE FEATURES THAT ARE MOST ATTRACTIVE IN MAGAZINE LITERATURE.

The contributions now on hand, or specially engaged, embrace a highly attractive list of Tales, Short Stories, Descriptive Sketches, Narratives, Papers on Science and Art, Poems, Popular Essays, Literary Criticisms, &c., &c., by TALENTED AND WELL KNOWN WRITERS.

A large proportion of the articles, especially those descriptive of travel, will be PROFUSELY AND BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED.

The pictorial embellishments of the Magazine constitute one of its attractive features.

In addition to the General Attractions of Lippincott's Magazine, the Publishers would invite attention to the following

SPECIAL FEATURES FOR 1877.

1. A new serial story, "The Marquis of Lossie," by George MacDonald, author of "Malcolm," "Alec Forbes," "Robert Falconer," &c. To those of our readers who are familiar with "Malcolm," this story from the pen of this distinguished writer will need no recommendation, and his reputation is a guarantee to others of a deeply interesting and powerful story. It began in the November number, which issue, with the December part, will be furnished gratis to all new subscribers for 1877.
2. A profusely illustrated series of sketches of Swedish Scenery and Life, by Prof. Willard Frisk, author of Cornell University, who is thoroughly familiar with Sweden and its people from personal observation.
3. A series of popular papers on Art and Art Matters, by Edward Strahan (Earl Shinn), author of "The New Hyperion," &c.
4. Illustrated Sketches of Travel, entitled Pictures from Spain, by Edward King, author of the "Great South" &c.
5. Mrs. Lucy H. Hooper's Interesting and Piquant Papers and Letters from Paris will be continued through the year.
6. The Beauties of the Rhine will be described in a richly illustrated series of papers.
7. During the year will appear a number of handsomely illustrated short articles, descriptive of Life, Travel, and Adventure in the United States, England, South America, Japan, Mongolia, and other countries.

FOR SALE BY ALL BOOK AND NEWS DEALERS. PRICE, 35 CENTS.

TERMS.—Year Subscription, $4; Two copies, $7; Three copies, $10; Five copies, $16; Ten copies, $30; with a copy gratis to the person procuring the club. Single number 35 cents.

Notice—The November and December Numbers containing the earlier chapters of "The Marquis of Lossie," will be presented to all new annual subscribers for 1877.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary
 FOR THE SCHOOL R

3,000 Engravings; 1,840 Pages Quarto.
 Price $12.

A NEW FEATURE.

To the 3,000 Illustrations heretofore in Webster's Unabridged, we have added four pages of Colored Illustrations, engraved expressly for the work at large expense.

Nearly every State Superintendent of Public Instruction in the Union, or corresponding officer, where such an one exists, has recommended Webster's Dictionary in the strongest terms. Among them are those of Eastern, Northern, Middle, Southern, and Western States—TWENTY-EIGHT in all.

The State of NEW YORK has placed 10,000 copies of Webster's Unabridged in as many of her Public Schools.

The State of WISCONSIN about 5,000—nearly every school.

The State of NEW JERSEY 1,500—nearly every school.

The State of MICHIGAN made provision for all her schools.

The State of MASSACHUSETTS has supplied her schools—nearly all.

The State of IOWA has supplied her schools.

The State of CONNECTICUT has made provision for her schools.

Over 3,000 schools in INDIANA were supplied during the year 1872, and many more in 1873 and 1874.

In other States many copies have been purchased for supplying schools of cities, counties and towns.

What better investment can be made for schools?

More than TEN TIMES as many are sold of Webster's Dictionaries as of any other series in this country.

At least FIFTY-FIFTHS of all the school-books published in this country own Webster as their standard, and of the remainder few acknowledge ANY standard.

Published by G. & C. MERRIAM, dec 9 Springfield Mass.

$600 PIANOS FOR $250.

And all other styles in the same proportion, including Grand, Square and Upright—all First-Class—sold direct to the PEOPLE AT FACTORY PRICES. No agents; no commissions; no discounts. These Pianos made one of the finest displays at the Centennial Exhibition, and were unanimously recommended for the HIGHEST HONORS. New Manufacturer—one of the largest and finest in the world. The Square Grands contain Mathushek's new patent Duplex Overstrung Scale, the greatest improvement in the history of piano making. The Uprights are the FINEST in America. Don't fail to write for Illustrated and Descriptive Catalogue, mailed free.
