O beauty, trailing sadness! Despair, hope's loftiest birth! with tears and aspirations Have ye bedewed the earth. The opening buds of April Untimely frrost may chill, The soul of sweet October Faints out in mystery still.

What burlest thou, gay childhood? Swift youth, what fled with thee? Laugh at our losses, sorrow, As in some god-like glee?

Away, away forever,

Our vessels seem to sail;

The eternal breath o'ertakes them

Home speeds them every gale.

ONE NIGHT OF SWEARING

The Fearful Sounds that Kept a Sleeping-Car Awake All Night.

[Burlington Hawkeye.] It was in the Cedar Rapids sleeper. Outside it was dark as the inside of an ink bottle. In the sleeping-car people slept.

Some of them slept, like Christian men and women, peacefully and sweetly and

Others slept like demons, malignantly, hideovsly, fiendishly, as though it was their mission to keep everybody else

Of these, the man in lower number three was the "boss." When it came to a square snore with variations, you wanted to count "lower three" in, with a full hand and a pocket full of rocks.

We never heard anything snore like him. It was the most systematic snoring that was ever done, even on one of those tottnaments of snoring, a sleeping car. He didn't begin as soon as the lamps were turned down and everybody was in bed. Oh, no. There was more cold-blooded diabolism in his system than that. He waited until everybody had had a little taste of eleep, just to see how good and pleasant it was, and then he broke in on their slumbers like a winged, breathing demon, and they never knew what peace was again that night. He started off with a terrific "Gn-r-r-t !"

That opened every eye in the car. We all hoped it was an accident, however, and trusting that he wouldn't do it again, we all forgave him. Then he blasted our hopes and curdled the sweet serenity of our forgiveness by a long drawn "Gw-a-h-h-hah!"

That sounded too much like business to be accidental. Then every head in that sleeples sleeper was held off the pillow for a minute, waiting, in breathless suspense, to hear the worst, and the sleeper in "lower three" went on, in long-drawn, regular cadences that indicated good staying qualities.

"Gwa-a-ah! Gwa-a-a-h! Gahwahwah! Gahwahwah! Gahwa-a-a-ah!" Evidently it was going to last all night and the weary heads dropped back on the sleepless pillows, and the swearing began. It mumbled along in low, muttering tones, like the distant echoes of a profane thunderstorm. Pretty soon "lower three" gave us a little variation. He shot off a spite-"Gwook!"

Which sounded every much as though his nose had got angry at him and was going to strike. Then there was a pause, and we began to hope he had either awakened from sleep or strangled to death, nobody cared very particularly which. But he disappointed everybody with a guttural

"Gurooch !" Then he paused again for breath, and when he had accumulated enough for his purpose he resumed business with a stentorious

"Kowpf!" He ran through all the ranges of the nasal gamut, he went up and down a very chromatic scale of snores, he ran through intricate and fearful variations until it seemed that his nose must be out at reasonable rates is at of joint in a thousand places. All the Gawoh! gurrah! gu-r-r-r! Kowpff! Gawawwah! gawah-hah! gwock! gwarrt! swah-h-h-ll-whoof!"

Just as the other passengers had consulted together how they might slay him, morning dawned, and "lower number three" awoke. Everybody watched the curtain to see what manner of man it was that had made that beautiful sleeping car a pandemonium. Presently the toilet curtains parted, and "lower number three" stood revealed.

Great heavens! It was a fair young girl, with golden hair, and timid, pleading eyes, like a hunted fawn's.

Nourishing Blood. The blood imparts to the body the elements which are essential to its existence, When these are insufficiently supplied, its energies begin to flag, there is a loss of flesh the muscles grow flaccid, the reflective powers lose vigor-every function is dised, every organ weakened. Under these circumstances, it is obvious that the constitution must soon give way unless the vital fluid is enriched. To accomplish this object, recourse should be had without delay to that grand fertilizer of the blood, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which promotes assimilation of the food and is the means of rendering the circulation rich and active. The good effects of the great tonic are speedily apparent in a gain of bodily wigor and mental energy. A regular action of the various organs also results from its use, the good work of bodily reform goes rapidly on, and eventually health is established upon a sure basis.

period of years, having within that time treated many thousand cases of those di-cases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and agreeable medicine that meets the indications pre-ented by that class of dis-eases with positive certainty and exactness. To designate this natural specific compound,

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon my own personal observation. As a close observer, I have, while witnessing its positive results in the few special diseases incident to the separate organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a posi-tive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly and in har-mony with the laws which govern the female system, I am willing to stake my reputation as a system, I am whing to stake my reputation as a physician. Nay, even more, so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. If a beneficial effect is not experienced by the time two-thirds of the contents of the bottle are used, I will, on return of the bottle two-thirds of the medicine having the bottle, two-thirds of the medicine having been taken according to directions, and the case being one for which I recommend it, promptly refund the money paid for it. Had I not the most perfect confidence in its virtues, I could not offer it as I do under these conditions; but having witnessed its truly infraculous cures in thousands of cases, I feel warranted and perfectly safe in risking both my reputation and my money on its merits.

merits. The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhea, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing Down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Des-pondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, Female Weakness, and very many other chronic diseases incident to woman not mentioned here. In all affections of this nature, my Favorite Prescription works cures—the marvel of Prescription works cures - the marvel of the world. This medicine I do not extol as a cure-all, but it admirably fulfills a single-ness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent. post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those

The Wilmington Journal. Family

THE PUBLICATION OF THE WIL-MINGTON JOURNAL will be resumed in the city of Wilmington, the initial number to be issued on the first Thursday in December.

As has always heretofore been the case with this staunch old weekly, the JOURNAL in politics will represent none but the soundest and truest Democratic principles, faithful to the traditions of that party, steady to its present principles and unforgetful of the great fraud by virtue of which a Republican administration assumes the duties of the position fairly won by the Democratic party.

Our market reports will be a prominent part of the paper and will present the most valuable points of transactions up to the very hour of going to press, while especial care and attention will be paid to the editorial, news and miscellaneous depart-

One of the most prominent features of the paper will be its agricultural department and on this, which will be placed in the hands of a gentleman well qualified to manage it, experience as well as care will be trought to bear.

The WILMINGTON JOURNAL will be published from the office o the DAILY REVIEW, every Thursday afternoon at 2.00

The movement of political affairs have kept pace with the discoveries of science and their fruitful application to the industrial and useful arts and the convenience and refinement of social life. Great wars, and cousequent revolutions have occurred, involving national changes of peculiar moment. The civil war of our country, which was at its height when the last volume of the old work appeared, has happily ended, and a new course of commercial and industrial activity has been commenced.

Large accessions to one geographical knowledge have been made by the indefatigable explorer of Atrica. The great political revolutions of the last decade, with the natural result of the lapse of time, have brought into public view a multitude of new men, whose names are in every one's mouth, and of whose lives every one is curious to know the particulars Great battles have been fought and impor-tant sleges maintained; of which the details are as yet preserved only in the newspapers or in the trasient publications of the day, and which ought now to take their place in permanent and authentic history.
