HOW A LOYL THEFT WAS DE-TECTED.

Englitzhugh Lee, ex-Gov. Thomas and Mr. J. M. Forbes, a wealthy gentlewan of Warrenton, Va., have just visited Mount Vernon as members of a commit-(se appointed every year for the purpose by the Virginia Legislature. Mr. Forbes was accompanied by his daughter, whose vers garments Tabeled thus: " Worn by Gen. Washing-Resented from oblivion and presented fo the Ladies Association of Mount Vernon By William D. McGregor, of Hudson Cley. New York." The young lady at once recognized them as being at one time in the possession of her father, who had received them from his father, who had received them in turn from some one who get them in some way direct from Washington kimself. Miss Forbes immediately informed her father of her discovery. Before examining them, she described certain patches in the breeches and darnes in the stockings which she had put upon them when she was a small child. Mr. Forbes immediately identified the articles, and, when examined, the patches and darnes were found to be exactly as described by his daughter. Mr. Forbes explained that during the early part of the war, hearing that the Federal forces were advancing on Warrenton, he gathered up his children and what little furniture he could, and moved off toward the Blue Ridge Mountains. Some time after he returned to his home and found that these garments had been carried away by a Federal officer. Mr. Forbes surrendered his title to them, and they will remain in the cases in the New York room. There will be appended to the label, however, the following: "And again presented by J. M. Forbes, Esq., of Virginia, May 23, 1877."

THE MONTENEGRINS.

The men of Montenegro are said to be a race of soldiers and as brave as the bravest. In proof of this we quote from Mr. Gladstone's pamphlets as follows: " On July 28th the men of Tsernagora encountered Mukhtar Pasha. Four thousand Turks were killed, and only seventy men of Montenegro. Osman Pasha was taken., Selim was among the slain. At Medun, on August 14th, 20,000 Turks were defeated by 5,000 of these heroic warriers, and 4,700 slain. On September 6th, five battalions of Montenegro defeated Dervish Pasha in his movement wpen Piperi, and slew 3,000. On October 7th, Mukhtar Pasha. with 18,000 men, drove back three Montenegro battalions, but when reinforced so as to bring their number up to 6,000, though only one to three, they swept down upon Mukhtar Pashs, and after a fight of sixteen hours drove him back to Kleluk, leaving 1,500 dead on the field. On October 10th, Dervish Pasha advanced from the South, and had to retreat with a loss of two frensand."

SOUTH CAROLINA'S GRATI-TUDE TO GORDON.

We find the following in the Charleston Journal of Commerce:

THE CAROLINAS' TO GENERAL GORDON. The gallant Carolina Rifle Battalion, in admiration of Georgia's statesman's worth and service to our people, conceived a plan of presenting him a testimonial as an expression of this representative commands, appreciation of his services. With this idea they selected a handsome portrait of Governor Hampton, which they General J. B. Gordon, United States Senator from Georgia, and "Carolina's friend of friends."

And this in the News & Courier : The members of the Legislature have appointed a committee to receive contribuseas for the purchase of a gold medal to be presented to Senator Gordon in ac-Reviedgment of his faithful, carnest and octagonal without and circular within.

The material is made waterproof by satbe invited to visit Columbia before the Legislature adjourns.

EXPORT OF AMERICAN COT-TON GOODS.

The Chief of the Bureau of Statistics has published a statement showing that there were exported during the month of April, 1877, 13,404,628 yards of cotton goods of the value of $1,055,967, and of other manufactures of cotton $144,539total $1,200,506; an increase in value brer exports in April, 1876, of $319,058. or 86 per cent. Of the exports in April, 1877, 43 per cent., or $518,132 were shipped to the United Kingdom and Brifish possessions.

Addressing a large temperance meeting, Mr. Walters, preprietor of the London Times, arged men to drink the lighter malt liquers instead of more intoxicating fields. He said that the lager beer made the United States might be drank freely without any injurous effect.

Cora Pearl, the notorious French Phryne of English extraction, is selling out her homestead effects. Even her prayer book is for sale, and, on exhibition, it stands open at these words: "Let me soon hear the voice of thy mercy, for in thee is my hope. Thy spirit of goodness will lead me in the straight path. Make me live after the law of thy justice, Lord, for the glory of thy name."

The New York Herald thinks we are prosperous, but we learn that there were thirty-one failures in New York city in May, with liabilities of $1,354,024, and assets of $534,751. Assignments and adjudications in bankruptcy increased these liabilities by $650,000. There is an increase of fifty per cent in the number of failures over last month's record, while the liabilities are about forty per cent less. The total liabilities for the month are, in round numbers, $2,000,000.

It has been shown that " Great Britain by taxing only nine articles, and placing all others on the free list, received a revenue of £20,903,857 in 1874, say $104,-500,000, of which almost all was counted net; while the United States, with nearly 3,000 articles, only $127,000,000 is expected up to June, of which $40,000,000 were used up by custom house expenses.' This £20,903,857 was raised as follows: £7,046,937 in cigars and tobacco, £6,568, 205 in brandy and wines, £3,447,250 in coffee and tea, $3,283,081 in sugars and molasses, £480,638 in dry fruits, currents, etc., and $207,747 in trifles.

SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY.

UNRIVALED ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE

When Scribner Issued its famous Midsummer Holiday Number in July, a friendly critic said of it: "We are not sure but that Scribner has touched high-water mark. We do not see what worlds are left to it to con-quer." But the publishers do not consider that they have reached the ultima thule of excellence—they believe "there are other worlds to conquer, and they propose to conquer them."

The prospectus for the new volume gives the titles of more than fifty papers (mostly illustrated), by writers of the highest merit. Under the head of

we have "A winter on the Nile," by Gen. Mc-Ciellan ; "Saunterings About Constantinople," by Charles Dudley Warner; "Out of My Window at Moscow," by Eugene Schuyr; "An American in Turkistan," etc. Three serial stories are announced:

Another serial, "His Inheritance," by Miss Trafton, will begin on the completion of "That Lass o' Lowrie's," by Mrs. Hodgson Burnett. Mrs. Barbett's story, begun in August, has a pathos and dramatic power which have been a surprise to the public. There is to be a series of original and exquisitely illustrated papers of "Popular Science," by Mrs. Herrick, each paper complete in itself. There are to be, from various pens, papers

"Home Life and Travel." Also, practical suggestions as to town and country life, village improvements, etc., by well known specialists. Mr. Barnard's articles on various indusries of Great Britain include the history of 'Some Expriments in Co-operation.' "A Scottish Loaf Factory" in the November number, and "Toad Lane, Rochdale, in December. Other papers are, "The British Workingman's Home," "A Nation of Shop-keepers," "Ha'penny a Week for the Child,"

The pages of the magazine will be open, as peretolore, so far as limited space will permit, to the discussion of all themes affecting the social and religious life of the world, and specially to the freshest thought of the Christan thinkers and scholars of this country. We mean to make the magazine sweeter and purer, higher and nobler, more genial and generous in all its utterances and influences, and a more welcome visitor than ever before in homes of refinement and culture. FIFTEEN MONTHS for $4. Scribner for December, now ready, and which contains the opening chapters of "Nicholas Minturn," will be read with eager curiosity and interest. Perhaps no more readable number of this magazine has yet been issued. The three numbers of Scribner for August, September, and October, containing the opening chapters of "That Lass o'Lewrie's," will be given to every new subscriber (who requests it), and whose subscription begins with the November number. APPLETON'S

NEW REVISED EDITION.

Entirely rewritten by the ablest writers on every subject. Printed from new type, ond illustrated with Several Thousand Engravings and Maps

The work originally published under the title of THE NEW AMERICAN CYLCOPE DIA was completed in 1873, since which time the wide circulation which it has attained in all parts of the United States and the signal developments which have taken place in every brance of science, literattre, and art, have induced the editor and pub-lisher to submit it to an exact and thorough revision, and to issue a new edition entitled THE AMERICAN CYCLOPÆDIA.

Within the last ten years the progress of liscovery in every department of knowledge has made a new work of reference an imperative want. The movement of political affairs have kept pace with the discoveries of science and their fruitful application to the industrial and useful arts and the convenience and refinement of social life. Great wars, and consequent revolutions have occurred, involv ing national changes of peculiar moment The civil war of our country, which was at its height when the last volume of the old work appeared, has happily ended, and a new course of commercial and industrial activity has been commenced. Large accessions to onr geographical knowledge have been made by the indefatigable explorer of Africa.

The great political revolutions of the last decade, with the natural result of the lapse of time, have brought into public view a multitude of new men, whose names are in | postage. every one's mouth, and of whose lives every one is curious to know the particulars Great battles have been fought and important sieges maintained; of which the details are as yet preserved only in the newspapers or in the trasient publications of the day, and which ought now to take their place in permanent and authentic history.

In preparing the present edition for the press, it has accordingly been the aim of the editors to bring down the information to the lowest possible rates, and to furnish an accurate account f the most recent discoveries in science, of every frehs production in literaure, and of the newest inventions in the practical arts, as well as to give a succinct and original record of the progress political and historical events.

The work has been begun after long and careful preliminary labor, and with the most ample resources for carrying it on to a succ. ssful temination. None of the original stereotype plates have been used, but every page has been printed on new type, forming, in fact, a new Cyclopeedia, with the same plan and compass as its predesessor, but with a far greater pecuniary expenditure, and with such improvement in its composition as have been suggested by longer experience and enlarged knowledge.

The illustrations which are introduced for the first time in the present edition have been added not for the sake of pictorial effect, but to give greater lucidity and force to the explanations in the text. They embrace all branches of science and natural history, and depict the most famous and remarkable features of scenery, architecture and art, as well as the various processes of mechanics and manufactures. Although intended for instruction rather than embellishment, no pains have been spared to insure their artistic excellence; the cost of their execution is enormous, and it is believed they will find a welcome reception as an admirable feature of the Cyclopædia, and worthy of its high

This work is sold to subscribers only, payable on delivery of each volume. It will be completed in sixteen large octavo volumes, each containing about 800 pages, fully illustrated with several thousand Wood Engravtrated with several thousand Wood Engravings, and with numerous colored Lithographic Maps.
