LATEST NEWS.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—A telegram from Bucharest, dated yesterday, says that on Sunday a body of Russians carried the Turkish position at Telische, west of Plevna. One Pacha, several officers and seven companies of Turkish troops were taken prisoners. Three cannons were captured.

A Constantinople despatch says a detachment of Pussians are at Slattiza, south of the Balkans, in the rear of Orhanie. The evident purpose of this raid is to cut the railroad above Tartar Basarischek and the road leading thence through Samakow to Sofia over which all the supplies for Plevna are brought.

A special despatch from Silistria states that the Russians are constructing a battery on an island two miles east of that place.

Monkhtar Pacha, telegraphing on Saturday, announced that the Russians were encamped within three hours' march of his headquarters.

A special despatch from Alexandropol to the St. Petersburg Golos, dated Oct. 27, gives no later information about Kara that the place is completely invested.

The despatch says General Terpsichas has occupied Bayazid.

A correspondent at Belgrade telegraphs that the Governor of Bosnia has informed the Porte that most of the members of the Bosnian provisional government are now on Austrian soil and requests that the Porte apply for their internment.

Russian emissaries are active in Bosnia and have succeeded in exciting a fresh insurrection on the Austro-Cosnian frontier.

A Vienna despatch says that rails supplied by a Vienna merchant to the Roumanian government for a railway in Wallachia having been seized in transit through Hungary the Vienna Cabinet asked for their immediate release. The Hungarian Cabinet refused, alleging that the rails were contraband of war.

Senator Morton Failing.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Dr. Bliss, who returned yesterday from Senator Morton's bedside, holds out no encouragement whatever for his recovery. He says that the Senator's digestive organs are not performing any functions, and that it has been found necessary to adopt heroic treatment and to sustain his life by hypodermic injections of cod liver oil. While Dr. Bliss does not say so openly, there is no doubt that he considers the Senator's case hopeless, pronouncing as he does the disease "a progressive malady."

Senator McDonald of Indiana received the following despatch to-night from Gov. Burbank: "Senator Morton is no longer unable to retain anything upon his stomach. His friends are very much discouraged." Senator McDonald thinks that despatch was carefully worded, and in the mildest form possible, so as not to give alarm, yet he feels despondent regarding the condition of Mr. Morton, whose death, he says, may be expected at any moment. The opinion prevails here that should Senator Morton's illness prove fatal, Dan Voorhees of Indiana will be undoubtedly appointed to fill the vacancy in the Senate.

Latest—Senator Morton is gradually sinking, and it now seems scarcely possible that he can last more than a day or two.

The Hurricane at Curacao.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The Department of State has received from the U. S. Consul at Curacao, Dutch West Indies, an account of the terrible hurricane which swept over that island on the 23d of last month, September. The loss of property is estimated at $2,000,000. The loss of life could not be estimated at the date of the Consul's writing, but was undoubtedly large. In the city of Curacao many of the most solid structures were crushed as if they had been things of paper by the waves, which rolled upon them mountain high, and many persons were buried in the ruins. People who were rich were made paupers in an hour. The plantations suffered largely also; most of the plantations being strewn with uprooted trees and wrecks.

No Hope of a Short Session.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Such chances as there may have been for a short session disappeared altogether to-day in the adjournment of the House until Wednesday. Some effort was made to defeat the motion to adjourn by the members who are anxious to pass a resolution in some shape calling for the repeal of the Resumption act. The majority of the opinion that it will legislate when the time comes, and meanwhile, will not pass useless resolutions nor permit votes upon them. After several votes and a good deal of disorder the motion to adjourn was at last carried by a round majority.

Negotiating with Japan.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—Private letters from a highly respectable source in Japan say unequivocally that the recent secret negotiations between England and Japan on one side, and Russia and Japan on the other, have embraced the following points and results: England insists on sharing all of Japan's advantages in opening Corea, and Japan refuses to concede the amount. Russia consents to support Japan's refusal to any extremity if Japan will waive her claim to a northern port of entry and choose one further south.

Death of Gen. Forrest.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 29.—Gen Bedford Forrest, the great Confederate cavalry officer, died at 7 o'clock this evening at the residence of his brother, Col. Jesse Forrest.

CAROLINA.

The new Deedkeeper of the House of Representatives, Col John W Polk, of Missouri, is a lineal descendant of the Mecklenburg family of that historic name.

Oxford Torchlight. Mr. W. S. Holloway living near Blue Wing, in this county, recently discovered a vein of gold on his plantation. Parties from Danville are already working the mine which promises to prove lucrative.

Charlotte Observer: A little son of Mr. J. P. Davidson, who lives in the Mechanicsville section of this city, yesterday morning fell from a fence at the school house of the first ward public school, of which he is a pupil, and broke his right arm about mid way between the wrist and the elbow.

Another Home. Probably the oldest individual in Western North Carolina, or in the whole State, is a darkey who goes by the name of Old Cross. Old Cross lives within a mile of Dr. Wm. B. Mendenhall near the Lincoln and Gaston R.R. His exact age is not known, but the papers and record of the time he was set free show that he cannot be less than 120 years old. He can entertain you all day with tales about the revolutionary war, and he has told them over and over until the old man now actually believes them himself.

Oxford Torchlight: There is on the farm of Mr. R. H. Hamme, near Oxford, an apple tree which gave this year the marvelous yield of six thousand two hundred and thirty-six (6236) apples; twenty-four and a half bushels; more than eight barrels. Aggregate weight nine hundred and sixty pounds. In addition to these it is estimated that about two bushels were gathered before the final harvest. The height of the tree is seventeen feet, greatest diameter twenty-one feet, diameter of trunk twelve and a half inches.

Charlotte Observer: Yesterday afternoon a little son of Mr. John McK Alexander, aged about two years, fell from a balcony in the rear of the Mansion House, a distance of fifteen feet, and came near losing his life. The clerk of the hotel happened to be at the back window, and saw him falling. When taken up he was entirely senseless, and remained in this condition for some time. Dr. Gibbon was called in, and after a careful examination decided that no bones were broken; and he was unable to discover any injuries except a very bad bruise on the back and hip.

Southern Lead. Mr R C Ratchford of South Point, Gaston county, is now in his eighty-eighth year. He is the oldest man in that section and now picks on an average of about 95 pounds of cotton a day. He can also follow the plow from sun up to dusk. He thinks nothing of stepping over to a neighbor's who lives five miles away. He walks everywhere he goes and never thinks of riding his horse even to the field. He has not been in Charlotte for more than 40 years, and though he only lives seven miles from the railroad, he has never ridden on the cars in his life.

Washington Press: We were shown a few days ago by Mr. B. F. Godley, the owner of two large bucks locked together as they were found. They had been fighting and their horns becoming locked they were unable to loose them. The neck of one was found to have been broken and the other, unable to free himself, had died in that condition, game to the last. The horns were taken from the heads of the animals only a few days after death, and Mr. Godley informs us that he had only found one man who could unloose them and put them together again.

Charlotte Observer: William Ross, a native of this city, who had been absent for many years, until about six months ago, has been working during the present season with Mack Matthews, Esq., son of the late Jack Matthews, in Providence town-ship, and last Friday or Saturday the two were riding along the road in a wagon, going to Mr. Matthews' home, perhaps from Charlotte, when a difficulty sprang up between them. After hot words they got out of the wagon and in a fistful which ensued Mr. Matthews was worsted. They resumed their journey, but the quarrel having been again renewed they again got out of the wagon, this time near Mr. Ainslie's creek, and engaged in a desperate fight, during which Matthews drew a knife and inflicted in the breast of Ross a stab from which he is expected to die. He was living at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, but parties who came in from the country yesterday report that he died yesterday morning. This report, however, lacks confirmation and need not yet be believed.

[Raleigh News.]

We think our State peculiarly fortunate in having the chairmanship of the Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads. Now we will have more postal facilities; or North Carolinians will know the reason why of the excellent chairman, Hon. Alfred M. Waddell. He is a thorough-going, patriotic son of the old North State; he looks well after the interests of our commonwealth; and we shall expect to see, pretty soon, post roads intersecting all parts of the State, and new post-offices springing up wherever needed.

[Raleigh Observer.] Abstracts of Taxes.

The following counties reported to the Auditor's office yesterday:
New Hanover—Total valuation of taxable property, $6,443,716.00; general State tax, $8,605.11; special State tax, $8,165.67; school tax, $7,608.13; county tax, $60,869.02. The unlisted taxables amount to $6,699.99.
