Mecklenburg issued mariage license la t month for 9 white and 4 colored scouples. Charlotte is discussing the propriety of establishing a graded school in that city. The typhoid fever is raging to an alarming extent in the southern portion of Chatham county, and a portion of Wake. Washington Press: Mr. Isa'ah Respass one of Washington's oldest citizens, died at his residence in this place on Tuesday last. Age 70 years. A new station, name Hoffman, has been established on the Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line Railroad, midway between Keyser and Hamlet.

The annual meeting of the Iredell Tar. County Temperance Society will be held at New Salem Church, on the second Wednesday in August.

Raleigh Observer: The members of the Bar are using every effort to prevail on the Supreme Court to continue the session next week, but the Justices are disposed to adjourn next Saturday.

Greensboro Patriot: Last Monday week, as W. J. King, in Caswell county, five miles South of Ruffin was, drying off his tobacco crop it accidentally took fire and some 4,000 pounds were destroyed. The same day J. P. Fitzgerald, near Ruffin, lost his entire crop in the same way.

Newbern Nut Shell: We were shown yesterday a sample of some very fine tobacco now being raised in this city by Mr. Isaac Lewis. One of the leaves left on our table measures 30 inches in length and 19 in width, and we learn is a very Staubo, Nor, 321 tons, Gundersen, fair specimen of a large lot of "the weed," not yet grown, in Mr. Lewis' garden.

Charlotte Observer : It is a mistake Sundsvall, Swed, 316 tons, Bergstrom, about Gen. Hill having gone to Canada to deliver a grange address. The day fixed is the 28d inst., but as Gen. Hill leaves two weeks from to-day for his new home the invitation which was extended.

Statesville Landmark : Sarah D. Johnston, convicted of infanticide, week before last, has been sentenced to be hanged on the 29th of November. Much Yankee Blade, Am, 135 tons, Giling, Master sympathy prevails here for the prisoner. W H Knight, Am, 187 tons, Duffey, Northrop & Cumming ed on the 29th of November. Much A petition will soon be presented Gov. Vance for her pardon, which will certainly Charlotte Observer: The great annual camp-meeting at Rock Springs, Lincoln county, took place last week, and was at its height Sunday. An immense crowd was there from all directions, and rowdyism, drunkenness and rioting were rampant. Three bullies entered the fistic arena, as a feature of Sunday's exercises and after beating each other up settled for it to the tune of $79.

Raleigh News: Last Monday a colored girl about 13 years of age, daughter of Richard Dunn, colored, who lives on the premises of Mr. Walter Jeffreys, near Neuse depot, this county, was bitten by a rattlesnake. The snake was soon killed and found to have four rattles. The girl lingered till yesterday, when she died in great agony. The rattlesnake is very rare in this section, and its appearance excites general consternation in the neighborhood where it was discovered.

Charlotte Observer: Night before last, about 9 o'clock, a kerosene lamp exploded in the residence of Mrs. Hannon, on Church street, and seriously burned a daughter of this lady. It seems that Miss Hannon was attempting to fill the lamp communicated to the oil in the lamp, and before she could throw it from her hands, it exploded with a loud noise, and scattered the oil in every direction.

Charlotte Observer : The Hornet's Nest Riflemen hold a meeting to-morrow night for the purpose of taking into consideration the advisability of having an encampment at some point on the Atlantic coast. The Greys were so enthusiastic in their accounts of the pleasures of camp life (so called), that many of the Ritlemen are quite in the notion of starting out immediately. There is, however, some opposition to the project on account of the fact that many of the company at dinner. We offer this week, will be unable to leave their work.

Charlotte Observer: We have in our office a beautiful specimen of German or golden millet, five feet high, which was raised on a lot of Walter Brem, Esq., in this city. Mr. Brem sowed two acres in than has yet been reached in this market. this millet, using three-quarters of a bushel of seed to the acre. From this two acres he realized 10,000 lbs. of hay, or two and a half tons to the acre. One seed produces 34,515 seed, a single stalk, green, weighs one quarter of a pound, and dry a little more than half that amount.
