The rule which went into effect January 1st, in the New York and some other banks, not to receive silver dollars except as a special deposit, has not yet had any effect upon the circulation and standing of the standard silver dollar.
This is due perhaps as much to the comparatively limited amount of the dollars in circulation as to the fact that the discrimination against them was by no means general among the banks of the country.

Arrested and Committed.

Toney Potts, a young English lad about 17 years of age, who ran away from the British Barque North Carolina during her last trip to this port, was arrested last night by Mr. Garrell, Superintendent of the Poor House, upon the charge of stealing his watch. The defendant was arraigned before Justice Wagner this morning and committed for trial until to-morrow (Saturday) morning, at 11 o'clock.

Capt. Robeson Married.

Our good-looking and good-natured friend, Capt. Sandy Robeson, of the steamer Wave, was married in Fayetteville yesterday morning to Miss Sallie Fuller. We have been waiting for several years past to write an item of this kind about Capt. Robeson and now that it is in order we extend the happy couple our best wishes for their joint future.

Through to the Gulf.

The Western Railroad is now open to the Gulf, two miles above Egypt, at which place a warehouse is to be erected and a depot established. An excursion train was to have run up to that point yesterday from Fayetteville. Now let the management make a close connection at the river, with the steamers from this city, obviating the charge for drayage in Fayetteville, and the road will do a heap bigger business.

Scarcity of Coal.

The supply of coal in this city having dwindled down to almost nothing, and the ice blockade at the North preventing the receipt of supplies here, Mr. J. A.
Springer ordered by rail a lot from a dealer in Portsmouth, which arrived here yesterday. Of course he had to pay more for it there than it would cost in Philadelphia and the freight on it from Portsmouth to Wilmington was $3 a ton; he will, therefore, ask more money for it.

All Kinds.

In passing Mr. Daniel Quilivan's shop struck by the wind. The shoes were played and asked the name and uses of the shoes. The first examined were the running and trotting plates, then the bar, punice, founder and extension shoes. As punice, founder and extension shoes. As to workmanship they could not be surpassed and Dan is often called upon to put on shoes on diseased feet. He has successfully treated all diseases of horse feet and if your horse has any trouble with his feet he will make short order of it.

The Jewish Festival of Purim.

Although the festival of Purim does not begin until to-morrow night, the Jews throughout the world began to celebrate it on Tuesday night, the beginning of the Fast of Esther. The feast of Purim derives its origin from the story of Esther, so beautifully told in the Old Testament, and is commemorative of the deliverance of the Jews through her instrumentality from the hatred of Haman.
The date of this event is set down in the Jewish chronology as 2,282 years ago, or B. C. 353. The feast is preceded by the Fast of Esther, when the Orthodox Jews abstain from food and drink from sunset to sunset in celebration of the three days' fast of Esther before she presented herself before Ahasuerus to defeat the plot of Haman. Services are held in all the synagogues, and the Book of Esther, termed in Hebrew the Megillah, is read with appropriate prayers.

Among some of the customs now extinct, save with the most ultra Orthodox or Polish Jews, is this: Whenever the name of Haman is mentioned in the reading of the Book of Esther in these synagogues, of which there are a number in this country, the worshippers beat their pews with their clenched fists, or even with hammers with which they provide themselves, to show their detestation of Mordecai's enemy, after these 2,800 years. This custom is considered as reprehensible by the congregations of other synagogues as it would be if performed in any Christian church.

On Wednesday and Thursday are the lesser and greater feasts of Purim. Purim is considered a day of festivities and general rejoicing. Presents are distributed and masquerade balls and parties are given.

War and Gold—A hotel tour based on gold prices. In order to accommodate both classes of travelers, the Grand Central Hotel, on Broadway, New York, is now kept on both planes—the American at $2.50 to $3.00, and the European at $1.00, and upwards, per day. An elegant Restaurant, at moderate prices, is conducted by the Hotel.

Back Again.

Just three months ago, on the 7th day of December, 1878, Messrs. Willard Bros. made an involuntary move from the building they occupied on North Water street, belonging to the London estate, on account of the fire which occurred there on that occasion, and to-day they moved back again into an almost entirely new building, the front of which is entirely new, and much neater and handsomer than the old structure. Paradoxical as it may seem, fires do a great deal of good sometimes, and work wonderful improvements.

Concert by the Colored Military.

The Hanover Light Infantry will give a concert at the City Hall next Monday night, and it is also rumored that a "cake walk" will come off in connection therewith. A walking match will also be one of the features of the occasion.
The distance to be walked is two miles, and a gold prize to the winner is offered by the Mayor. The prize for walking may be competed for by any member of either of the colored military companies in the city. The committee of arrangements are John D. Day, D. M. Price, Charles Miller, Wm. Johnston, J. W.
Green and Capt. Joseph C. Hill.

City Court.

Aldermen Bowden, Mayor pro temp., presiding:
Delafate Towers, an individual of African descent, who keeps a sailor boarding house in the locality commonly denominated as "Paddy's Hollow," who was arrested yesterday afternoon for disorderly conduct, cursing and abusing a police officer and threatening the police man if he laid hands on him (Towers) to strike him—was arraigned this morning before the Mayor pro temp., upon the foregoing charges. The evidence was strong and convincing from several very respectable witnesses, sustaining the indictment. The case was an aggravated one and the acting Mayor pronounced sentence of $30 fine. The extent of the law, we believe, for such an infringement upon the peace of the city is a fine of $50.
The next and last case was W. H.
Love, colored, charged with disorderly conduct—sentenced to pay the costs.

The New Club.

By invitation of some of the members we this morning paid a visit to the elegant rooms of the new club, the Carolina, now being fitted up on the third floor of the McRae building, on North Front street, above Messrs. P. L. Bridgers & Co.'s grocery store. The Club has possession of the entire floor, which is divided into one large room in the centre with two small rooms in front and two in the rear.
The former are being fitted handsomely, one as a reading room and the other as a card room, while of those in the rear one is for the use of the Secretary and the other will be the wash room. The large space in the middle has been fitted up very handsomely as a billiard room with three of Collender's best tables—one pool and two billiard tables. The fittings are all being made here, even the furniture having been ordered from a city dealer. The club now numbers some forty members and others are to be admitted to-night. The rooms will probably be formally opened about the middle of next week.

It is claimed that the object of this club is not only amusement but instruction and that the reading room will be supplied with such choice current literature, as well as the newspapers, as to make it a very attractive feature of the club.

New styles of handkerchiefs have centres of white linen, borders of pink, blue or scarlet, and an embroidered figure in one corner.

There's One Article

No good grocer is ever without, and the public demand it incessantly. We speak of DOUGLASS' YEAST POWDER, long since determined to be the best of its kind.
All bread, biscuit, rolls, cakes, etc., made from it are nutritious, healthy and delicate. Another thing to be remarked is that the cans are full weight, and the powder so pure and strong, that less of it is required for its purpose.

The Wine for Consumptives.

Consumptive persons are said to be greatly benefited by the use of Speer's Port Grape Wine. It seems to give nourishment when everything else fails, and physicians are prescribing it as a rich, nutritious wine. For sale by J. C. Munds, P. L. Bridgers & Co. and Green & Flanner.

Garden Sars.

Messrs. T. B. Henderson & Co., referring to the article in yesterday's REVIEW, relative to the shipment of kale and spin-ach made by them to New York—the first from this port—inform us that the vegetables were raised by Messrs. Willard Bros. at the Belvidere Plantation, near this city.
They also state that they will go into the business extensively this season, and that they are the only buyers, packers and shippers of green vegetables in Eastern North Carolina.

The Baggage Standard.

At the recent meeting of the Southeastern general passenger agents' association in Atlanta, the chief subject of discussion was the amount of baggage each passenger is entitled to carry. It was a well known fact that there has been a great deal of difference among the railroads in charges for extra baggage. A hundred and fifty cents to the person holding a first-class ticket is the standard, and was adopted by the association. All the lines interested are morally obligated to rigidly carry this regulation into effect at once, and hereafter all passengers must pay extra for baggage in excess of this weight.

Found Dead—Foul Play Suspected.

Mr. John A. McCall, a resident of Bladen county, was found dead on Wednesday last, (the 5th inst.) near Lisben, Sampson county. When found, he was lying face downwards at the side of the road. There were appearances of bruises about his neck and face, but the inquest had not been held when our informant left. Mr. McCall was a very much respected and prominent citizen of Bladen county and about 30 years of age and leaves a wife and several children. A strict investigation as to the cause of his death is to be made.

Platt D. Walker III in Raleigh.

We regret to learn, as we do from a telegram received here last evening, that Platt D. Walker, Esq., formerly of this city, but now of Rockingham, is quite ill in Raleigh. The dispatch was to Capt.
J. A. Walker, his uncle, and requested him to come up but as that gentleman is in Raleigh, Mr. Walker's wife has been sent for and is probably now with him. Nothing further had been heard from Raleigh up to 2 o'clock this p. m., and this fact has gone far to allay the fears entertained. We trust, indeed, that he is better to-day.

Steamer North East.

The work of raising the steamer North East, which was burnt to the water's edge some two months ago and sunk near the foot of Orange street, is progressing finely. Her bow has been raised above water and the last chain will be put under her this afternoon. Tomorrow she will be raised, and if her condition proves worse than is at present expected she will either be put on the shoals opposite the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad or at the hospital, about three miles below the city, where she will be pumped out.

A Great Institution.

Hearing to-day some reports of a fire last night near the Navassa Guano Works, a REVIEW reporter visited this afternoon the office of the Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. Donald McRae, to enquire about it. Mr. McRae very kindly put his telephone into requisition and tendered it to our reporter who soon found Col. C.
L. Grallin, the Superintendent, to the fore at the other end. Col. G. informed us that there was a fire there last night but it was only the stubble in a rice-field which had been set on fire for the purpose of getting it out of the way. Col. Grallin then proceeded to give us a "live" item, informing us that the Navassa Guano Company had been shipping its fertilizers North, South and West, as fast as cars could be had to take them there, for days to-day they had loaded 28 cars with 250 tons of guano to be distributed over North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia.

People who cannot keep warm any other way, occasionally resort to scandal. It makes things not generally

A gentleman walking with a lady returns a bow made to her, although the one bowing is an entire stranger to him.
There is very little difference between a man who sees a ghost and one who swallows a bad oyster, so far as looks are concerned.

PLEASE NOTICE.

We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest but:

one side of the paper.

in the editorial columns.

DIED.

At Burgaw, Pender county, N. C., the 2d day of March 1879, Mrs. RACHEL CATFEN, wife of J. J. Cates, in the 19th year of her age. For 41 years previous to her death the deceased was a consistent member of the Epistalian Church of Christ. While a bereaved family and a throng of friends and relatives mourn her loss here she is basking in the sunlight of the love of her blessed Redeemer.
May God sanctify this affliction to the good of those who mourn her death. F. M. M.

P. L. BRIDGERS & CO.

Those who'll read this rhyme and visit our store Will appreciate more than ever before That our muse does not vainly aspire To climb Olympus, and ingloriously expire In the attempt, but keeps an even pace With the time, and always points to the place ring.
And this thing we will briefly explain,
With the hope that we will cause no pain To brother grocers, who, in years gone by, Learned to get goods at figures that were high.
Unfortunately we see some of them incline To follow the customs of "Auld Lang Syne" But we consider it matter of congratulation That we've no foggy notions on our education In old time "big profits" had a wide range, And old habits are hard, hard to change.
Of Wilmington grocers we take the lead Now to prove this assertion we only need To remind the public that our clean new store Made others be painted and swept a little more!
Like all business men who are truly wise,
We at once began to extensively advertise, When our friends catching the idea, thought it well
To increase their space, as the print will tell!
At first we put some poetry in our "ad," But when they saw this plan was not bad, They followed our lead. And when we tried prose
They followed as nicely as if led by the nose We next thought "would be well to try rhyme,
When lo! they grasped the idea as sublime!
Though they have followed in all we have done,
When this battle is well fought and won,
Some will see that "extra percent." isn't "nonsense."
But with old stock and such heavy expense, They will find that the prices of P. L. Bridgers & Co.
If followed will surely bring them to woe To prove that we mean what we say.
We announce that we sell for a week from today, Eleven pounds of "A Sugar" for only one dollar,
Which led we invite all grocers to follow.
The muse here caught sight of that entire horse grinding machine of Herr Von Krs Krigle, and was so thoroughly disgusted at the cheap way of grinding out poetry that neither love nor money could induce him to finish our rhyme, so it had to come to an abrupt ending.
Respectfully and Truly, an 5th P. L. BRIDGERS & CO.
