FAME AND DUTY.

"What shall I do, lest life in silence pass?
And if it do,
And never prompt the bray of noisy brass,
What need'st thou hue?
Remember, aye, the ocean-deeps are mute;
The shallows roar;
Worth is the ocean—fame is but the bruit
Along the shore."
What shall I do to be forever known?
"Thy duty ever."
This did full many who yet slept unknown.
"O never, never!
Think'st thou perchance that they remain known
Whom thou know'st not?
Archangel trumps in heaven their praise is blown—
Divine their lot."
What shall I do, an heir of endless life?
"Discharge aright
The simple dues with which each day is rife.
Yea, with thy might,
Life perfect scheme of action thou devise,
Will life be lied.
While he, who ever acts as conscience cries,
Shall live, though dead."

Notice---Schedule B Tax.

ALL WHOLESALE AND RETAIL Merchants are hereby notified that a privilege tax was levied by the last Legislature of Five Dollars, (the same levied by county) in addition to the Schedule taxes proper. Wholesale dealers are also notified that in giving in their purchases the law now compels payment on all purchases, made within the State as well as out of the State, (including timber, lumber, turpentine, spirits turpentine, rosin and naval stores of any kind and cotton.) All hotels, boarding houses, restaurants and eating houses are required by law to pay a tax of one-half per cent. on gross receipts. The tax will be due July 1st and payable within the first ten days thereafter, on all purchases since the 1st of January 1877.

All parties interested in the payment of Schedule B Taxes will save costs by attending to the same at once as the law will be strictly enforced. J. E. SAMPSON,

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

Maryland Medical Journal,

BALTIMORE, MD.

ON THE FIRST DAY OF MAY NEXT, the undersigned will issue, in the city of Baltimore, the first number of THE MASYLAND MEDICAL JOURNAL. It will be a monthly publication, devoted to the advancement of Medcine in all its branches.

Each issue of the Journal will contain original articles, from representative men in the profession.

Careful selections from foreign and home journals will be made with a special view to the requirements of the practitioner.

Reports of the progress of Surgery and Medicine in their special, as well as general branches, including Diseases of the Eye and Ear, Diseases of the Nervous System, Diseases peculiar to Women, and Diseases of the Throat and Chest, will be regularly given by men eminent in these several branches. These reports will be an exhibit in abstract form of the progress in each of these special departments during the year.

The proceedings of Medical Societies will be published as often and as fully as their importance justifies.

Prominence will be given to rare and interesting cases in Hospital and Private Practice. New Instruments and Appliances, New Remedies and improved methods of managing disease will be specially treated. New medical publications, as they appear, will be critically and impartially reviewed.

No labor or expense will be spared to render the MARYLAND MEDICAL JOURNAL, a welcome visitor to every physician desirous of keeping pace with the progress of Medical Science as developed both abroad and at home.

Contributions, on subjects of interest to the profession, respectfully invited.

Each number will contain not less than forty pages, printed from new type, on heavy calendered paper of the finest quality.

The subscription price will be $3 per annum, invariably in advance, delivered free of postage.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary

FOR THE SCHOOL R

3,000 Engravings; 1,840 Pages Quarto. Price $12.

A NEW FEATURE.

To the 3,00 Illustrations heretofore in Webster's Unabridged, we have added four pages of

Colored Illustrations, engraved expressly for the work at large expense.

Nearly every State Superintendent of Public Instruction in the Union, or corresponding officer, where such an one exists, has recommended Webster's Dictionary in the strongest terms. Among them are those of Eastern, Northern, Middle, Southern, and Western States—TWENTY-EIGHT in all.

The State of NEW YORK has placed 10,000 copies of Webster's Unabridged in as many of her Public Schools.

The State of WISCONSIN about 5,000—nearly every school.

The State of NEW JERSEY 1,500—nearly every school.

The State of MICHIGAN made provision for all her schools.

The State of MASSACHUTETTS has supplied her schools—nearly all.

The State of IOWA has supplied her schools.

The State of CONNECTICUT has made provision for her schools.

☞ Over 3,000 schools in INDIANA were supplied during the year 1872, and many more in 1873 and 1874.

In other States many copies have been purchased for supplying schools of cities, counties and towns.

What better investment can be made for schools?

More than TEN times as many are sold of Webster's Dictionaries as of any other series in this country.

At least FOUR-FIFTHS of all the school-books published in this country own Webster as their standard, and of the remainder few acknowledge ANY standard.
