

CAROLINA.

Fifty-two young shad have been placed above Falls of Tar River.

A citizen living near Palmyra, in Halifax county, says last Friday was so hot several hays (colored) fainted in his field.

It is now said that Augustin Daly, the great theatre manager in New York, is a North Carolinian by birth, though of Irish extraction.

Tarboro Southerner: A colored woman, wife of Amos Barlow, on D. H. Barlow's plantation, gave birth on Saturday night to twins weighing 16 lbs.

From an accurate count made Wednesday morning, before 9 o'clock, it was ascertained that 2,628 water-closets and 83 carts were in the Raleigh market.

The Methodist Church at Rocky Mount has been repaired outside, coiled and frescoed within, a handsome circular altar added, and a neat paling will enclose the ground.

W. H. Berry, an engineer on the Piedmont Air Line Road, weighs 275 lbs., age 51 years, has been running an engine for twenty-nine years, and was never on any road but the Georgia and Air Line.

Charlotte Observer: Capt. W. W. Davies, late Superintendent of the Spartanburg & Union Railroad, and a gentleman who is well known and much esteemed in this city, has been appointed soliciting agent for the Piedmont Air-Line Railroad.

Tarboro Southerner: From a private letter we learn that Billie Burns, an idiotic young white man living in Washington, was attacked with a fit, fell into a ditch on the outskirts of it, and was drowned last week.

Raleigh Observer: It affords us great pleasure to state that in Raleigh piety is on the increase. Some one broke into Alfred Williams' book store last evening and stole twelve bibles, ten hymn books, and left all the money in the drawer.

Magnolia Record: A rattlesnake was killed a few days since on the plantation of Mr. George D. Herring, in Rockfish township, in this county, measuring four feet in length and nine inches circumference. His snakeship had ten rattles and a button.

Raleigh News: Among many valuable gifts for the premium list of the State Fair is a superb organ, value $330, given by Messrs. E. P. Needham & Son, 143 East 23d street, New York. This will be presented by the society to the Female College in the State which shall make the finest exhibition of painting, embroidery, sewing, fancy work &c.

Newbern Nut Shell: To give our readers an idea of the immense watermelon patch cultivated this season by Mr. W. B. Coleman, the celebrated Carteret county truck farmer, we can say, on good authority, that his crop will reach the enormous amount of 75,000. He has already shipped four schooner loads of his melons, each cargo being 7,000, for New York and Philadelphia, and is now loading another. Mr. Coleman expected to raise 100,000 melons this season, but the heavy rains which have visited that section has cut off his crop one-fourth.

Charlotte Observer: Day before yesterday morning, the negro Rufe Lawrence, who had a grudge against Dock, took two red balls, of what material we do not know, and naming one Adam and the other Eve, prepared to place them in a pail of water. If Adam went to the bottom and Eve stayed on top, it meant that he must kill Dock; if Eve went to the bottom and Adam stayed on top, it meant that he must let him live. The balls were placed in the water and Adam went to the bottom. Lawrence left home, went to the field where Dock was at work, sought a difficulty with him, seized a hoe and broke his skull and then fled.

Fayetteville Gazette: We are much pained to announce the death of our friend, Capt. A. A. McIver, of Moore county, which occurred suddenly at Jonesboro last Tuesday. Capt. McIver had been unwell, had been asleep, and, on awaking, had made some remark to his wife, who passed into another room; to find him on her return groaning and already in the grasp of death. Capt. McIver was a native of Robeson county; he was a gallant soldier during the war, and was commanding officer of the Scotch Boys, who formed part of Gen. Matt Ransom's splendid brigade. He was a member of the Legislature of 1874-75, and served his people there faithfully; he married an estimable lady, daughter of Mr. N. B. Bryan, whom he leaves with two or three interesting children to mourn their loss.

PROSPECTUS OF THE Maryland Medical Journal, BALTIMORE, MD.

ON THE FIRST DAY OF MAY NEXT, the undersigned will issue, in the city of Baltimore, the first number of THE MARYLAND MEDICAL JOURNAL. It will be a monthly publication, devoted to the advancement of Medicine in all its branches.

Each issue of the Journal will contain original articles, from representative men in the profession. Careful selections from foreign and home journals will be made with a special view to the requirements of the practitioner.

Reports of the progress of Surgery and Medicine in their special, as well as general branches, including Diseases of the Eye and Ear, Diseases of the Nervous System, Diseases peculiar to Women, and Diseases of the Throat and Chest, will be regularly given by men eminent in these several branches. These reports will be an exhibit in abstract form of the progress in each of these special departments during the year.

The proceedings of Medical Societies will be published as often and as fully as their importance justifies. Prominence will be given to rare and interesting cases of Hospital and Private Practice. New Instruments and Appliances, New Remedies and improved methods of managing disease will be specially treated. New medical publications, as they appear, will be critically and impartially reviewed.

No labor or expense will be spared to render the MARYLAND MEDICAL JOURNAL, a welcome visitor to every physician desirous of keeping pace with the progress of Medical Science as developed both abroad and at home.

Contributions on subjects of interest to the profession, respectfully invited. Each number will contain not less than forty pages, printed from new type, on heavy calendered paper of the finest quality.

The subscription price will be $3 per annum, invariably in advance, delivered free of postage.

H. E. T. MANNING, M. D. T. A. ASHBY, M. D.

The Carolina Farmer. THE UNDERSIGNED will resume the publication of the CAROLINA FARMER, on the 1st day of September next, with Mr. HAMILTON McMILLAN as Associate Editor.

The FARMER will be issued monthly, in magazine form, with handsome cover, and will contain thirty-two pages of reading matter, adapted to the wants of the Farmers and Planters of the two Carolinas. The typographic excellence which formerly distinguished it will be fully maintained.

Terms of Subscription: One year, $1.50. Six months, $1.00. Three months, 50 cents. There will be no club rates. Subscriptions payable on receipt of first number. The old friends of the FARMER are requested to send in their names. WM. H. BERNARD, Proprietor, Wilmington, N. C.

THE Daily REVIEW. A News Paper, published every evening (Saturday excepted) - AT - $5 A Year, Or 50 cents a month, strictly in advance

The Reading Public are respectfully informed that it shall be the constant aim of the proprietor to furnish them with

A LIVE NEWSPAPER, containing the latest news of the day, and endeavoring to keep its readers fully informed in regard to events of interest and importance occurring in every quarter of the world.

OUR DAILY MARKET REPORTS: Who full and correct, and will be kept open until the latest possible moment. Merchants in the city and country may rest assured that they will be thoroughly reliable.

The News Columns Will contain the reports, both of news and markets, received here each day at noon, and the LOCAL DEPARTMENT Has been placed in careful and experienced hands. Friends in the section of country connected with this city, will greatly oblige the Editor, and will contribute additional interest to these columns by forwarding any items of news that may occur in their respective localities.

ALL CORRESPONDENCE, On matters of general interest will be gladly received, but our friends must bear in mind that they must write only on one side of the paper; that they must forbear useless verbiage, must correct their own manuscript and must avoid abusive personalities. A reliable name must be furnished with each communication, as the Editor will not be held accountable for the views or language of correspondents.

OUR SUBSCRIPTION LIST, Even before a type was set for the first issue, was an exceedingly flattering one, and is probably the largest bona fide list with which any newspaper in North Carolina ever before began publication, and is now rapidly on the increase, especially on the various railroad lines.
