CAROLINA.

Of the ninety-four Counties in this State only ten or fifteen have authorized an Inferior Court.
Rocky Mount Mail: A very interesting revival of religion closed at Philadelphia Baptist Church, Thursday of last week; some 30 to 40 persons professed conversion.
Charlotte Observer: A hundred and seventy-five pennyweights of gold from Rutherford county passed through the city to the Philadelphia mint yesterday, to be worked up.

Charlotte Observer: At a meeting of the Charlotte Greys, held at their armory last night, the company voted unanimously to go to the State Fair. They will have a good representation.

Charlotte Observer: Passengers who arrived here yesterday afternoon by the Statesville train, report that the laborers employed on the Western Insane Asylum at Morganton, 60 in number, struck yesterday for higher wages and stopped work.

Elizabeth City Economist: On Friday night last the stables and shed of Edward Leigh, of Durant's Neck, were fired by an incendiary and consumed, together with a quantity of fodder and farm vehicles and implements.

Rockingham Spirit: The first bale of new cotton of the season sold in the market was brought in on last Saturday by Mr. Thomas M. Whitlock, of this county. We are not able to state definitely how it classed or the price it brought; it was something over 9 cents, however. One other bale was brought in during the week by Mr. James H. Covington, Sr., and sold for 10 cents per pound.

Wilson Advance: At the depot at Rocky Mount, on Tuesday, there was a big coincidence and we doubt if a more weighty event will occur again in some time. In a crowd of thirteen, there were six gentlemen, who weighed 1418 lbs., thus averaging over 236 each. In this "heavy weights," Ex-Mayor Thompson of Whitakers wore the champion belt, Judge Howard, of Tarboro, coming out second best.

Morganton Blade: The Trustees of the Diocesan school, with some of our citizens, held a meeting in the Court House on Monday to fix a scale of prices for tuition, &c. A subscription paper was then drawn up and is now being circulated about town with the expectation of securing a sufficient number of day scholars here to justify the opening of the school as soon as the teacher, to be employed by the Bishop, can arrange to come.

Rocky Mount Mail: While visiting the family of Mr. H. G. Leonard, of this county, a few days ago, we were shown a gourd grown by a Mr. Bunting, the great grand-father of Mrs. Leonard, over one hundred and fifty years ago. Mr. B. was an emigrant from England to Va., about 1070, and about 1760, at an advanced old age, came to N. C. and settled in Nash county, bringing this gourd with him. It was grown some time between 1700 and 1760, and used as a powder gourd. It will hold about one pound of powder, is now in a fine state preservation, has a lye red color and appears to be able to stand centuries to come. In the same family is a pair of spectacles worn by the grand-mother of Mrs. Leonard before the Revolutionary war, and the family can trace their having been in use to as early a date as 1770. They are steel framed, heavy and clumsy.

Grand Review of Volunteer and Cadet Companies and Target Practice.

SUPERVISORS.
Gen. Johnstone Jones, Adjutant-General of North Carolina; Col. W. L. DeRosset, New Hanover; Col. Thomas S. Kenan, Wilson; Col. R. F. Armfield, Iredell.

To all Companies of the N. C. State Guard who shall receive invitations to participate:

The North Carolina Agricultural Society offers a handsome flag, to be shot for annually, as the champion flag of the State, for the Company which attains the best average of shots at the Fair, in accordance with the rules of target practice that will be found below.

The company which receives this flag is expected to return the same, under proper military escort, should it fail to attend the next Fair from any reason.

To the best individual shot will be awarded a fine Whitney military rifle, calibre 45, to remain the property of the successful shot, generously donated by the Whitney Arms Company, of New Haven, Conn.

To the best single shot, a handsome prize plume.

RULES FOR TARGET PRACTICE, UNDER DIRECTION OF THE SUPERVISORS.
The following are the rules and regulations governing the target practice of the North Carolina State Guard at the North Carolina State Fair of 1877:

Target—Twenty-two inches in diameter, with stake sufficiently long to make top of target six feet from the ground.

Bull's Eye—Four inches in diameter.

Distance—Two hundred yards.

Arms—Military rifles, of patterns issued by the State of North Carolina.

Each company represented at the Fair by at least ten (10) men, exclusive of officers, will be represented in the target practice by a team of five (5) men, inclusive of officers. Each member of this team will be allowed three (3) shots.

The aggregate counts of each team will represent the score of the Company.

The counting will be as follows:

Miss—22 inches.

Bull's Eye—0.

Every shot in the target outside of the bull's eye will be counted by inches and the fractional parts thereof, measuring from the outside of the bull's eye to the nearest side of the hole made by the shot.

The shots will be fired without rest in a standing position.

The company team that scores the best aggregate (that is, the fewest number of inches, &c.) will receive the champion flag and hold the same, subject to competition.

The best individual shot—that is, the individual whose three shots aggregate the fewest number of inches—will receive the prize rifle, not subject to competition.

The best single shot will receive the champion plume, subject to competition.

BINGHAM CADETS.

The Cadets of the Bingham school, Maj. Robt. Bingham commanding, will visit the Fair throughout the week. On Thursday, Oct. 18th, they will exercise in the skirmish drill, between the hours of 11 a. m. and 1 p. m.
