IEWS AND REVIEWS.

raised a glass of liquor from a bar to his mouth, and finally died of intemperance.

During an operatic performance in Baltimore, a telephone was placed by the side of the pomper's box, the wire leading to a room several blocks distant, where several persons listened to the music. Every sound was clearly reproduced, even the audience's applause and prompter's words being distinctly given.

The committee of the Illinois Legislature, appointed to investigate the business of the Pullman Car Company, held its meeting in the Pullman office in Chicago, was provided with refreshments by the company, and concluded that the charges for drawing-room cars ought not to be lowered by law.

Spain boasts of 92 dukes, 566 marquises, 632 counts, 92 viscounts, and 97 barons, besides 44 ennobled foreigners. Two dukes, 58 marquises, 30 counts, 6 viscounts, and 2 barons have been created by the present King. The University students this year number 16,889, of whom 5,023 are studying medicine and 6,499 law.

A German merchant presented to the Emperor William, on his last birthday, a flute which had been the companion of Frederick the Great, until the loss of his front teeth, for which in those days there were no substitutes, put a finish to his performances. The flute has been placed in the Hohenzollern collection.

The number of those who in 1877-78 died of starvation in Brazil is estimated at over 150,000, exclusive of deaths indirectly resulting from it. Frightful havoc was also made by small-pox, which carried off 21,000 persons. There have been few periods in history more fertile in famine than the last lustrum.

The papers of St. Petersburg, Moscow, and other Russian cities with universities, contain many advertisements from students, offering their services as private teachers. Such advertisements are read thus: "A student having no means whatever prays for any kind of work at any rate of remuneration." Many Russian students support themselves by giving lessons in the evening, and not a few of them live on the verge of starvation. There have even been cases of death by starvation among them.

The report of the Southern Relief Committee of the New York Chamber of Commerce, whose operations embraced the period of the yellow fever epidemic of 1878, has just been printed. The total disbursements foot up $174,919.13, of which New Orleans received the sum of $78,010; Memphis $43,800, and Vicksburg $12,250. The committee raised a special fund for the family of Lieutenant Benner, U. S. A., the interest on which, $540 per annum, is to be paid to his widow and orphans, the principal to go to the survivors at the age of the youngest child.

The Trinity House, London, have found their recent experiments with a new gas for the purpose of lighting buoys, which are now useless after dark, so successful that they are having a number of buoys constructed after the new plan. The peculiarity of the gas is that a buoy full of it in a compressed state will keep a light burning for some months without need of replenishing. A lantern has been constructed in which the light is protected from spray at whatever angle it is placed. One of the lanterns, arranged on a buoy, was exposed off Trinity House wharf to the action of water from a fire engine, and it was found impossible to extinguish the light.

THE TELLER COMMITTEE.

This Committee, which was created at the instigation of Mr. Blaine, to investigate election frauds in South Carolina and Louisiana, have at last made a majority report, which has been placed before the United States Senate. As the majority of the Committee are Republicans of the most bitter and malignant kind, as a matter of course the report is full of Democratic outrages. It makes the assertion that frauds of the most flagrant character, were committed in every county save one, in South Carolina, and that the freedom of speech and ballot were virtually a dead letter in that State. In their investigation one hundred and seven witnesses were examined in South Carolina, and ninety-one witnesses in Louisiana. In the latter State the Committee claim that between thirty and forty murders were committed for political causes. The minority report has not yet been submitted.

Now who, in the name of common sense, that knows anything about the Republican party and has any knowledge of the tactics by which that party has so long held sway in the country, did not suppose that the committee would make a report substantially like the one just submitted? It was gotten up as an attempt to offset the effects of the Potter Committee, who were making startling disclosures relative to the means employed by which Mr. Hayes was put in the Presidential chair, and it was the purpose and design of its originators to have just such a report as they have made. The witnesses were examined with that object solely in view, and only such witnesses were called as would answer their purpose. The Committee was created for the purpose of maligning the South, and its labors had no other intent or meaning. The Committee had a special purpose and it also had special witnesses with which to accomplish that purpose. We have not a doubt that if the Committee had profanely attempted to prove that the millennium actually took place on the first day of April, 1878, those very witnesses would have testified affirmatively as willingly as they have testified in the case under consideration.

The Republican party has been in a dying condition for three or four years, and its moribund hours have been passed in superhuman efforts, by every means known to fraud, despotism or violence, to resuscitate itself, and this report, coming when the party is in articulo mortis, is a fitting finale to a life of vice and crime. It is the ruling passion story in death, and betrays all the feelings of vengeance with which that party has pursued and trampled upon the sacred rights of the South during all these years. It is a poisoned arrow aimed at the best interests and best people of our land, but it will fall harmless to the ground and leave no sting behind.

COL. STEELE'S SPEECH.

Hon. Walter L. Steele, from the Sixth Congressional District, made a capital speech in the House of Representatives on Tuesday last in reply to the charge made by Mr. Keifer of Ohio that fraud, violence, intimidation and murder are known to exist all over the South at each recurring election.

Col. Steele's speech was short but pithy; his words were well chosen and couched in parliamentary language, but he made Mr. Keifer out a monstrous liar for all that, and without using the offensive epithet. We mistake; there was one word in Mr. Steele's speech, which though the representative from Ohio did not object to, we do, and protest against its being used by a Southern man either in the Halls of Congress or out of it. We do not like Col. Steele's referring to the Army of Northern Virginia under General Robert E. Lee as "the insurgent army." As Captain Cuttle would say, make a note of that.

The Comanche is the most predatory of all the Indian tribes who inhabit this country. They subsist entirely by robbery and it is only the most daring and expert thief who can aspire to the distinction of a leader among them. He who can steal the most is made a chief with all the honors, just as the Republican party honors its most successful and adroit thieves.

THE CLERKS' LAMENT.

How They Have to Foot the Senatorial Reception Bills.

A Post reporter collied with a government clerk yesterday, who said: "It's a great mistake to suppose that we who are employed by the government have always soft places, plenty of money and easy times. 'How's that?'"

"Why, we could get along well enough if they would only let us alone, but we are just blackmailed to death. They not only tax our salaries heavily for the campaign fund, but every few days they come around with a special demand for money, which we don't dare refuse to comply with. These receptions for new senators are all paid for by us."

"Do they tax you heavily?"

"You would be surprised to know how much was collected for John Logan's reception. The drummers went through every one of the department and scarcely a man escaped. It is perfectly wonderful how much money it takes to meet these constant demands. I believe somebody is getting rich out of us. Many a clerk actually pays out money that he needs to buy cornbread for his family, and here we are taxed to death for torch light processions, serenades and ovals, and for scores of things that you don't know anything about. They would discharge a man if he did not sometimes contribute."

"Is that what they say to you?"

"Not exactly, though they intimate it pretty strongly, but, they don't hesitate to tell us that we will all lose our places if we don't do something to help the Grant movement."

The True Way to Invigorate.

The true way to invigorate a feeble system is to infuse activity into the operations of the stomach, that wondrous alembic in which the food is transmuted into the constituents of the blood, the chief element of our inability. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, because it accomplishes this end, is greatly to be preferred to many so called tonics, useful indeed as appetizers, but unproductive as aids to digestion and assimilation. This sterling cordial, while it invigorates the stomach, healthfully stimulates the liver, bowels, and kidneys, ensuring the escape through the regular channels of effete and useless matter thrown off by the system, which is thus purified as well as invigorated by it. Its tonic influence is soon made manifest by an increase of vital energy and a more active and regular discharge of every physical function, and it has the further effect of rendering the system unassailable by malarial epidemics.

P. L. BRIDGERS & CO.

Those who'll read this rhyme and visit our store
Will appreciate more than ever before
That our music does not vainly aspire
To climb Olympus, and ingloriously expire
In the attempt, but keeps an even pace
With the time, and always point to the place
Where they "blow" about one special thing,
Which has, without doubt, the true business ring.

And this thing we will briefly explain,
With the hope that we will cause no pain
To brother grocers, who, in years gone by,
Learned to get goods at figures that were high.

Unfortunately we see some of them incline
To follow the customs of "Auld Lang Syne";
But we consider it matter of congratulation
That we've no foggy notions in our education
In old time 'big profits' had a wide range,
And old habits are hard, hard to change.
Of Wilmington grocers we take the lead!
New to prove this assertion we only need
To rename the public that our clean new store
Made others be painted and swept a little more!

Like all business men who are truly wise,
We at once began to extensively advertise,
When our friends catching the idea, thought
it well
To increase their space, as the print will tell!

At first we put some poetry in our "ad,"
But when they saw this plan was not bad,
They followed our lead. And when we tried prose
They followed as nimbly as if led by the nose
We next thought 'twould be well to try rhyme,
When lo! they grasped the idea as sublime!
Though they have followed in all we have done,
When this battle is well fought and won,
Some will see that "extra percent." isn't
"nonsense."

But with old stock and such heavy expense,
They will find that the prices of P. L. Bridgers & Co.
If followed will surely bring them to woe!
To prove that we mean what we say,
We announce that we sell for a week from today,
Eleven pounds of "A Sugar" for only one dollar,
Which lead we invite all grocers to follow.
The man here caught sight of that one-horse
grinding machine of Herr Von Krs Kringle, and was so thoroughly disgusted at the sheep way of grinding out poetry that neither love nor money could induce him to finish our rhyme, so it had to come to an abrupt ending.

Respectfully and Truly,

CELEBRATED FERTILIZER,
THE MANIPULATED GUANO!
The Best and Cheapest!

COTTON for GUANO!

In offering to you the WILCOX, GIBBS & CO'S MANIPULATED GUANO for another season, we do so with the most perfect confidence that you will find it again the BEST AND CHEAPEST FERTILIZER in use.

It is no new article, requiring experiments to establish its value, but has been used for years with unbounded success, gaining in favor from year to year, until it is now accepted as the STANDARD FERTILIZER.

It has been our study, not to make it EQUAL to others but SUPERIOR, and for our success in these efforts we refer you to the many of your neighbors who have used it, as well as to the thousands in the South Atlantic Cotton States.

This Guano is so well known that it is unnecessary to publish any certificates but we annex a few testimonials in our circulars only from Planters who have made special tests of it alongside the Peruvian Guano, as showing how it compares with Peruvian Guano, which has heretofore been generally esteemed above all other Fertilizers.

We will have only a moderate supply for sale and would request Planters to make their orders early.

Our Agents are authorized to sell the MANIPULATED on very favorable terms, payable in cotton next Fall.
