that strong hopes are now entertained of his speedy recovery.

Young men and women should not be allowed to stand at the gate too long these cool nights. It is liable to bring on new-moon-ia.

H. H. Munson, Esq, has gone North to interview the dealers there relative to the latest spring and summer styles in gents and youths' clothing.

Col. Jno. W. Atkinson is in Raleigh. Yesterday's News says that he made a talk before the Committee on Insurauce on Tuesday night. It is highly spoken of.

One worshipper at the shrine o Bacchus, who was given quarters in cel No. 4. in the City Prison yesterday afternoon, was released this morning, his only offence having been that he was mean to himself by taking on too heavy a load of posed of 293 members in all but there are now six vacancies to be tilled-four from California and one, each, in New York and Texas. This would leave 287 members and of this number the Democrats must have 144, so as to secure the organization. Judge Russell seems almost confident that they will not have this number present on Tuesday, but in this, matter we beg leave to differ with him as we feel well satisfied that they will be there.

Coroner's Inquest.

The body of an unknown white man was discovered floating with the tide near Market Dock this morning about 7 o'clock. It was caught and towed by a colored man to the dock at the foot of Orange street, when Special Coroner Leslie held an inquest over it. The body had evidently been in the water for some time and was badly eaten by fish. So much mutilated was the face that it was impossible to form any idea as to the age of the unfortunate fellow. He wore a pair of pants and calico shirt, but was shoeless and hatless. He is supposed to have been a sailor but nothing definite could be ascertained from shipping masters as no one has been reported missing from the shipping in port. The body was turned over to the county and interred in the public

The New York Herald, of Wednesday, has a short report of the proceed. ings of the previous day's session of the Convention of the above order, as also of the banquet given in their honor on Tuesday evening at Pythagoras Hall. About one hundred and fifty guests were at the table and a long line of toasts was amounting to about $54. The man who "bought cotton" didn't send any money but modestly suggested that he be allowed thirty days on the bill as he didn't want to send the money until he got the goods. In reply he was told that his letter had been received; that his busines card was a model of typographical art and that it read very prettily and looked very nicely, as pretty and nice, in fact now as it did some time ago to the house in this city from whom he ordered a lot of goods then and which now holds his paper on which it would compromise for ten cents on the dollar, but that nothing in the letter looked quite as well as $54 in greenbacks would to the eyes of "yours very respec-W. P. O · · · · · · · fully,

Postal Law Changes-New Fashioned Postal Cards and Envelopes. It is not generally known that just be fore Congress adjourned important amendments to the postoffice, bill were agreed to, and that it became a law. The new law divides all mailable matter into four classes: "First, written matter; second, periodical publications; third, miscellaneous printed matter, and fourth, merchandise." Another clause of the bill provides for the double postal card and for a letter-sheet envelope, which is to be stamped as envelopes are now stamped, and a double-letter envelope. The double postal card is in size similar to the present one-cent card. It bears at both upper corners a one-cent stamp, and lincs are drawn from the centre, sloping downwards to each lower corner, to be written upon. The writer of the card uses the right hand side and the receiver uses the left-hand side for his reply. The doubleletter envelope is stamped twice, and the sender uses the right and the receiver the read. Of these only two are mentioned left-hand side in writing the address.
