Charlotte Observer: Mr. H. A. Hunter. Huntersville, this county, who has a returned gold mine, which, by the way, has been advertisad for sale, has raised on the same plantation a sweet potate which "three pounds. He doesn't know whether it will pay better to raise potatees or dig

Statesville Landmark: Eleven car leads of fit, plump yearlings, consisting of two bundred and fifty-five head, from Jack-son and Cherokee counties, passed down the Western North Carolina Road Westthe Western North Carolina Road Wed-nesday. They were way-billed to Baltmore. A five bundred lot was shipped erpoo, wan sait to Vick & Mebane. by the same parties week before last. There are yet five hundred more yearlings and two thousand head of sheep to vice, Worth & Worth. be shipped during the present month.

Charlotte Observer: The ice factory which was started here last summer by Messis Stratton & Emerson, will close in a few weeks by reason of the approach of celd weather. Although the factory opened under discouraging circumstances, a similar enterprise having proved an ignoranious failure a few years before, it has already sold about one hundred tens (iwo hundred thousand pounds) of ice. The proprietors are much encourage l, and propose to enlarge their factory before next summer, and begin operations next year as soon as the warm weather begins. The Jerbruen, Nor, 277 tons, Svendsen, ice they make has given satisfaction, and the ice factory is a success.

Magnolia Record: On Monday morning last, as the northern bound fleight train was backing on the side track, one of the hands employed on the train, in attempting to uncouple a car, got his foot caught in the frog of the switch, and he was thrown down and a portion of the train an over him. The wheels of the cars cought him at the upper portion of the G P Sherwood, Br, 399 tons, Turner, left thigh and ran diagonally across it erushing it in a fearful manner, and across the pelvis and right arm. He is a colored man named William McCu Hough and has been in the employ of the railroad company for some time. Capt. Knight. on whose train the accident occurred, it forms us that he was a very steady and reliable man. We saw the sufferer in a her few moments after the accident, and he certainly had a plenty of courage and pluck, for not a murmur escaped him while we were present. Dr. J. W. Mc-Gee was soon at hand and rendered such sargical assistance as the case demanded. How a person so mutilated could live an
