Boatwright & McKoy—Summerdean—
Pure Bye Whiskey.

The oyster season is wanting rapidly. Day's length 11 hours and 45 minutes. Fires in the woods around the city last night.

Eggs are still plentiful at 10 cents a dozen. Full moon 55 minutes past 7 o'clock this morning.

The Pathfinders were booked for Petersburg last night. Bonnets continue to be worn on a hair-pin at the back of the head.

When fish are weighed the weigh of the scales has to be counted in. Two fine milch cows are offered for sale by Mr. Jas. A. Willard.

The Hollman troupe are booked for Charlotte, April 16th and 17th. Shad were selling to-day in our market at 50 cents per pair. Cheap enough.

Some of the colored military drilled last night by the light of the full moon. Quite a number of large rafts of timber have come down the river to-day.

But one interment in Pine Forest Cemetery during the week—that of an adult. Genuine wits are proverbially few, but nowadays any man can telephone a story.

Bruce Williams, Esq., a prominent citizen of Pender county, was in the city yesterday. The shipping business seems to be suffering a rather unaccountable check, just at this time.

The extensive naval stores yards on Eagle's Island, opposite the city, are covered with resin. The German residents are talking of a Grand Masquerade Ball in Germania Hall, the latter part of this month.

The doors of about thirty churches will be open in this city to-morrow. No excuse in that way for staying at home.

A party of ladies and gentlemen indulged in a little excursion down the river to-day on the steam yacht Passport. The beautiful running moss is in bloom in the woods around the city and parties of young folks go out every day to gather it.

We regret to state that the condition of Mr. J. W. Thompson is no better. He is in a very critical condition but there are still strong hopes of his recovery.

We are glad to learn, from information received here last evening, that Mr. Platt D. Walker's condition is much improved, and that the fears of his friends have been allayed.

Mr. Gabriel Holmes, of the new grocery firm of Holmes & Watters, returned here yesterday morning from New York. These gentlemen hope to open on Tuesday next.

Mr. Sol. Bear, of the extensive wholesale and retail house of Sol. Bear & Bros., left here yesterday morning for the North where he proposes to lay in a spring and summer stock.

We understand that a petition is in circulation praying the Board of Aldermen to tax the "middle-men" in the fish and vegetable markets $1 a week for a license to do business.

A couple of new houses are being erected on Seventh between Market and Princess streets. They will be occupied when finished by Mr. C. G. Southerland and Mrs. R. H. Grant.

"Dooley's Yeast Powder."
Said a lady, "has made itself indispensable in our kitchen. Our biscuits, cake, waffles, muffins, and such like things with its aid are always enjoyable and good. We would not be without it for our family. We have used it for over fifteen years and it has never disappointed us yet."

Try it, for it never disappoints. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Per bottle, 25 cents; large size, 50 cents.

Personal.
Mr. H. S. Solomon with Kramich & Bach, piano manufacturers in New York A. W. Phelps with Chas. M. Cornwall, lithographer and printer, and Mr. Jos. Oppenheimer, General Agent of Berger; & Engel, of Philadelphia, are in the city.

The Perils of the Deep.
The Schooner George Foster has put into Southville in distress, having lost all her sails in the recent heavy weather off the coast. She is loaded with logwood and mahogany, and bound from one of the Mexican ports to New York. Her Captain came to the city on the Passport yesterday and will order new suits of sails from New York.

Purim.
To-morrow is known among those of the Hebrew faith as the day of the "Feast of Purim." It is observed by the Jews as a celebrated festival instituted by Mordecai, at the suggestion of Esther, in the reign of Ahasuerus, king of Persia, to commemorate the deliverance of their race from the designs of Haman.

Grand Purim Ball.
Our Hebrew friends in this city will give a Grand Purim Ball next Monday night at Germania Hall. Messrs Moses Hanstein, Isaac Bear and B. Solomon are the Committee of Arrangements and a grand time may be expected, as none know better how to enjoy themselves than does this class of our citizens.

Pastoral Letter.
It is announced that Bishop Keane has issued a pastoral letter to the churches under his charge. The letter contains a very comprehensive and exhaustive treatise upon Christian marriages, Christian education, secret societies, and observance of the Lord's Day. Under the latter head the Bishop placed particular stress upon the practice of selling liquor upon that day, and exhorted all dealers in that article to refrain from so doing.

To Renovate Black Cashmere.
Rip the dress apart; then soak the goods in warm soap suds two hours; dissolve one ounce of extract of logwood in a bowl of warm water; add sufficient warm water to cover the goods, which is to be taken from the suds without wringing; let the dress stand in the logwood water all night; in the morning rinse in several waters without wringing in the last water; add one pint of sweet milk; iron while damp; it will look like new.

Attempted Incendiarism.
Last evening, between the hours of seven and eight o'clock, an attempt was made to fire the cart house and stables situated on Seventh, between Market and Dock streets, owned by Mr. B. J. H. Ahrens. The fire was discovered by a farmer who had placed his cart in the house and had just finished stabling his horse. Without giving a general alarm he summoned two or three persons standing around to his assistance and extinguished the flames before they had fairly gotten under headway. About a dozen large pieces of light wood had been piled up against the house and then set on fire and when discovered the weatherboarding was burning. Had the fire gotten under way there would have been a great destruction of property as the wind at the time was blowing fresh from the East.

Loss of the Schooner Emblem.
The little schr. Emblem, which has for years past plied between Hyde county and this port, bringing us corn, and taking back miscellaneous merchandise, has been wrecked and will prove a total loss. We learn from the Newbern Nut Shell that she went ashore last Wednesday on Harbor Island Bar, near Hunting Quarters. She had in a cargo of corn which was all saved but part of it in a damaged condition. She was owned by Sheriff Davis and his brother, Mr. H. J. Davis, of Beaufort.

The Emblem, at the time of her loss, was on her way to this port, with a cargo of grain consigned to Messrs. Derosset & Co. The cargo was owned by parties in Hyde county and was fully covered by insurance.

It has been asked when rain falls does it ever get up again? Of course it does in dew time.

A good report lingers on the way, but an ill one flies straight to where it can do the most harm.

It takes the man who wants the office to see the corruption there is in the official circles. The more he sees it the more anxious he seems to be to get into it.

War and Gold—A hotel war based on gold prices. In order to accommodate both classes of travelers, the Grand Central Hotel, on Broadway, New York, is now kept on both plans, the American at $2.50 to $3.00, and the European at $1.00, and upwards, per day. An elegant Restaurant, at moderate prices, is conducted by the Hotel.

The Wine for Consumptives.
Consumptive persons are said to be greatly benefited by the use of Spear's Port Grape Wine. It seems to give nourishment when everything else fails, and physicians are prescribing it as a rich, nutritious wine. For sale by J. C. Munds, P. L. Bridgers & Co. and Green & Flanner.

The Thermometer.
From the United States Signal Office at his place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morning at 7:31 o'clock:
