VERY SAD.

The Washington Republican speaks of "the sad announcement of the conviction of ex-Senator Sawyer, ex-Commissioner of Customs Haines, and others of conspiracy to defraud the government," and yet the Republican has not gone into mourning over this "sad" event, "sad" indeed to its party but hardly anything more than just.

THE FALL ELECTIONS.

Elections were to have been held on Monday (and we suppose they were) n Connecticut for town officers and yet the telegraphic dispatches (from all parts of the world), have so far failed to tell us

On Tuesday, October 2, the people Colorado will elect a judge of their Supreme Court, to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge E. T. Wells, and county and town officers, and will vote upon two amendments to their constitution. One of these amendments confers the right of suffrage upon women, and the State has been thoroughly canvassed in its favor by its friends. The other provides for filling vacancies in the offices of Supreme, District and County judges-in the first two cases by the Governor, and in the latter by the county commissioners

On Tuesday, October 9, the people of Ohio will elect a full ticket of State officers and a Legislature which will choose a United States Senator. They will also vote upon an amendment to their constitution, reorganizing the judiciary of the State, and upon an act to authorize free banking. For State officers there are six tickets in the field-Democratic, Republican, Greenback, Prohibition and two Workingmen's.

On Tuesday, October 9. the people of Iowa will elect State officers and their Legislature. There are four full tickets for State officers in the field, the Republican ticket being headed by John H. Gear for Governor, the Democratic by John P Thenew counterfeit $50 legal-tender Irish the Greenback by Daniel P. Stubbs, the convention refused to accept him. No nominations were made for Governor or

Judge of the Supreme Court. The annual town elections in Connecticut were to have been held on Monday, October 1, and for the first time the history of the State the minority were enabled to elect a portion of the officials, under the provisions of an act passed by the last Legislature, and approved by Gov. Hubbard providing for minority representation in the boards of selectmen, assessors and relief. At the same time the people voted upon two amendments to the constitution of the State-one prohibiting extra compensation to any public officer during his term of service, and the other forbidding county or town aid to railroad corporations hereafter in any form whatever. On Tuesday, November 6, another election will be held, when eleven of the members of the Senate and the complete House of Representatives of Connecticut will be chosen. The people of Maryland will choose on the 9th of November a Comptroller and the Legislature. The Legislature will elect a United States Senator. On Tuesday, November 6, the regular election of State officers, Legislature, &c., occurs in Virginia. As yet only Democratic nominations have been made for State officers, with Col. Frederick W. M. Holliday as the candidate for Governor. There is no Republican candidate, but an "Independent" is talked of.

Wisconsin will elect on Tuesday, November 6, its full ticket of State officers and the Legislature. For the former there are four tickets in the field.

The people of Mississippi will elect on Tuesday, November 6, their Governor and the members of the Legislature. For Governor the only candidate yet in the mocratic incumbent.

New Jersey elects on Tuesday, November 6, its Governor, one-third of its Senate, and its Assembly. For Governor there are already four tickets in the field -the Republicans, the Democrats, the Prohibitionists and the Greenbackers.

On November 6, the people of Massa chusetts hold their annual election of State officers, Legislature, and other officers. For State officers four complete tickets are in the field.

Minnesota elects her full ticket of State officers. The Republicans, the Prohibitionists, and the Greenbackers have nominated their tickets. The Democrats were to have held their nominating convention in St. Paul yesterday.

A special election will be held in Nebraska on Tuesday, November 6, for the choice of a Justice of the Supreme Court and two regents of the State University. No candidates have yet been nominated.

On Tuesday, November 6, elections of county officers will be held throughout Illinois.

On Wednesday, December 5, the per ple of Georgia will close the elections of the year. They will elect the members of their Legislature, and will ratify or reject by the popular vote the new constitution prepared by the convention recently held in Atlanta and dominated over by Robert Toombs. The Legislature thus chosen will elect a United States Senator as successor of Gen. Gordon.
