LOVE OF CAPS.

fashion's Latest-The Revival of the Head-gear of Sir Joshua's

We are told that both young and martel lailes are again to wear dress caps: to little ornamental affairs perched on begrown of the head, such as matrons hars been affecting, but genuine mob caps turbans, such as were worn by the leadies depicted on canvas by Sir Joshua lapalds and Sir Peter Lely, such as Lady Wortley Montague and Angelica man, and her distinguished paoss, Lady Wentworth, were. At saris we have a hint of what these sare to be. Among the Paris novelare found breakfast, dinner, reception and opera caps. They are all made with to cover all the mires on the front crimps or love locks, , perhaps, a little firinge in the back of organdy, or Swiss; it has ruines
