A baby always learns to say "no" several months before it can say "yes." Strange, considering that there are so many more girls in the world than boys!

A New Albany, Ind., woman has been fined $5 for eavesdropping, and would it not be well for some residing nothing like so far from Wilmington to be on their guard?

A rumor comes from Paris that bonnets are to be worn on the head hereafter. It strikes us the head would be a good place on which to wear a bonnet, but such a departure will look a little odd at first.

The first quarterly meeting for the present Conference year at the Fifth Street Methodist Church will be held on Saturday and Sunday, the 22d and 23d insts. The services will be inaugurated by a love feast this (Friday) night.

To-morrow being a National holiday the Custom House will be closed during the day and the Post Office from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

The offices at the City Hall will also be closed except the Chief of Police's quarters which will be opened all day for the reception of visitors.

Indications.
WAR DEPARTMENT
Office of the Chief Signal Officer.
Washington D. C., Feb. 21th 1879.
For the South Atlantic States Northernly to easterly winds and continued cold clear or partly cloudy weather during the rest of Friday with stationary or slowly rising barometer.

Don't Do It.
Do not buy yeast powder or baking powder of short weight. A manufacturer that defrauds by short weight will not hesitate to make adulterated goods. You can always rely on DOOLY'S YEAST POWDER being full weight and strictly pure.

As our reporter came along Water Street last night, shivering with the chill night air, and drawing his overcoat tightly about him, he thought, "now is the time for colds and coughs," but if poor mortals only knew what a certain cure Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is, how few would long suffer, and then it costs only twenty-five cents.—Sandusky (Ohio) Register.

Larceny.

Emanuel Truesdale, colored, was arrested this morning charged with larceny of hay from Jesse Weatherly of Cape Fear Township. He was committed for trial before Justice Hall to-morrow morning.

Theatricals.

According to the Dramatic News, this city will be visited by two or three theatrical troupes during the month of March. The first will be the "Milton Jasper Combination, which is booked for the fifth proximo.

Removal of the Signal Office.

It is rumored that the Signal Office in this city is to be removed from its present location to the rooms of the Cape Fear Club, in the Dawson bank building. The change, if made, will prove much more convenient to the public, and the office will be much easier of access than the one now in use for signal office purposes.

The Southern Planter and Farmer.

This sterling agricultural monthly maintains its high character for ability and practical usefulness to the farmer and gardener. The February number is full of just such matter, original and written by successful farmers, as our people need. Every number is worth the yearly subscription price—two dollars. L. B. Dickenson, Esq., Editor and Proprietor, Richmond, Va.

Unmailable.

The following is a list of unmailable papers and letters remaining in the city Postoffice:
Rev Theodore Gould, 631 Public street, Philadelphia, Penn; Mrs Sarah A Murray, Brown's Turnout, N. C.; D. H. Smith, for Henry Adams, Aspinwall, W. S. I.; W. B. Elliott, Fuller's Station, Albany Co., N. Y.; Edward Bush, Constantia, Oswego Co., N. Y.

Teachers Meeting To-morrow.

We are requested to state that, not only teachers, but all who feel any interest in the rising generation are earnestly requested to be present at the meeting of the Cape Fear Teacher's Association, to hear the address of Prof. John J. Ladd, Superintendent of the University State Normal School, which will be delivered to-morrow (Saturday 22nd) at 10 o'clock, a. m., at the Tileston Upper Room.

Fire-Proof Building.

Improvements are the order of the day on Water street just at this period. The building formerly occupied by Messrs Murray & Co., and which was subsequently partially destroyed by fire has nearly been rebuilt and is fast reaching completion. Yesterday workmen commenced the erection of a handsome new fire proof building near the corner of Water and Chestnut streets on the site where a large wooden warehouse formerly stood. We did not ascertain who has the contract to erect the building but found out it is to be built of green lumber covered with second hand tin and is to be ten by twelve feet. It will be a big improvement to the street and will enhance the value of property in the locality—perhaps.

Soon to Retire.

The Magistrates in this county who step down and out next August are as follows:
Wilmington Township—Antony Howe colored.
Cape Fear Township—Henry E. Scott, white.
Masonboro Township—Jno. E. Wagner, white.
Harnett Township—John A. Helt, colored.
Federal Point Township—Stephen D. Keyes, white.

All the foregoing named persons are Republicans in politics, and it is to be hoped that the Legislature which appoints on the 26th inst., persons to fill the vacancies of the above named offices, will show a little more discretion and better judgment than the last Legislature exercised in making similar appointments. In other words we hope that the voice of the Democratic citizens in the different townships where these vacancies occur will be heard and not disregarded as was the case in the last General Assembly; and that instead of giving us a sprinkling of Republicans we may have the new appointments made entirely from the ranks of the Democratic party.

If anything will convince a not altogether bad man that he is a brute it is the sweet forgiveness of a delicate woman.

New Club.

A new social Club has been organized in this city styled the "Carolina Club," with rooms over Messrs. P. L. Bridgers & Co's store in the new MacRae building, on Front street.

The officers are Thos. W. Strange, President Wm. Lattimer, First Vice-President; T. Edward Sprunt, Second Vice-President; Thos. H. McKay, Jr., Secretary and N. F. Parker Treasurer. The Club has nearly forty members so far we believe, which number will be speedily increased no doubt if the Club desires it, so soon as the organization is in full blast. One of the cardinal principles of this institution, we may remark here sub-rosa—is, that no intoxicating beverages of any kind and no gambling will be permitted in these rooms under penalty of expulsion to any member so offending. Success and good health to such an organization say we.

"Howard Relief" Anniversary.

The Howard Relief Fire Engine Company celebrated its twenty-third anniversary at their hall yesterday in their usual quiet and pleasant manner. It was a season of good and substantial enjoyment, in which all present participated to the utmost.

In the evening, the Company gave a grand ball at Germania Hall, where with music and dancing, interrupted only by a sumptuous supper, the moments glided all too swiftly by until a late hour. Nothing occurred during the day or evening to mar the pleasure of the festivities, and all were delighted with a day of unalloyed happiness.

Criminal Court.

His Honor, Judge Meares and Mr. Solicitor Moore, rattled off business pretty rapidly this morning, as in fact they have done during the whole term and which we may remark here par parenthesis is a characteristic of this Court at all of its sessions.

A great many cases were taken up and disposed of and judgement rendered and sentences passed upon the majority of those who have been convicted at this term. The most notable of which we herewith publish.

State vs. Mack Daniel, col., convicted of assault and battery, sentenced to pay the costs, or go to the House of Correction for thirty days.

State vs. Edward, Thomas, col., convicted of wilful perjury. Motion made for a new trial.

Jacob Freeman, col., convicted of killing live stock, property of Jas. Wilson, judgement suspended upon payment of costs and $8 for the stock that was killed.

State vs. James Anderson, colored, convicted of larceny. Sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

Edward Merrick, colored, convicted of larceny. Sentenced to two years in the house of correction.

Harriett A. Hansley, colored, convicted of larceny of two baby dresses worth about fifteen cents a piece, discharged.

State vs. J. F. Gilbert, charged with assault and battery, found guilty and fined $10 and costs.

Geo. W. Johnson, colored, convicted of larceny. Sentenced to four years in the penitentiary.

Peter Coleman, convicted of false pretense, fined $25 and costs or sentenced to two years in House of Correction.

Sarah Allen and Virginia A. Hines, colored, convicted of manslaughter sentenced to ten years in the Penitentiary.

The Court adjourned at 2 o'clock until to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock at which time His Honor will hear a few motions for new trials, arrest of judgment and so forth.

Some of our exchanges are trying to decide which is the best way to utilize tin fruit cans. Give a Wilmington small boy a piece of string, an old fruit can and a strange dog, and he will need no further instructions, but would furnish us with an item.

Thirteen years ago to-day, the Confederate forces evacuated this city, which was occupied on the following morning by Federal troops.

A good theatrical performance would draw well in this city just about now.

Col. E. R. Brink is having some improvements made in the Postoffice.

Why not make up your minds, at present, what Hotel you are going to stop at when you arrive in New York? The Grand Central, on Broadway, is now kept on both the American plan at $2.50 to $3.00, and the European plan at $1.00, and upwards, per day. An elegant Restaurant, at moderate prices is conducted by the Hotel.

For the Review.

Col. W. L. Saunders.

Mr. Editor:

The Democracy of North Carolina will be rejoiced to learn that this able and deserving gentleman is to fill the office vacated by the death of the lamented Major Engelhard. The Governor could not have selected a more worthy successor, nor one that is more endeared to the people of North Carolina. The democratic party of North Carolina owes him a deep debt of gratitude for his past able and noble services. It is in all respects just, proper and wise that he should fill the unsolicited place.

FEB. 20th 1879.

Retrenchment at Raleigh.

There is evidently great restlessness and dissatisfaction in the public mind at the slow progress made in the Legislature in the cause of Retrenchment and Reform. Upon the promises made two years ago and repeated last summer as the campaign was going on, the Democratic party regained and maintained their ascendancy in the State. Those promises remain unredemmed. If the Legislature adjourns without applying with a just and fearless hand the promised retrenchment knife to the various departments of State government as well as to county offices, the party may at once prepare for defeat at the next general election.

The startling report of the joint Retrenchment Committee of a few days ago fell like a bomb shell among the people and more than ever are tax payers indignant at past looseness and extravagance, as well as aroused for reform and economy in the future. The committee say that one hundred thousand dollars can be saved to the State by a prompt inauguration of judicious reform measures in the branches of the State Government, and that too, without the least injury to the departments and public institutions of the State. Why was not this economy inaugurated two years ago? The Committee are particularly severe upon what they call loose management and waste of the public money in the Insane Asylum, and offer a bill that is intended to make a clean sweep and to take a new start in this State charity. It is pleasing to know that there are bold and true men upon that Committee, who cannot be seduced from duty by any temptations or blandishments, or threats at the Capitol. It is indeed gratifying to the people of the State that the demands for reform have developed men in the Legislature who have the ability and the courage to come to the rescue—to come to the pressing emergencies of the day—and to assail the various departments at Raleigh, and when anything is found amiss to apply, with a fearless hand the much needed remedy. Then true North Carolinians will henceforth live in the high appreciation and gratitude of the people, while the timid time-servers and ambitious hangers-on of the Democratic party—who are too selfish to love the party or the State—will be rewarded with obscurity and forgetfulness. The people of every county are watching the course and votes of their representatives with unusual interest this spring.

No man in the Legislature has worked and spoken with more ability and shown more pluck on these measures of retrenchment than that faithful son of old Buncombe, Capt. Matt. Atkinson. He is fast making for himself a state reputation of which himself, as well as his county, should be proud. Early in the session he was the leader in raising this Committee of Retrenchment and Reform and as a fearless and efficient member of it, has probed the "nooks and corners" of all the departments and institutions, where money was expended. By the judicious application of the pruning knife which he brought to Raleigh it is shown that $100,000 can be saved and the people relieved to that extent. God bless Captain in your noble career. The people bid you God speed and will strain you whether the Raleigh influence sustains you or not. Work on for the oppressed and broken up people of our dear old State in this our hour of greatest calamity, and when, in the future, we come to make up our jewels you shall not be forgotten.

VOX POPULI

Ten Years Each.

Sarah Allen and Virginia A. Hines, the two colored women convicted of manslaughter in causing the death of Julia Ann Williams, a little colored girl, 8 years of age, were sentenced this morning by His Honor, Judge Meares, to a term of ten years each in the penitentiary.

There is no change for the worse in the condition of Dr. Wm. E. Freeman to-day, and in some respects it may be considered as rather more favorable, so that his many friends now indulge in slight hopes of his ultimate recovery.

P. L. BRIDGERS & CO.

These should read this rhyme and visit our store
Will appreciate more than ever before
That our music does not raise a sigh
To climb Olympus, and ingloriously expire
In the attempt, but keeps an even pace
With the time, and always points to the place
Where they "blow" about one special thing,
Which has, without doubt, the true business ring.
And this thing we will briefly explain,
With the hope that we will cause no pain
To brother grocers, who, in years gone by,
Learned to get goods at figures that were high.
Unfortunately we see some of them incline
To follow the customs of "Auld Lang Syne,"
But we consider it matter of congratulation
That we're no foggy notions in our education!
In old time "big profits" had a wide range,
And old habits are hard, hard to change.
Of Wilmington grocers we take the lead!
Now to prove this assertion we only need
To remind the public that our clean new store
Made others be painted and swept a little more!
Like all business men who are truly wise,
We at once began to extensively advertise,
When our friends catching the idea, thought
It well
To increase their space, as the print will tell!
At first we put some poetry in our "ad,"
But when they saw this plan was not bad,
They followed our lead. And when we tried prose
They followed sanely as if led by the nose
We next thought 'twould be well to try
rhyme,
When lo! they grasped the idea as sublime!
Though they have followed in all we have done,
When this battle is well fought and won,
Some will see that "extra per cent." isn't
"nonsense."
But with old stock and such heavy expense,
They will find that the prices of P. L. Bridgers & Co.
If followed will surely bring them to woe!
To prove that we mean what we say,
We announce that we sell for a week from to-day,
Eleven pounds of "A Sugar" for only one dollar.
Which lead we invite all grocers to follow.
The muse here caught sight of that one-horse grinding machine of Herr Von Kris Kringle, and was so thoroughly disgusted at the cheap way of grinding out poetry that neither love nor money could induce him to finish our rhyme, so it had to come to an abrupt ending.
Respectfully and Truly,
Jan 24 P. L. BRIDGERS & CO.
