bruised on the leg. These two are the only passengers who were seriously hurt and these we are happy to state are not dangerously injured. The others escaped with only slight scratches and bruises

The accident was entirely unforeseen and no balme attaches to any one. The name of the brakeman, whose injuries proved fatal, was Harvey Lewis, and he lived near Charlotte. He had been in the em-

Whales.

A few days ago the steam tug Blanche while cruising about 3 miles to the southward of Seward s Channel, discovered a large whale leisurely making his way South, and the next day the same tug sighted two more, heading in the same direction. That seen on the first occasion was quite large and estimated to measure Meeting Tuesday night, at 7:.45 Church 60 feet in length.

Picked Up.

On Wednesday last the pilot boat Robert H. Cowan picked up, just outside the bar at the mouth of the Cape Fear, the mainmast, with a portion of at $:30 p. m. the rigging attached, of what appeared to be a three-masted schooner. There were no indications by which the name of the vessel could be determined but the mishap probably occurred during the prevalence of the recent severe southeast | day evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The Rocky Point Rock Quarry.

The progress of the work of getting out rock at this rock quarry, near Rocky Point Depot, is rapid. Several hundred laborers are constantly at work there, and it is strange that so few accidents occur in M. Ambier, Rector. Services at 11 a. m. blasting the rock. Scarcely an accident of and 7:30 p. m. Sunday School at 3:30 p. any importance has happened. On Friday however, as we learn, an accident occurred there from reckless negligence and utter circlessness, on the part of three of the hands. The faces of two were injured to curred to the other. Medical attendance was at once secured, and at last accounts two of the three patients were doing well.
