The Pathfinder troupe played the above entitled piece to a fair audience at the Opera House last night, and will repeat the same with some variations to night. Scraps may be said to be a play without a plot, and in the absence of plot lies its chief merit. Its main features are, a party of young ladies and gentlemen bound on a picnic excursion were detained for a couple of hours while waiting for a boat to carry them to the picnic grounds, and while waiting they concluded to enjoy themselves as best they could. This they accomplish to perfection by singing, dancing and the grotesque blunders of a colored servant who accompanies them.

It is said that whiskey can be made from leather, and vinegar from shavings.

Committees were appointed for each township in the peanut section in the State, where duty it shall be to report at the next meeting the acreage and condition of the crop. The Secretary was instructed to correspond with planters in Virginia and Tennessee to gather all the information possible in regard to the extent and growth of the crops in those States, and to report at the next meeting.

Corsets.
We have the Largest Stock of CORSETS that has ever been offered in this city, and are making Specialties of the following makes. Our Goods are bought direct from the Manufacturers and Importers, and offer them at prices that will compare favorably with any Dry Goods House in the country.

Steamships Regulator and Foley both sailed this morning, the former for New York and the latter for Baltimore.
Nearly every fish and oyster in market yesterday fell into the hands of the speculators before consumers could get to the carts.
Messrs. Jas. H. Chadburn & Co. are now building a new store on Front street, to be occupied as a family grocery by Messrs. Binford & Hill.

Committees from townships in the different counties which were appointed to ascertain the number of bushels still in hands of planters then made their reports, from which the following information of stock on hand was gathered. Of the Rocky Point section there are still in first hands 10,500 bushels. Sound Section, 7,000 bushels. Brunswick, 4,000 bushels. Onslow, 2,000 bushels. Total number of bushels still held by planters, 23,500. Number of bushels estimated to be in hands of dealers in this city, 10,000.

Parasols and Fans.
We have opened this day a very large stock of Parasols and Fans, having bought Very Low for Cash. They are at least 25 per cent. less than they will be when in season. We have many Novelties.

100 dozen two and three button Kid Gloves, all shades, at 45 cents per pair, such as are sold elsewhere at $1, at Hahn's, Fourth street.
If the Board of Aldermen of this city had the welfare of the people at heart wouldn't they put some sort of a stop to the depredations of the market speculators?
There isn't so much fuss made over the inauguration of a boy's first pants-pocket as there is over the laying of a cornerstone, but there are more things to put in it.

Stock on hand stored in Wilmington at this season last year 50,000 bushels.
It was ascertained that the crop this year in North Carolina would fall short from 35,000 to 40,000 bushels.
There being no further business, the meeting adjourned subject to the call of the President.
Calicoes 4 1/2 cents per yard at Hahn's, Fourth street.

The International Review.
We have received from the publishers, Messrs. A. S. Barnes & Co., New York, the March number of the above named magazine. The subjects treated are "The Administration and Civil Service Reform," by Edward Cary; "Sleep and Dreams," by Prof. S. N. Sholar, of Cambridge; "The Currency and the National Banks," by George Walker, Vice-President of the N. Y. Gold and Stock Telegraph Company; "The Present Condition of the United States Navy," "A Forgotten English Poet," by Sidney Lanier; "Self-Government in the Territories," by Decius S. Wade, Chief Justice of Montana; "The Silver Conference and the Silver Question," by Silas Newcomb, of the U. S. Naval Observatory; besides "Critical Notices of Contemporary Literature, and a Review of Recent English Poets," by George Barnett Smith, of London. The different papers are written in a careful and scholarly manner and are well worthy of study. We consider the International as one of the very best of our reviews.

War Postage Stamps—National and Local.
A well-known collector of Confederate money, stamps and coins gives the following as a complete list of postage stamps issued in the Confederate States during the war:

Baltimore, Md.—I have used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup personally and in my family for two or three years, and am prepared to say that there is nothing to compare to it as a remedy for Coughs, Colds, etc. James Corrie, Dentist.
Corsets, 35 cents, such as are sold elsewhere at 75 cents, at Hahn's, Fourth st.
Messrs. T. B. Henderson & Co. shipped on yesterday ten barrels of spinach and kale to New York. We think it is the first shipment of the kind made from this city. The pioneers in this work propose to make regular weekly shipments.
A Big Train.
A freight train on the W. C. & A Railroad came into this city this noon consisting of 40 cars. This is one of the largest trains ever brought into Wilmington and speaks in potent language of our growing importance as a commercial centre.
A Happy Event in Prospect.
The house next East of the Cowan property on Chestnut, between Fourth and Fifth streets, is being remodeled and put in thorough repair, as the future residence of the Rev. Dr. Mendelsohn, the pastor of the Hebrew Synagogue in this city. We learn that the marriage of this eminent scholar and divine is in contemplation for the near future, to one of the fair daughters of Philadelphia.

The Border Review.
We have received the first number of a handsome 28 column folio bearing the above title, and published at Henderson, Graubville county, in this State, by Messrs. Amis, Collins & Harper, with Captain Rufus Amis as editor. This is a new candidate for favor from the reading public, and will be devoted largely to the agricultural interests of the locality in which it is published. The initial number presents a fine appearance, and its salutatory is a promise to deserve success. We wish the enterprising gentlemen who have the enterprise in charge an abundant success in their undertaking. The subscription is fixed at the very low price of $1.75 prepaid.

Convention of Peanut Growers.
The annual meeting of the Peanut Growers Association of Eastern North Carolina was held at the Purcell House in this city at 11 o'clock this morning D. T. Durham, Esq., of Rocky Point was elected President, and Mr. R. K. Bryan, Jr., of Scott's Hill Secretary. The meeting thus organized proceeded to business. Committees were appointed for each township in the peanut section in the State, where duty it shall be to report at the next meeting the acreage and condition of the crop. The Secretary was instructed to correspond with planters in Virginia and Tennessee to gather all the information possible in regard to the extent and growth of the crops in those States, and to report at the next meeting.

Worth Your While.
In these days of rigid economy when the Legislature is cutting down the salaries of our state officials and persons generally are on the "strict economic" it is well for them to know where they can get the best goods for the least money. Mr. Julius Hahn, who has just returned from the northern markets, where he has been to lay in the largest stock he has ever had, took advantage of the low prices offered him at a bankrupt sale, and is now offering goods to the citizens of this city at remarkably low prices. He has some goods slightly damaged by water which he will sell at your own price. You can get either the finest or coarsest goods or goods of medium quality at Hahn's, Fourth street.

EDITOR REVIEW:
In your issue of the 21st ult., I noticed an item copied from the Newbern Nut Shell which is a complete perversion of the truth of the circumstance. The article says that "Daniel Weeks shot and killed B. F. Sanders at a dance at the house of Mr. Bell, and made his escape," whereas B. F. Sanders shot Daniel S. Weeks, Jr., at Joe Jones', the ball entering just above and to the left of the heart. Sanders made his escape, but afterwards surrendered and gave bond in the sum of $2,000 for his appearance at our next term of Court. Weeks' condition, from the time of the affray (March 7th) has been very critical up to a few days ago. He is now convalescent and doing very well.
You will please call the attention of the public to the establishment of a new mail route, with tri-weekly mail from Newport, Carteret county, to Swansboro, in Onslow county. It is of incalculable benefit to our merchants and citizens generally. The intermediate offices are Sanders Store and Cedar Point. We are indebted in no small degree to our most worthy Representative in Congress, Col. A. M. Waddell, for his kind efforts in establishing this route with increase of service.
By the way, I believe Newport was the only voting place in this District which gave Col. Waddell an increased majority at the last election.

P. L. BRIDGERS & CO.
Those who'll read this rhyme and visit our store
Will appreciate more than ever before
That our muse does not vainly aspire
To climb Olympus, and ignorantly expire
In the attempt, but keeps an even pace
With the time, and always point to the place
Where they "blow" about one special thing,
Which has, without doubt, the true business ring.
And this thing we will briefly explain,
With the hope that we will cause no pain
To brother grocers, who, in years gone by,
Learned to get goods at figures that 'were high.
Unfortunately we see some of them incline
To follow the customs of "Auld Lang Syne,"
But we consider it matter of congratulation
That we've no foggy notions in our education
In old time "big profits" had a wide range,
And old habits are hard, hard to change.
Of Wilmington grocers we take the lead!
Now to prove this assertion we only need
To remind the public that our clean new store
Made others be painted and swept a little more!
Like all business men who are truly wise,
We at once began to extensively advertise,
When our friends catching the idea, thought
It well
To increase their space, as the print will tell!
At first, we put some poetry in our "ad,"
But when they saw this plan was not bad,
They followed our lead. And when we tried
To prove it, the public that our clean new store
Made others be painted and swept a little more!
Like all business men who are truly wise,
We at once began to extensively advertise,
When our friends catching the idea, thought
It well
To increase their space, as the print will tell!
