

ONWARD BOUND.
Floating from dawn to dusk,
The mystery light dies
And the misty night from the sapphire
And cloud all the sapphires skies.
Floating, floating, while golden stars
Shine from the sea overhead,
Down orange and purple and red,
We seem floating out from the sea of life,
In the storm-winds of passion,
Out into strange, mysterious space,
And shall find us a landing place.
Floating, drifting, to lands unknown,
From a world of love and care;
Floating away to a home united
And a heart that is waiting there.
And a sail swiftly—O waters deep!
Lead me safe to the heaven unknown—
To the tender love that waits
To be forever my own.
Lead me away from the sea of life,
In the storm-winds of passion,
Out to a shore
Where life is love forevermore.
